Novelties in Advertising.

That advertising has come to be one of the "fine arts" is seen by the millions expended every year for advertising and the unique ideas in use. The arrival of a new baby makes the mother a target for advertisements of all kinds of baby food, and one mother in town recently received by prepaid express a can of condensed milk guaranteed especially good for babies. "A corking good thing," was emphasized by a piece of cork fastened to a card, while "a snap" was assured when a full sized ginger snap accompanied a circular.

"Everybody knows I'm here, there's no use for me to advertise," said a business man in a neighboring town when urged to advertise in a local paper. His store showed him to be a man who to say the least was not a million years ahead of time. And even the man whose advertisement runs all the time, maybe far from getting the results he desires. Novelty in advertising pays.

Some dentists in Portland a few years ago, violated all precedent and advertised in striking ways. They soon had to employ assistants and now other dentists are following their lead. Lodges advertise. Our special "Woodman" issue is causing much interest in that order and in their "big day," October 8th. Churches advertise. We reprint in another column a church advertisement which was sent out on an envelope by a local church.

The Board of Trade is advertising. If you want business, members, immigration, advertise! Not mere formal announcements but novel, catchy, well worded, timely, unique advertisements. And of all ways of novel, effective advertising the newspaper cannot be beaten.

Massacred by Native Tribes.

New York, Sept. 30.—Advises received by mail from a correspondent of the Herald at Belize, British Honduras, says: In recent attacks by Indians on the camps of chewing-gum gatherers in South Mexico, 17 persons were killed, 18 wounded and 57 more either murdered or carried into captivity.

The force of Indians consisted of about 300, and was led by a renegade from the National Guards of Yucatan. The Indians first attacked a camp at Quintana Roo, where they killed three women and two men and wounded three more men. At another camp they killed two men and two women and wounded three men.

In Chenchuncho the hospital, commercial warehouses and offices were burned. Three patients perished. Attacks also were made on several other camps, resulting in several deaths.

Kuropatkin Driven Back.

St. Petersburg, Sept. 30 (4:50 H.M.).—From a reliable source the Associated Press hears that sharp fighting has occurred near Mukden resulting in the Japanese driving in General Kuropatkin's outposts.

Important dispatches have been received and transmitted to the Emperor. They are believed to confirm the Associated Press' information. The general staff, however, is unable at present to go beyond the prospective assurance that the main Russian army is still at Mukden.

The publishers of the beautiful song, "I Wait Alone for You," by the late W. Wesley Wells, have sent us a copy of his last song "My Mercedes" which has just been published and which he composed a few weeks before his death. It is simply beautiful, easy to play, melodious, and a perfect adaptation of exquisite words to a beautiful melody. The publishers, J. W. Jenkins' Sons Music Co. of Kansas City, Mo., are making a special price of 25 cents per copy.

The little visit of the British soldiers to Thibit will cost that country the pretty penny of $2,400,000. This is the English kind of benevolent assimilation. Civilization is being rubbed into the heathen all over the world. The treatment like all surgery is severe but the result salutary.

Talk about perfumes, Mrs. Nosler's is the place to get it.

Mrs. M. L. Randleman, of Parkersburg, was in town yesterday.

Call and see the new dress goods just in at Mrs. Nosler's.

J. B. Sweet, the Lampa creek farmer, had business in our city yesterday.

An elegant line of China ware at Mrs. Nosler's.—Call before it is picked over.

Things are busy on the lower river, with the "Alpha" loading at Parkersburg, the "Klose" at Riverton and the "Coquille" at Prosper.

F. M. Stewart, the Marshfield marble man, came over on Friday and erected a monument at the grave of Mrs. Atkinson, late of Ogden, Utah, who recently died at this city.

Mrs. H. A. Nevens, of Ferndale, California, visited with her friends, Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Pierce, of this city, while the Alliance, on which she was traveling, was in the bay the last of the week.

A big bargain in a solid steel frame, 9x11, double drum logging engine, with solid steel gear—latest type—been used three months. For particulars see A. B. Daly, of Marshfield.

Jesse Barker, of Fairview, kept himself busy last week hauling lumber with a four-horse team, preparatory to building a house. Contractor Lukens went out to superintend its construction.

S. J. Lyons, of Pasadena, California, arrived here Friday, and has gone with his brother, W. H., of this city, to Curry county, where they go to attend to business matters connected with the P. F. & L. Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Russell arrived here Friday from the valley and will locate with us. Dr. Russell having purchased the stock of drugs of Dr. Churchman, Rex will conduct the business in the future, he being a thorough druggist.

Many novel features will be introduced in the entertainment to be given on Wednesday evening, at the residence of L. H. Hazard, for the benefit of the Episcopal church. Coffee and cake and sandwiches will be served without extra charge. Admission, 25 and 15 cents.

G. W. Crunk, of Big creek, had quite a serious accident last Thursday while driving horses on a silage cutter power. While on the power he lost his footing and fell astride of one of the sweeps which carried him around till his foot was caught between the sweep and the lower part of the power, lifting a weight of eight hundred pounds. It is thought that no bones are broken, and we hope he may be all right in the near future.

Mr. C. M. Sain, the Oregonian man, who is in Coos county giving our different resources and industries a writeup in the leading paper of the state, was in to see us Saturday. He is now on the lower river and we may look for a splendid article on some particular branch in the near future. Now would be a good time for our people to subscribe for the Oregonian, and when these articles appear, the papers should be sent east to friends who might wish to come to the coast.

Mrs. F. G. Kelly, of Hydesville, California, arrived in Riverton last week in answer to a telegram that her mother, Mrs. J. F. Lee, of Riverton, was very ill. She was in Eureka attending the teachers' institute when the message came, and there being no steamer leaving Eureka for either Coquille or Coos Bay ports, in company with her brother, L. H. Lee of Eureka, they came by Steamer Toledo to Crescent City, thence by stage to Grants Pass, by rail to Roseburg, by stage to Myrtle Point, where a private conveyance awaited them. On their arrival in Riverton they found Mrs. Lee improving. L. A. Lee left on the Alliance Friday for his home in Eureka, while Mrs. Kelly will not return till the next trip of the Alliance. Her husband who for years was one of Coos county's able instructors, is principal of the schools at Hydesville, Cal.

Christian Church Notes.

The topic of absorbing interest this week is the revival. Rev. Bower has been greeted by excellent audiences at every service. His presentation of the old facts of sin and freedom from sin is simple and direct. The services continue all week and the church invites the hearty co-operation of all. Song and responsive service begin at 7:30 P. M.

Local Option Petition.

Last Friday, September 30, a local option petition bearing 282 names, 100 in excess of the required number was filed with County Clerk Watson. This will give friends and foes of whiskey a chance to line up for a good fight. If the county goes "dry" as a whole, no whiskey can be legally sold in the county; if "wet," all precincts that go "dry" will still be "dry."

Presbyterian Church.

There will be preaching both morning and evening at the Presbyterian church next Sunday. Sunday school meets at 10 a. m.
