Grandma Roberson passed away.

Word was received by her people here by wire of the passing off of this stage of life of Grandma Roberson, at Oakland, Cal., at an early hour yesterday morning. The old lady was taken by something like cholera morbus several days ago and gradually grew weaker until death relieved her suffering.

The deceased has lived for many years in Coos County, for a long time being a leading hotel keeper in this city, who will be remembered by many residents of the county, and will be greatly missed by a large circle of friends in this city.

Her grandson, Dave Collier started to her bedside Monday evening, reaching there the evening before she passed away. Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Roberson have been with her since they returned from their eastern trip, and did what they could for her comfort. It is presumed the body will be interred at this place.
