Oom Paul Finds End of Trouble.
Geneva, Switzerland, July 14—Paul Krugar, former president of the Transvaal, died at Clarens in the Swiss Canton of Vaud, at 3 o'clock this morning.
His death was due to heart weakness resulting from an attack of pneumonia. He had been ill for a month past. Last Monday he lost consciousness. His daughter and son-in-law were at his bedside.
The body was immediately embalmed and later in the day the remains will be placed in a tomb pending the result of an application to England for permission to take the body to the Transvaal for final interment. The request is in accordance with a wish often expressed by Krugar that he might be buried beside his late wife.
Storm Deals Death.
Manila, July 13.—As a result of a fearful rain storm, which was virtually a cloud-burst 200 persons are dead at San Juan del Monte, a few miles northeast of this city. The property loss will exceed $2,000,- 000.
For 20 hours rain fell in torrents. It reached an unprecedented aggregate of 17 inches, San Juan del Monte is a pretty little city nestling among the beautiful hills, which latter were the city's curse. The water swept down upon the place in great rivers, sweeping before it. A majority of the residences are built of bamboo and thatched with nipa. These, which were mostly occupied by natives, were swept away.
Hundreds of people have fled to the surrounding hills to await the subsiding of the flood. The only method of communication in the city is by means of boats.
San Juan del Monte is historical from the fact that it was, in 1839, a battle ground upon which the Second Oregon regiment of infantry sustained severe casualties, in battle with troops under Generals Pilar and Lupa of the insurgent army.
Asked to Address old War Veterans.
Howard M. Bronnell, a rising young attorney of Marshfield, is in receipt of a very flattering letter from Col. F. Blumenrother of Bandon, inviting him to deliver an address to the old soldiers during the annual encampment of the Southwestern Oregon Association of Veterans, which will be held at that place on August 24, 25 and 26.
Colonel Blumenrother heard Mr. Bronnell deliver an oration at Langlois on July 4, and being favorably impressed with the gentleman's eloquence, hastens to secure him for the coming encampment.—

Steamer Islander Located.
Vancouver, B. C. July 14.—The Neptune Saligne company, of Tacoma, located the wreck of the steamer Islander with a patent diving bell, in over 300 feet of water, and reported that she is intact, excepting a big hole in the bow, and can be raised. She struck an iceberg in Douglas channel in August, 1902, while returning from Skagway, with 100 passengers and half-a million in gold aboard, forty being drowned.
Weak Hearts. are caused by indigestion. If you eat a little too much, or if you are subject to attacks of indigestion, the stomach expands—swells and puffs up against the heart. This crowds the heart and shortens the breath. Rapid heart beats and heart disease is the final result. Kodol Dyspepsia Cure digests what you eat, takes the strain off the heart, cures indigestion, dyspepsia, sour stomach, and contributes nourishment, strength and health to every organ of the body. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.
In the French army each officer sum adequate to the would-be bridegroom's rank. A Colonel costs the NOTES AND COMMENT.

The Japs are not all editors, of course. But they seem to be taking a good many passes on all the Russian roads.
Stuart Reid, a nephew of Whitelaw Reid, had entered the flying machine competition in St. Louis.
He has constructed a machine which he declares is a winner.
The impudence of Raisouli and his brother brigands in coming down to the coast to inspect the American warships and listen to the music is a piece with their kidnap-ing. They seem to be regular mass-bandits.
The cheerful readiness of the Japanese soldiers to die rather than surrender is nothing but a form of Oriental suicide. It illustrates the fanatical spirit of the Orientals with which the Western nations will sooner or later have to deal.
The orders of the Catholic brotherhoods in France are making violent resistance to disestablishment.
The Capucine and Remonstrant monks barricaded their doors and windows, and were forced out only by being deluged by the fire department.
The Pope has addressed a letter to the French bishops anxiously inquiring whether the separation of church and state in France will diminish the French contribution of Peter's Pence, and if so, how the deficit is to be made up. Perhaps the purely voluntary method will justify itself.
The graduation of Helen Keller from Radcliffe College with high honors will serve one useful lesson if it stimulates to greater effort all students who being in possession of all their faculties and senses, have still been unable to master such a remarkable list of attainments as that achieved by this girl who is entirely blind, deaf and dumb.
General Massay is still living at 76. His gifted optimism has probably kept him alive, for he began to write socialistic poems and labor songs more than half a century ago. Ten years before the election of Lincoln his humane spirit sent echoes through English factories, "yet millions of hands want acres, and millions of acres want hands."
The wide spread newspaper statement that by an executive order the official name of this country has become "America" is entirely an error. Only the adjective American has been adopted to our embassies abroad. As a matter of fact, however, this country has long been called "America" by Mexico, and several of the Central American and South American republics, which freely give us precedence.
Justice Brown of the United States Supreme Court has noticed that the wealthy young man generally curls up on the door mat and has to be kicked off. "The sons of the rich," he says, "have sometimes succeeded in spite of their wealth; the sons of the poor, by the necessity of surmounting their poverty." He holds that wealth is handicap to the young.
The scheme which Delia Bacon prosecuted fifty years ago to dig up Shakespeare's remains and find in the casket the confession that his plays were written by Lord Bacon, has taken new life, this time among the English people themselves. The project is received with a good deal of favor in the literary world, even among those who do not at all believe that William Shakespeare was Lord Bacon's nom de plume. They admit that it is a subject worth investigating.
Wonderful Nerve.
Is displayed by many a man enduring pains of accidental Cuts, Wounds, Bruises, Burns, Scalds, Sore feet or stiff joints. But there's no need for it. Bucklen's Arnica Salve will kill the pain and cure the trouble. It's the best Salve on earth for Piles, too. 25c. at R. S.
