Fresh News on Moving Trains.

The Union Pacific railroad company, in response to a genuine demand, has decided to issue a bulletin news service for the benefit of its passengers. It will be posted twice a day in typewritten form in the buffet car so that the passengers may always be kept in close touch with the progress of events. Through wireless telegraphy the same result has been reached on the ocean steamers.

It goes to show the universal hunger for news, the nearness of the people of the world to each other and the extreme interest which each one feels not only in the doing of his neighbors, but the larger movements of the government. It is that very instinct that is bringing the whole world into closer relations, that is bringing an era of better feelings and that will ultimately tend to lessen misunderstandings which are so often based upon false or inadequate information.

It is somewhat remarkable that it has been left for a western road to introduce this innovation. There is little doubt that it will fill a long-felt want and that the plan will be eagerly copied by other railroads which are bidding for public favor and doing everything possible to increase the comfort of those who patronize them.

Future Demand for Door Stock.

President Sam Connell, of the Northwest Door Co., of Portland, commenting on the probable future demand for fir door stock as a substitute for Eastern pine, says:

"A few days ago Mr. Waters, of the Foster Lumber Company, Oshkosh, Wis., was in Portland. He came here to look over the field with a view of ascertaining what could be done in the matter of securing yellow fir door stock for his factory at that place. He said that 85,000,000 feet of door stock was used annually in Oshkosh, and that his concern used 15,000,000 feet each year. It usually keeps about 11,000,000 feet in stock in the yard, but the supply is now down to something near 2,000,000 feet, and other yards were in like condition. Railroad lumber yards also were short on stock. The door factories have future contracts to fill, and it is important that they contract for stock from such sources that can be absolutely depended upon.

Mr. Waters did not see where he could depend on getting 5,000,000 feet of the proper grade of yellow fir next year, let alone 15,000,000 feet. It is not necessary that the yellow fir door stock be free from knots, but it must be high grade stock, and the lumber must be steamed and kiln-dried before it is shipped. These conditions are imperative.

The fact is the mills on the Coast, with few exceptions, have not made a specialty heretofore of catering to Eastern fir door stock, but it is certain to come. Door stock must be properly treated, graded as to quality and cut into such lengths as will be desired by the manufacturers. A few years ago we made an effort to secure Oriental trade and business, but it did not all come at once. The door stock for the big factories in the East must come from the Northwest.—Oregonian Timberman.

Suspension for three months is the penalty prescribed for the punishment of students who engage in any form of hazing at the University of Oregon. President Campbell is the sort of man who will see that the rules are enforced, and with that generally understood there is likely to be no trouble. When rivalry between classes engaged in intellectual pursuits reaches a stage where bodily injury is inflicted and property is destroyed, it is time for some authority to step in and enforce the observance of rules of conduct which ought to prevail in civilized communities.—Oregonian.

Girls Commit Heinous Crime.

The body of C. S. Stewart, a prominent farmer who, with his two daughters, aged respectively 11 and 13 years, resided near Marlin, Texas, was found last Saturday lying on a cot on the porch of his residence.

His head had been severed with a sharp axe. The blood-stained clothing of the two girls caused suspicion to be directed against them. At the time of the finding of the body, however, they claimed they had heard no noise and did not know who had killed their father. They were sharply questioned and later confessed to committing the horrible crime, saying their father was to marry and they objected.

A letter addressed to him came during his absence. It was from the children's prospective stepmother, and they destroyed it. The father learned this, and when he came home Friday night told the girls that he was going to kill them and that they must say their prayers. That he didn't carry out the threat, the presumption is that he told this to frighten them into submission. When he took a nap the two girls got an axe and chopped his head off. The girls are both intelligent and and pretty, but seem to feel no remorse for the heinous crime.—Post.

Col. Daniel Lamont says: "We are all today either Parker men or Roosevelt men! Perhaps Col. Lamont thinks so, but there are those who do not agree with him. There still exist a good many Bryan men, Populists and Prohibitionists.

With David B. Hill, Wm. J. Bryan, and Mr. Hearst keeping close mouths and letting the machine run itself, the campaign is thus far very tame and uninteresting. There is not any opposition worth speaking about. A red hot issue needs to be injected into the canvass.

