Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1.
The Cosmopolitan Magazine occupies a position distinctly its own. While giving great attention to fiction and entertainment—fifty short stories and one or more complete novels appear in its pages each year—it has a definite plan beyond. It may be likened to a great modern university, with a million and a half student-readers. A year's course embraces what is most important in the Scientific field, what is most interesting in Invention and Discovery, what is most entertaining in Travel and Adventure, what is most valuable in the World of Business. A portion of each number is edited with reference to the Woman of the World, another to the Woman of the Home, and another to the Man of Affairs, covering equally the clerk just starting in life and the captain of industry.

What the Twentieth Century Home Offers
Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1.
A magazine for Women, printed on fine coated paper (toned), beautifully illustrated. It will contain what is newest, if best, what is most useful, if new; what is most entertaining, if helpful, what is most instructive, if interesting.

GASNOW

Dragging Pains

2825 Keeley St., CHICAGO, ILL., Oct., 2, 1902.

I suffered with falling and congestion of the womb, with severe pains through the groin. I suffered terribly at the time of menstruation, had blinding headaches and rushing of blood to the brain. What to try I knew not for it seemed that I had tried all and failed, but I had never tried Wine of Cardui, that blessed remedy for sick women. I found it pleasant to take and soon knew that I had the right medicine. New blood seemed to course through my veins and after using eleven bottles I was a well woman.

Mrs. Bush is now in perfect health because she took Wine of Cardui for menstrual disorders, bearing down pains and blinding headaches when all other remedies failed to bring her relief. Any sufferer may secure health by taking Wine of Cardui in her home. The first bottle convinces the patient she is on the road to health.
