If you have an item of news, bring or send it in to the News office; or put it in the "News box" at the postoffice. Be sure to get them in early as possible. If anything happens on Monday don't wait until Friday afternoon to get it in. Should we ask you "where you are going" or "who is visiting you," don't imagine that we are impatient; but if you are ashamed of it, give us the wink and we'll pass you up. A little co-operation will make a wonderful difference. Try it.

The young people of the M. E. church had a surprise on Lloyd Miller last Thursday night. All had a good time and it was a real surprise. On Thursday night of this week the Epworth League had a combined social and business meeting at the home of the president, Hanvy Deal. A team came in for all from town and they piled on a hayrack. It is needless to say that a pleasant and profitable time was had. Miss Elizabeth Deal the League delegate to the Institute at Jefferson gave her report last Sunday morning. It was a good report and enjoyed by all.

Dr. Ford, our District Superintendent, preached Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock and at three o'clock conducted the 4th Quarterly Conference. An adjourned session of this conference will be held before the annual conference.

The Senior Young Peoples' choir met for practice on Friday night at the church.

Don't forget that the Sunday school hour is from 10 to 11. You are welcome to come and join one of the classes. The attendance keeps up well during the summer season. Let us continue to boost.

At the hour of the morning preaching service the pastor will have a helpful and inspiring message. Come again next Sunday. We were all glad to see you there last Sunday. The Senior Young Peoples' choir will sing at the morning service.

The Junior League will soon begin holding meetings again on Sunday afternoons.

The subject for next Sunday night at the Epworth League, is "Cowardice makes weaklings." Leader, Eddie Warren. Meeting opens promptly at 7 o'clock. Interest is on the increase. Come and take part.

At the hour of the evening preaching service the pastor will begin a series of Sunday evening vacation sermons. Subject for next Sunday night: "Thru Nature to God." The Gospel Chorus will sing, assisted by the orchestra. There will be special music. Come out next Sunday night and enjoy the entire service.
