Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh, which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

Miss Lewis spent the week end in Eugene.

Ester Cleveland was a Dallas visitor Tuesday.

Cecil Buell enrolled in high school Monday morning.

Mrs. R. Paul was a high school visitor Thursday afternoon.

An electric light has been put in front of the school house which is a decided convenience.

Halloween was observed in various ways this week by nearly all of the High School students.

Delbert Deal has taken up teachers training. This brings the number up to eight members.

"Marching in" has become a joy since a new set of drums has been purchased by the school board.

The members of the high school orchestra wish to thank Rev. J. C. Erwin for his gift of song books for their use.

The grades assembled in the High School Auditorium Monday morning for the time this year, and enjoyed some music by the orchestra.

Miss Lewis is teaching the eight grade civil government and drawing and Miss Ritenour writing, while Miss Haslop teaches music in the lower grades.

The second year Science girls prepared a dainty and appetizing breakfast Monday mornins, but as there were no guests present we only have their word for it.

The party was held at the Thompson home Tuesday evening, another at Deal's and the seventh and eighth grades celebrated at the home of Ruth Haven Saturday in spite of hobgoblins, witches and ghosts they all reported a fine time and plenty of pumpkin pie, cider, wienies, apples and other hallowe'en goodies.

Mr. Bedient wishes to express his thanks to the party or parties that were so thoughtful Wednesday. He being tired, was dreading the task of getting wood into the basement, but on arriving at the school house he found that some thoughtful person, perhaps thinking that the janitor might be out late the evening before, had carried nearly a cord of wood around the school house and piled it in front of the basement door, if the obliging party will make themselves known Mr. Bedient will endeavor to make it right with him.

Dated and first published Nov., 4, 1916.

M.L. Thompson
Administrator aforesaid.
Oscar Hayter,
Attorney.

ROLL CALL OF THE CABINET

Postmaster General Burleson is in the middle west trying to explain why the postal service has been so rotten for the past three years. Secretary McAdoo is in the same States thimblerrigging the public with his "not balance" figures. Secretary Baker has been touring New Jersey. Secretary Daniels is campaigning in Iowa, Missouri, and Kansas with a pop-gun and a toy ship. Secretary Houston is in New England explaining why his department published unreliable reports in regard to the wheat crop. Secretary Wilson is in the middle west trying to show that ten hours wages for eight hours work on the railroads constitutes an eight-hour day. Secretary Redfield has been touring New England and New York, abusing manufacturers, denying that the war has anything to do with our prosperity, and yowling for free trade. Secretary Lane is tied up with the Mexican Conference, but an occasional bulletin emanates from that secret conference informing us that all is well. Meanwhile, Villa is chasing Carranza up a tree. Secretary Lansing refuses to be dragged into the campaign of vilification and false, but he is holding up the German agreement until after election. Vice-President Tom Marshall perches on top of the Democratic tree singing "Woodrow, tit Woodrow, tit Woodrow"! Attorney General Gregory crawled into his hole shortly after the Maine elections, and all he does is growl a little. He used up his lexicon in the Maine campaign. In fine, though the dignity of the presidential cabinet has been pawned in a second-hand store, it is remarked that the efficiency of the various departments over which these cabinet officers preside increases with their absence.

PLANTED ON "STONY GROUND"

The versatile editor of the Falls City News ought to move his editorials up 56 years. This is 1916.—Independence Monitor.

Thanks, awfully! Just what we have been trying to pound into the vacuum above the mouth-piece of such fellows—that the policies of the "Solid South," that he so "independently" advocates are the same as they were in '61. That he is beginning to realize that the "war" is over and that the Confederate States of America no longer exists is gratifying indeed. We feel that good seed planted, even on "stony ground" will sometimes take root and yield a harvest.

*****
* MR. WILSON TOOK PLEAS- *
* URE IN EXTENDING THE * * HAND OF WELCOME *
* TO CARRANZA. *
* * * * *
* One of these "uncivilized" acts *
* was committed on September *
* 29th, when some of Carranza's *
* soldiers captured an American *
* trooper, killed him and cut *
* off his head and ears. Exactly *
* twenty days later, on October *
* 19th, Mr. Wilson expressed *
* "pleasure" in informing Carranza *
* that he recognized him! Since *
* the recognition, Carranza's troops *
* by his orders have treacherously *
* attacked and murdered American *
* soldiers on at least two oc- *
* casions. If the acts above recited *
*—which are merely samples of *
* the course of conduct Carranza *
* has already pursued—do not con- *
* stitute "intrigue and assassina- *
* tion, treachery and violence," *
* then the words have lost their *
* meaning. Mr. Wilson took "pleas- *
* ure" in "extending the hand of *
* welcome" to Carranza, whose *
* own hand is red with the blood *
* of murdered men and women of *
* his own nation, and whose hands, *
* unlike the hands of Huerta, were *
* also red with the blood of mur- *
* dered Americans, of murdered *
* American civilians, and of mur- *
* dered American soldiers wearing *
* the American uniform. But Pres- *
* ident Wilson cared as little for *
* the deaths of these men as he *
* cared for the honor of the uni- *
* form. He with "pleasure" "ex- *
* tended the hand of welcome" to *
* the man guilty of their murder. *
*—From the Speech of Colonel *
* Roosevelt at Battle Creek, Mich- *
* igan, in Behalf of Mr. Hughes. *
