The cost of mobilizing the National Guards on the Mexican border should be charged up to the Wilson campaign fund.

Whiskers seem to be a hoodoo to Wilson. He became tangled up in Carranza's whiskers and been out-generated. The Hughes whiskers are rapidly enveloping him and his name will soon be with the "also rans."

It is announced that the successor of Judge Hughes will not be appointed by President Wilson until fall. Some one has the cruelty to suggest that by that time the executive will be able to determine just which of the aspirants accomplished the most for his re-election.

POLITICAL SPEAKING

Those who congregated at the City Park the Fourth expecting to hear a "Fourth of July Oration" were surprised to hear a Wilson campaign speech. Perhaps the astute politician realized that only under such a pretext as this would he be able to address such a crowd and the temptation to prostitute the day was too much for him.

"Carranza's reply to the United States having made war a remote possibility, there is much disappointment among politician-patriots, who expected to win glory by raising volunteer companies and regiments for the "second call."—Polk County Itemizer.

If there be any such patriots in Polk County why not name them?

The only real kind of prosperity is the kind that grows naturally in time of peace from the judicious Protection of the home market. This is the kind of prosperity the Republican party has always advocated. It would make the question of preparedness dependent solely on the military needs of the country, and not on the necessity of preventing a panic by keeping industries alive with government money alone—Green Bay (Wis) Review.

"Steal the Republican campaign thunder," is the policy of Wilson. Get the Progressives into the Democratic party is the immediate aim of the President. So he rolls himself in the American flag, shouts Americanism, and strives to outdo Theodore Roosevelt in imitation of that leader's vigorous patriotism, and insists on a suggestion of Protection in the party platform through a commission to cheat those who may be deluded in believing the Democratic mule can be disguised by a blanket of claims and promises."

POLK COUNTY IN LINE

Edward D. Baldwin, Secretary of the Republican State Central Committee 1912-1914 was in Falls City Monday night. He is visiting Walter L. Tooze, Jr. of Dallas and viewing the political situation of Polk County. He is private secretary for U. J. Sinnott, Congressman for Eastern Oregon and was prominently mentioned as a candidate for Secretary of State opposed to Ben Olcott but refused to run.

Mr. Baldwin is enthusiastic over the outlook for the party this fall and predicts the greatest victory in the history of presidential elections. The mess Wilson has made of the Mexican affair can not be attributed to anything but incompetency. The belated call of troops to the border on less provocation than has been numbers of times before is regarded as political bunk and won't down with the American voter. The whole of the Wilson administration has been one jumble of bristling notes and cowardly back-downs. He has absolutely refused to withdraw the troops from Mexico until Villa is captured, yet today he is formulating a plausible excuse to recall them to the American side. Mr. Baldwin intended to make an old-time Fourth of July speech at Falls City but was unable to do so. He will be re-elected as state secretary and make an aggressive campaign.

A LAME EXCUSE

The Salem Capital Journal in an attempt to justify the Wilson War Tax, the administration had to levy to make up deficiencies in the revenue, says the tariff was unjust as it permitted the shifting of the cost of government upon those least able to bear it. Now let's see who bears Wilson's War Tax. All freight and express bills must bear a stamp. Do you imagine these companies foot the bills? There are thousands of articles used by everyone on which tribute must be paid. And who pays it? Certainly not the big corporation, or if they do it is taxed up to the consumer and the fellow least able must bear the tax. Thus we have a tariff that affords no protection against foreign competition.
