Chas. Lorenz is now purser on the steamer Dispatch, having taken the place of Geo. Leach. Fat is all right, however, it might have been his weight that made the steamer reach down to that snag Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hans C. Hansen, of Chicago, former a cousin of Capt. O. P. Ellingson, of near Parkersburg, arrived here Tuesday and are enjoying a pleasant visit with the Captain and family. Mr. Hansen was here over thirty years ago when the Coquille valley was in the wilds.

Frank Smith, the salmon hatchery man, was in town yesterday. He informs us that at any time a proper site for a hatchery can be found, one will be established on the river. This is a matter of great importance and should be looked up as soon as possible. This requires a position a considerable sized steamer where the fish can be taken, and at a point where a dam can be maintained that will hold against freshets and be reasonably free from drift, holding the fish till the proper time to use them which is about the first of February.

The Coast Mail has adopted the term "inlet" for "slough," a word which has long been in common use on the bay applied to the arms and tributaries of the bay proper, and we consider it an improvement. It will be remembered "Old Whiskers," formerly of the HERALD, once undertook to inaugurate a reformation by the adoption of the term "bayou," so commonly used in the south, but the people in Coos county did not take kindly to the word, and his suggestions were dropped. "Inlet" is all right and a better word than either "slough" or "bayou" and there is no question but the people will stay with the Mail.

Card of Thanks.

We desire to express our most sincere and heart-felt thanks to the many friends and neighbors who so kindly aided in the last illness of our husband and father, and for the kindly expressions of sympathy at his final departure.

Mrs. W. W. Davis and Children.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Patterson, of this city, returned from Marshfield Wednesday, whither they had gone to attend the funeral of Mrs. S. H. Crouch, a sister of Mr. Patterson. Mrs. Crouch died on the 17th inst, and had she lived till yesterday, the 20th, she would have been 58 years of age. Angelina Patterson was born at The Dalles, October 20, 1846. She joined the Presbyterian church in 1868, and has since lived a consistent Christian life, was married to S. H. Crouch in May, 1876, living for many years on the bay where her friends are many. Mrs. Crouch having been born in Oregon 58 years ago causes one to fully realize the fact that her parents were truly pioneers, they having crossed the plains with teams when it was no small task, the privations and hardships being all that human could endure.
