Major Kinney arrived in town from Roseburg Saturday morning. He returns again tomorrow after cleaning up important business which awaited him here.

W. R. Davis and John Swanson have leased the Flanagan coal mine west of town and will place the coal on the Marshfield market. This coal is of excellent quality for domestic use and was eagerly sought after when it was on the market here several years ago. These gentlemen will undoubtedly make a success of their venture.

Lumber for Panama.

Bellingham, Wash., Oct. 24.—The first order for lumber on the Panama Canal construction has been received by Bellingham mills, and it is said to be the forerunner of enormous quantities required on the isthmus. A little more than 2,000,000 feet will be supplied in the initial consignment, intended for construction of houses along the canal route. Shipment will begin at an early date and delivery will be made at Ancon. The mills will begin cutting the order immediately. One vessel is expected within the next few days. It is believed that the entire amount of lumber needed for the canal will be supplied from the North Pacific Coast. Admiral Walker announced the result of the bids.—Telegram.

Z. C. STRANG.

Myrtle Point Jottings.

Among the happenings at this place we note the following: Mrs. Allan Baker (nee Graham) left on last Friday to join her husband near Crescent City, Cal.

Mrs. C. Lockwood and two children went on the Breakwater en route to their new home three miles from Santa Rosa, California. She will be joined later by Mr. Lockwood. They are to engage in poultry raising.

A family reunion was held at Mr. T. M. Hermann's on the South Fork on Sunday the 23rd. In days gone by the old Hermann place was noted for its hospitality, and friend or stranger always found a warm welcome. That was in the days of Dr. Hermann, so widely known all over the country. His cloak seems to have fallen on the shoulders of his son Manel, and now his elegant residence is completed, even its commodious walls are sometimes taxed to contain the many friends who so enjoy a visit there.

Among those present on this occasion were: T. M. Hermann and wife, Cass Hermann and wife, Mrs. Harry Hermann, Clay Dement and wife, Mrs. Carrie Hermann, F. P. Hermann, Edwin Schroeder and wife, Edward Bender and wife, Ernest E. Bender and wife, Mrs. Anna Bender (Grandma), Mrs. H. G. Ploeger, of Marshfield, Ernest Hermann and wife, Misses Myrtle, Nets, Clara, Lois, Ana, Edna, Zelia, Nellie, Marie and Neva Hermann. Musters Willie, Herbert, Ellis Hermann and Tommy Dement.

A fine dinner was served, after which several photos were taken, one especially where Mrs. Bender and four of her brothers were taken in a group.

Mrs. Ploeger, who has been visiting Mr. Bender for several days, returned to her Marshfield home on Tuesday.

Mr. Brown, the new M. E. preacher from North Dakota, occupies the Rev. Holcomb's house on the hill.

Sick Headache

"For several years my wife was troubled with what physicians called sick headache of a very severe character. She doctored with several eminent physicians and at a great expense, only to grow worse until she was unable to do any kind of work. About a year ago she began taking Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and today weighs more than she ever did before and is real well," says Mr. Geo. E. Wright of New London, New York. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

WHAT THE COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE GIVES.

Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1. The Cosmopolitan Magazine occupies a position distinctly its own. While giving great attention to fiction and entertainment—fifty short stories and one or more complete novels appear in the pages each year—it has a definite plan beyond. It will be likened to a great modern university, with a million and a half student readers. A year's course embraces: What is most interesting in Invention and Discovery, what is most entertaining in Travel and Adventure, what is most valuable in the World of Business. A portion of each number is edited with reference to the Woman of the World, another to the Woman of the Home, and another to Interest Youth, and still another for the Man of Affairs, covering equally the clerk just starting in life and the captain of industry.

What the Twentieth Century Home Offers

Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1. A magazine for Women, printed on fine coated paper (toned), beautifully illustrated. It will contain what is newest, if best, what is most useful, if new; what is most entertaining, if helpful, what is most instructive, if interesting.
