RED CROSS WEEK The Red Cross Campaign Week was opened in Falls City Tuesday evening by a mass meeting at the hall. Several speakers addressed the people setting forth the aims and the great need of the organization in the present war. $325 was subscribed and arrangements have been made for workers to solicit further contributions. On Thursday night an English soldier, who had been wounded, made a talk at the hall. He told of the great suffering of the soldiers for lack of proper care. He said that anyone who would not contribute to the Red Cross fund should be transported to a lone island and denied any communication with his fellow man. Such methods are hardly necessary in this country. The Red Cross is entirely commendable and the American people respond liberally to any organization they deem as being worthy of their support.

The members of the "Brotherhood of American Yeoman" are very proud of a personal letter received from H. C. Evans, editor of Yeoman Shield, stating that the Falls City Homestead did the best of any in contributing to the Red Cross fund.

Sunday School 10:00 Morning Worship 11. AFTERNOON Junior League 3:00. Epworth League 7:00. Evening Service 8:00 WEEK-DAY SERVICE

Gospel Chorus 7:30 p. m. Tuesday Prayer Meeting 8, pm Wednesday

The Ladies Aid of the Methodist Church met at the home of Mrs. Hellwarth, on Wednesday afternoon and quilled. It was well attended.

The Piano Recital given by Miss Miller's music class on Thursday evening at the M. E. Church was a decided success. Every number on the program was well rendered and reflects great credit on Miss Miller and her pupils. Mention should be made of the two young ladies who graduated. Rev. A.F. Hanson, the pastor of the Church, in a few appropriate remarks presented the diplomas to Miss Mildred Grant and Miss Lota Bradley. The church was beautifully decorated. The program as a whole was enjoyed very much by the people of Falls City and vicinity as evidenced by the attendance and applause given each number.

Subject next Sunday morning at the M. E. Church: The Great Quest. Special music at morning service. The Sunday School begins at 10 o'clock. You are requested to attend. There are classes to accommodate all. Come and bring some one with you that is not attending elsewhere. Be a booster and keep up the interest during vacation. The Junior League meets next Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock in the League room for the last time before vacation. Miss Hammond who has so ably led the Juniors will begin her vacation next week. She goes to Chicago for an extended visit.

The topic for June 24th of the Epworth League is a missionary story. "The visit of the Head Hunters." The League is growing in interest and numbers.

The meeting last Sunday night was very interesting. Miss Balderree of Dallas Chapter led the meeting in exchange with two members of the local Chapter. She selected some of her missionary experience in a trip to Japan and over there. A full attendance is desired.

The evening services at the M. E. Church will be introduced by a song service. Come and enjoy this and bring your friends with you. It is the purpose of the pastor to have a ten or fifteen minute song service precede the evening services. The pastor will have a helpful message. You are most cordially invited.

A week from Sunday the morning services will be of a patriotic nature all around. Rev. Hanson wishes to announce that he will soon begin a series of vacation sermons.

We will be glad to have you and yours come and worship with us if you are not worshipping elsewhere. If you cannot attend the morning services attend the evening. Better still, attend both. A. F. Hanson, Pastor.

$100 Reward, $100 The readers of this paper will be pleased to learn that there is at least one dreaded disease that science has been able to cure in all its stages, and that is Catarrh. Hall's Catarrh Cure is the only positive cure now known to the medical fraternity. Catarrh being a constitutional disease, requires a constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY, & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by all Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

A Queer Animal. "That is the only animal I ever saw that would eat and drink and sleep upside down," said a visitor to the zoo, indicating a fruit bat or flying squirrel from Borneo. It hung head downward in its cage. Three curved claws on what appeared to be its tail embraced a roof bar. In its pendulous position it reached out for the disks of banana, the keeper passed through the bars. Finishing its meal, it swung over to a cup of water and took a drink. Then, folding its membranous wings, it closed its eyes and was soon asleep.—New York Sun.

Consolation. "I have been a drudge all my life," he complained. "Well," the unsympathetic old bachelor replied, "it's largely your own fault. Why did you ever get married? Look at me." "Yes, I'm looking at you. That's what reconciles me to my condition. After all, there are worse things than drudges in the world."—Chicago Herald.

Cat Worship. In ancient Egypt the cat was an object of worship. Herodotus narates that when an Egyptian house was on fire the first thing to be saved was the cat. When the Romans conquered Egypt the cat received no more consideration than the religion of which it formed a part. Before that time in Egypt to kill a cat, even by accident, was punishable with death.

Well Trained. Landlady—That new boarder doesn't talk about himself, does he? Housemaid—No. Landlady—Wonder if he's married? Housemaid—Sure he is! Landlady—How do you know? Housemaid—He only uses one book in the wardrobe in his room.—Buffalo Express.

Can You Beat It? "Jack, dear, which would you rather lose, me or my money?" "You, dearest." "Oh, Jack!" "But I would. Because, you see, dear, if I lost you I would have the money to offer a large reward and get you back again." "You darling boy!" —Boston Transcript.
