One of Albany's best preachers is spending a few days in town. He is Rev. Clark Bower, who is being heard with pleasure by good audiences every night at the Christian church. His message is clean cut, direct and entirely devoid of personalities, of which some, even preachers, are guilty at times. The great facts he presents stand out in the mind after one of his sermons.

Winnie Hall's visit with her sister, Mrs. H. T. Stewart, was cut short by a telephone from Bandon offering her a position as teacher in the graded school of that town. She left Port Orford on Friday's stage, having concluded to accept the position and give up her contemplated trip to Los Angeles.—Port Orford Tribune.

Next Saturday is the big Woodman blow-out. A great time is anticipated.

Call for Meeting.

The members of the California Co-Operative Medical Association will hold a meeting in this city on Saturday the 15th day of October for the purpose of devising ways and means to take action against Dr. W. L. Kellet to force him to show reason why the members of said association are not drawing dividends as agreed upon and to transact such other business as may properly come before the meeting.

We are located in our new quarters in the Odd Fellows' block next door to the postoffice, where we shall be pleased to see all our old customers, as well as new ones.
