

Coos County Mines.

The mining industry in the vicinity of Salmon Mountain and on South Sixes river, just across the line into Curry county, has more than trebled during the last year, and it must be admitted that the hunt for, and the extracting of the precious metals from that mining belt has assumed an importance second to none in this section.

California Gravensteins are usually out of the way by the 15th of August, and we have no other good apple to come in between that and the 10th or 15th of September, when our Bellflowers are ready.

Mr. Jewett has arranged for W. T. Kerr & Co., to establish a packing house in Coquille City, and the latter will soon be ready for all the apples that come to him and pay spot cash for them.

Mrs. Frank Kelly passed away at her home at North Bend on Saturday, August 20, 1904, at 10:30 p. m. The funeral took place August 23rd at 2 p. m., under the auspices of camp 164, Women of Woodcraft, of Marshfield, of which she was an honored member.

Joe Kennedy has also made an excellent find while extending a tunnel in an old abandoned claim on the north bank of Johnson creek.

Money in Growing Apples.

Mr. E. L. Jewett, of Hunt, Hatch & Co., (wholesale commission merchants) of San Francisco, has been in Coos county for several days, looking for good shipping apples.

In talking over the situation with our reporter, Mr. Jewett says: "Coos county has an ideal soil and climate for some of the leading varieties of apples, and if the farmers will wake up, get their old orchards in good condition and set out new orchards of good varieties, they will soon be making more money per acre of apples than by any other line of farming they can take up."
