The Hicks 1918 Almanac

For more than twenty-five years the Hicks Almanac has had a world-wide reputation. The 1918 Almanac has been prepared by Irl R. Hicks, Jr., assisted by Rev. John B. Noys, for many years the assistant editor associated with Rev. Irl R. Hicks. Bigger, brighter better than ever is a concise description of the 1918 Almanac. It is now ready and is sold as before for 35c postpaid. Word and Works is the name of the monthly family magazine founded by Rev. Irl R. Hicks. The subscription price is $1.00 a year, including a copy of The Hicks Almanac to the subscriber. Send 5 cents for a sample copy. Write, Word and Works Pub. Co. 3401 Franklin Ave, St. Louis, Mo

SHERIFF'S SALE

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of an execution and order of sale issued out of the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon for Polk County, on the 17th, day of November, 1917, and to me directed, upon a judgment which was enrolled and docketed in the office of the clerk of said Court on the 13th, day of October, 1917, in a certain suit then pending in said Court wherein Pauline M. Hahn was plaintiff and Sarah Lineback, Abraham Lineback and Jane Doe Cox, were defendants, (Case No 5084), a Judgment was rendered in favor of the above named plaintiff, Pauline M. Hahn and against the above named defendants, Sarah Lineback, Abraham Lineback and Jane Doe Cox, for the sum of Four Hundred Dollars ($400.00) now due on said judgment, with interest thereon at the rate of 9 per cent per annum from the 16th, day of June, 1916, together with Forty Dollars ($40.00), Attorney's fees, with interest thereon at the rate of 9 per cent per annum from the 13th, day of October, 1917, and the further sum of Fifteen Dollars ($15.00), costs and disbursements and costs of and upon this writ; and whereas, it was further ordered and decreed by said Court that the following described property should be sold by me to satisfy said execution, therefore, I will, on Monday, the 24th, day of December, 1917, at the hour of one o'clock p. m. of said day, at the front door of the Court House at Dallas, Oregon, in Polk County, sell at public auction to the highest bidder for cash in hand on day of sale all the right, title, interest and estate which said defendants, Sarah Lineback, Abraham Lineback and Jane Doe Cox, have in or to the hereinafter described premises and every part thereof.

Said property is described as follows.—Beginning 26 chains South and 7.90 chains West of the North East corner of the Donation Land Claim of John Sheldon and wife, Not. 6832, Claim No. 41, in Township 8 South Range 6 West of the Willamette Meridian, in Polk County, Oregon, and running thence North 112 feet; thence West 100 feet; thence South 112 feet; and thence East 100 feet to the place of beginning.

It being the intention to include herein all that portion of the premises received by mortgagors in a deed dated March 29th, 1912, and recorded on page 558 of book 56 Deed Records for Polk County, Oregon, which has been undisposed of by said mortgagors.

Said sale being subject to redemption in the manner provided by law, the proceeds thereof to be applied to the payment of the aforesaid judgment.

Dated this 24th, day of November, 1917.

JOHN W. ORR,
Sheriff of Polk County, Ore.
W. C. WINSLOW,
Attorney for plaintiff.

Mr. Reynolds has been engaged in farming during the past two years, this year near Falls City. He says that he has quit the printing business, but we all quit—some-time.

One can not help but smile at some of the concoctions proposed by food experts. The home-made soap deserves special notice. It is to be made from meat drippings and concentrated lye, and is highly recommended for the bath. It doubtless would be efficient in removing dirt, but we are inclined to believe that it would remove some of the hide also. By all means, make the soap, but be sure and "Hooverize" when using it for the bath.
