There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only Constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

CLEVELAND-GRAVE

On Tuesday evening, September 4th, at the home of the bride's mother in Falls, City, occurred the marriage of Miss Bessie Mildred Cleveland, of Falls City, and Mr. Benson Edward Graves of Fort Benton, Montana. The ceremony was performed by Elder H. G. Thurston of Salem, in the presence of some forty assembled relatives and friends.

At eight o'clock the strains of Lehengrin's Wedding March, as played by Miss Grace Hastings, of Airlie, were heard and the wedding party took their places beneath the floral arch. The groom was accompanied by Mr. Austin Titus of Falls City. The brides maids, Miss Esther Cleveland and Miss Gladys Harlan, also of Falls City, preceded the bride, who was accompanied by her cousin, Miss Madge Allensworth of Carson, Iowa, as maid of honor.

The bride's gown, with overskirt of Georgette, was of Japanese silk trimmed with silver lace, pearls, and hand embroidery. Her veil was held in place by a band of the silver lace and edged with pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and sweet peas. The maid of honor wore white crepe de chine with pink satin trimmings, and carried white roses. Miss Esther Cleveland wore pink crepe de chine trimmed in white Georgette with silver lace, and carried a white basket with pink maline trimmings, containing pink and white asters. Miss Gladys Harlan wore pink taffeta with silver trimming, and carried pink and white asters in a pink basket with white maline trimmings. The groom and his best man wore navy blue.

Immediately following the ceremony the guests were summoned to the veranda which had been inclosed with fir boughs, autumn leaves and ferns. This bower was decorated in pink and white and lighted by Japanese lanterns. Here a two-course luncheon was served, the color scheme of pink and white being carried out in the refreshments. During the evening, punch was served in the dining room.

The rooms were decorated in pink and white, and pink and white asters were used in profusion. The arch where the ceremony took place was of pink and white trimmed with ferns and asters.

Many useful and valuable presents were received, among which was a quilt, made by Mr. Graves' grandmother who is eighty-two years of age.

Mr. and Mrs. Graves left on Wednesday morning for Corvallis and Elk City. Saturday they leave for Fort Benton, where they will be at home to their many friends after October first, visiting Glacier Park and other points of interest enroute.

While Mr. Graves is not so well known in Falls City as is his bride who has made her home here for several years and is a young lady of many graces and popular with all, yet he has many friends who join in wishing them a long, happy and prosperous life together.

The out of town guests were: Mrs. E. B. Graves, Elk City; Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Pollock and daughter, Tidewater; Mr. and Mrs. Claude Cleveland and little son, Glendale; Mrs. W. A. Allensworth and Miss Madge Allensworth, Carson, Iowa; and Miss Grace Hastings' Airlie.