About all the strikes have been called off, and the cotton and other mills are starting up. The approach of frost and snow sets men to thinking that half a loaf is better than none. In New York the subway engineers will get their $3.50 per day, at least until the 8th of November when some sort of a slump may be looked for. On the whole the labor situation assumes a much brighter aspect and peace and plenty are smiling at each other.

Unclaimed Letters.

Following is a list of letters in the Coquille postoffice which are unclaimed for and advertised by the postmaster: W. T. Burton (3), Rosco Bolsinger, (1), Walter Kruk (2), Dick John (1), C. T. Smith (1), John Small (1).

Taken With Cramps

Wm. Kirmse, a member of the bridge gang working near Littleport was taken suddenly ill Thursday night with cramps and a kind of cholera. His case was so severe that he had to have the members of the crew wait upon him and Gifford was called and consulted. He told them he had a medicine in the form of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy that he thought would help him out and accordingly several doses were administered with the result that the fellows able to be around next day. The incident speaks quite highly of Mr. Gifford's medicine.—Elkader, Iowa, Argus.

This remedy never fails. Keep it in your home, it may save life. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

W. A. Goodman will go anywhere in Coos county to move your house or barn.

NOTE AND COMMENT.

Up to date, so far as known, but 105 deaths have taken place from tetanus, as the fruits of Fourth of July celebrations and the toy pistol habit. Last year the grave claimed 15 victims who fell a sacrifice to the patriotism of noise. We are slowly becoming civilized and sometime a reformed Fourth of July will arrive.

Out of 805 cases of suicide last year, 337 were caused by the use of carbolic acid, being more than 41 per cent. The sanitary code of New York City has been amended to provide that this acid shall not be sold at retail, except on prescription, in a stronger solution than 5 per cent.

It seems that women cannot be employed as letter carriers because the regulations of the postal service require that such individuals shall wear "gray trousers." It doesn't matter about the "gray"—the rub comes on the trousers. Where is Dr. Mary Walker? Such a regulation would not embarrass her.

The remote possibility of free trade in Philippine tobacco has sent a shiver of financial apprehension through New England and Southern tobacco growers. Democrats and all, alike, have agreed to cry for protection. It is claimed that disaster is sure to follow in the trail of Philippine tobacco. Why ever in the world did Dewey take those islands? A plague on all of them! Even if the Democrats win at the polls we have Judge Parker's word for it that there cannot be any material alteration in the tariff.

Many of the farmers in New England are going into the business of raising Angora goats. To this end one thousand have been purchased in New Mexico, and will be distributed in small bunches to such as care to go into the business. The silky hair of the goat brings from forty to fifty cents a pound, and there is a great demand for it by manufacturers. Already more than 6,000,000 pounds of the hair is imported annually from the far east. This is an industry which is developing very fast in this country, and there is no good reason why we should not raise all we consume. The Angora goat is essentially a cold weather animal, and can get a good living on the abandoned farms and the rocky hill sides of New England which at present lie fallow.

Another great discovery has been made by an agricultural scientist named Dunbar. It is called the "sneeze germ"—anything which irritates the olfactory nerve, and makes the "victim sneeze his head off." Capsicum, or red pepper is an excellent example of this germ; so is snuff, and many other things which may be named. Also certain pollen grains in flowers will produce sneezing if they reach the Schneiderian membrane. These facts are neither new or alarming. A name has been given to the germ in the interests of science. It is called the "toxalbumin," or poison albuman. It is the same as the "hay fever germ." To escape this dreadful germ, plug the nose during the autumn months with cotton which has been sprayed with a weak solution of cocaine. A glove finger might also be worn over the end of the nose.

Recently there has been a great reduction of employes and wages on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, which connects Boston and New York. The plea was that economical considerations and good business management demanded the closest economy. A number of trains have also been discontinued, much to the annoyance of passengers and the traveling public. Now it is advertised that two new trains have been put on the road called the "Merchants' Limited," the equipment of which cost $250,000. Parlor cars in dulled vermilion wood, upholstered in green plush; electric lights; new engines, etc. Thus luxury trends upon the heels of enforced reduction of wages. How would it work to put a "Common People's Limited" on the road, with plain fittings and a reduced fare?
