North Fork Items.

Having been sometime since I read any items from this part of the country, I decided to write a few.

Our people are all feeling fine after the rain, and enjoy the cool pleasant weather.

Farmers are busy hauling produce to market, and bringing home their winter supplies.

The Lee school is progressing very nicely under the management of Miss Mulkey.

Miss Anna Hall of the lower North Fork, who has been visiting with relatives and friends, departed for Philomath on Monday to resume her studies in the U. B. college of said place.

Edwin Barker and Edward Teters of Fairview, are seen occasionally in the vicinity of Gravelford, a long ways from home. Wonder what the attractions are?

Otto Mitchell of Arago passed through Gravelford on Tuesday, with a drove of cattle which he was taking to Douglas county.

C. Hammerloff paid the county seat a visit on Tuesday.

Rev. Geo. E. Wood of this place held services at the M. E. church South, last Sunday. This being his first sermon, we feel proud to congratulate him on the able and pleasing manner in which he delivered his discourse. A very large crowd was present, we all hope to hear Bro. George again.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Lichty gave a farewell dinner on Sunday, in honor of their brother Geo. E. Wood who left on Monday for Philomath to enter college, to prepare himself for the ministry. The dinner was a very nice affair and the table fairly groaned beneath its load of good things. Many guests were in attendance. Among those present were: Mr and Mrs S Shuck, Mr and Mrs W Shuck, Mr and Mrs Geo Morehouse, Mr and Mrs F Harnish, Mr and Mrs Geo Clinton, Misses Clara Shuck, Rose Mulkey, Ida Hammerloff, Metta Hansen, Blanch Chandler, Sylvia Culbertson, Maggie Clinton; C R Bennett, E Doyle, G E Wood, H Wood, J Shuck, L Johnson, C Johnson. It was a very pleasant occasion and all had a good time.

AULD LANG SYNE.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lorenz, of Bandon are visiting in town.

Hans Christensen, of the oil works below Bandon, went to the bay on business Wednesday.

A. J. Wimer, formerly a grocery merchant in this city, and who has spent the past few years in Josephine county, has returned and purchased the small place at the mouth of Cunningham of W. B. Rohrer, formerly owned by Rev. C. D. Price. We are glad to have Mr. Wimer back with us again.

J. R. Lushbaugh, of Bridge came down yesterday and handed us some samples of apples grown by our friend, Luther Williams, of Big Creek, which are certainly fine specimens. He did not give the names, and while we do not pretend to be an appleologist, when it comes to names, we suspect one variety to be Ben Davis, and they are beauties, while the others have the appearance of being over-grown Gravensteins, of extra high color and splendid flavor. What Coos county can do in the way of apple-growing has hardly been dreamed of as yet.
