Frank Fish came down from Bancroft Wednesday to look after the shipping of some apples and other business matters. He will return today.

An absent minded reporter caused us to say recently that Roy Howard was athletic editor of the "College Student" of Albany. It should have been our friend Roy Morgan, of Willowdale.

The Christian church revival continues to draw large houses. There have been a number of additions to the church. There will be no services Saturday. A "men only" meeting is scheduled for 3 p. m. Sunday.

T. H. Mehl & Co's hardware store is headquarters for the Amethyst Enameled ware.

D. W. Baker, one of our rushing Northfork farmers was in town Wednesday. He informs us that since going the rounds with the threshing machine this season that he has finished up his fall hauling and is ready for the rainy season when it comes.

If you want your white shirt done up in fine shape, take it to the Coquille Steam Laundry.

In a recent issue we mentioned the fact that P. Gehlke, of Prosper had caught 500 salmon in one night, and spoke of it as being a record breaker. This is the largest catch we have heard of this season, but Henry Rohner and R. E. L. Bedilion hold the record as high boat on the river, having on one occasion caught 674 by midnight.

W. A. Goodman will go anywhere in Coos county to move your house or barn.

Mrs. J. B. Dulle, of this city, started by way of Myrtle Point and Roseburg for Tacoma, Wash., where she goes for a visit. She will be accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Frank Campbell, as far as McMinnville, where the latter will join her husband, she having been here for several months visiting.

Have you tried Amethyst double enameled ware at T. H. Mehl & Co's.

A. H. Bender, of Myrtle Point, and Miss Ada Schroeder, of Norway, were married at Norway yesterday afternoon. This is a worthy young couple, son and daughter of well-known pioneer families whose many friends we join in extending congratulations.

Otto Muetzel and Audwin Hayter called on us Tuesday evening as they were on their way out to Mr. Muetzel's new location in Happy valley, near Roseburg, with a bunch of cattle.

W. T. Lewis, of Riverton, went to Myrtle Point yesterday, where he expects to meet his mother, Mrs. Orth, of St. Louis, who will be accompanied by a daughter. They will be down from the Point today.

E. J. Braddock, the late owner of the Peart coal mine, and the prospective purchaser of the Lyons mill, has been very low from pneumonia at San Francisco, but from a telegram received here yesterday morning, is improving. We sincerely hope he will be all right soon.

Thomas Krewson, the carpenter and contractor, returned from a trip to the mill of the Osborn Mill company below Bandon Wednesday. This mill has done a good business during the summer, but as the roads get bad from the winter rains, the lumber cannot be brought to market.

As I intend to leave for California I will sell my stock of goods, consisting of odds, and ends in men's, boys' and children's clothing and underwear for less than cost. Boots and shoes for men and boys, ladies and misses. Call on Mrs. C. W. Martin, opposite Masonic hall.

Our young friend, B. T. Vandecar, of Myrtle Point, dropped in on us today, accompanied by W. M. Mills, lately from Wisconsin and Michigan. Mr. Mills is a lumberman, and we presume that it may be among the possibilities that he will become interested in our timber resources.

Frank Gilman, who it will be remembered lived here several years ago, and who built the steamer Myrel for Capt. McCloskey, arrived in town Wednesday from Eugene, where he has lived for some time, conducting a bicycle and gun shop which was burned out a few weeks ago in which he and his partner lost 90 new guns, 80-odd new wheels and 25 second hand ones. They will not start up there again, Mr. Gilman now being on the hunt for a new field.

Elijah Smith, of the Southern Oregon company, and Mr. Paul Frederick Mohr, of Seattle, were in town Tuesday. Mr. Mohr is a prominent railroad man, and there is some talk of it being his purpose here at this time to look into Coos county investments. In a short talk we had with Mr. Mohr he expressed himself as being highly pleased with the appearance of our section, and at once observed its many advantages as a manufacturing section. It is to be hoped that they will both become actively interested in the development of this part of Oregon.

W. T. Kerr & Co are packing a fine lot of apples for the San Francisco market. These apples are being put up in nice shape, each apple being wrapped separately in paper. This company have already made a shipment or so with very satisfactory results. In the future there will be no necessity for property grown Coos county apples rotting in the orchards. The first thing to be looked after is proper gathering and packing, and then ship them to parties who will deal fairly, and every good red Coos county apple can be marketed at a profit.

Mason's Fruit Jars, Caps and Rubbers at Kanematz's.

I. D. McCoy, Jr., who has been up in the Eckley country several months developing his mining claim, came down yesterday and greeted many friends in this city. His purpose for coming out at this time was to secure supplies which he wishes to get hauled in before the roads get too bad. Mr. McCoy is highly pleased with his mine, and has everything just about ready for some good work. He has a dam in place and the flume built to the mine. He will have 125 foot pressure and a good volume of water, and judging from the prospecting done, he certainly has a valuable property. We congratulate our young friend on his achievements, and sincerely hope for his unqualified success in his enterprise.
