BAKER-GRAHAM WEDDING.

One of the prettiest little home weddings of the year took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Graham, when Allen E. Baker was united to Ruby C. Graham on Wednesday evening, September 28, 1904, at 8 o'clock, by Rev. Brownrigg of the Christian church.

The bride is one of Myrtle Point's belles and a general favorite. The groom is a well-known and highly esteemed young man of this place. The bride's dress of pale blue silk, with silk all over lace for trimming, made the young girl bride look more charming than usual. The young couple departed Thursday a. m. for Camas Valley. In a short time they intend going to California, in which state they may make their future home. Only a few relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony.

Rev. and Mrs. D. H. Hare depart the last of this week to attend Synod at Portland. While there they will visit with Mrs. Hare's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Pulford leave in a few days for a month's visit in Washington.

C. H. Southmayd is having a large barn erected on his North Fork ranch. OBSERVER. (Space being limited "Observer's" communication will be concluded next issue.)

FOR SALE—A good camp stove and tent. Inquire at Mrs. Boyd's.

Get in line with the Board of Trade. It is greatly to be desired that the resources and opportunities for investment be better known abroad, and that settlers be secured to develop such resources. Nothing helps develop a town or country so much as a good board of trade. Let everyone interested in Coquille and the Coquille valley join in and lend a hand to help the good cause. Board meets every Monday evening at Town Hall.

M. O. Warner, the efficient and reliable piano tuner, is with us on a professional visit. Mr. Warner has been coming to Coos county for the past 16 years and during which time he has made a host of friends. As to his skill as a piano tuner it can be said that we have known him closely and have had more than a passing knowledge of his labors in his field and we have yet to hear the first derogatory word to his ability. A fitting compliment paid Mr. Warner by the Roseburg Plaindealer will be found elsewhere in these columns.—Sun.

The question of open or closed shop is being tested in the Mahoning Valley, of Ohio, by the iron-steel and tin plate workers. If the general manager of the steel hoop plants at Youngstown and Girard, retains certain men in his employ, who continued to work while a strike was on, then 20,000 other men are to be ordered out. The foolishness of such action has often been pointed out. It is un-Christian, un-Democratic; unfair, un-American and unrd infinitum.

An Established Reputation.

The following compliment was paid M. O. Warner, the piano tuner, by the Roseburg Plaindealer, which can be heartily endorsed by many of Mr. W.'s patrons of this county: "Prof. M. O. Warner, of Eugene, who has been coming to Roseburg twice a year for the past 13 years tuning the pianos of the town is again in the city, giving his professional service to owners of these instruments. Mr. Warner is a tuner of known reputation and has the endorsement of all the people in the state who are recognized as authority and know whereof they speak. He is an honest workman and pianos left in his care cannot fall into better hands. His prices are reasonable considering work done and attention given to them. He is thorough and conscientious in the execution of his work which he expects to be his greatest recommendation, and which cannot be said of the unscrupulous, unskilled transient piano tuner who botches up your instrument, collects his fee and passes on. We have in our possession recommendations and endorsements for Mr. Warner from Eiler Piano House, Portland; W. Gifford Nash, U. of O. Eugene; The Wiley B. Allen Co., Portland; The Grants Pass, Ashland and Eugene Music Stores as well as many of our local citizens who all speak in highest terms of Prof. Warner's skill and thorough, competent and consistent work as well as to his honesty and integrity as a man. Of such high and excellent endorsements Prof. Warner may justly feel proud. We have given the Professor a trial and can cheerfully add our endorsement to the above list."

Dragging Pains

2925 Keeley St. CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 2, 1902.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groin. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, and blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Mrs. Bust is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

WHAT THE COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE GIVES.

Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1. The Cosmopolitan Magazine occupies a position distinctly its own. While giving great attention to fiction and entertainment—fifty short stories and one or more complete novels appear in its pages each year—it has a definite plan beyond. It may be likened to a great modern university, with a million and a half student-readers. A year's course embraces what is most important in the scientific field, what is most interesting in invention and discovery, what is most entertaining in travel and adventure, what is most valuable in the World of Business. A portion of each number is edited with reference to the Woman of the World, another to the Woman of the Home, and another to the Man of Affairs, covering equally the clerk just starting in life and the captain of industry.

What the Twentieth Century Home Offers Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1. A magazine for Women, printed on fine coated paper (toned), beautifully illustrated. It will contain what is newest, if best, what is most useful, if new; what is most entertaining, if helpful, what is most instructive, if interesting.
