Our School Entertainment.
A very interesting and pleasing entertainment was given in this city on Saturday night by Prof. Davis and his able corps of assistants aided by several of our townspeople, for the benefit of our school's library fund. The Masonic hall was filled with highly pleased people, and the fund was increased by a considerable amount.

The comedy "Sierra" was presented in a very creditable manner, besides a program of well-selected instrumental numbers which were well rendered.

After the program the baskets were sold, our townsman J. J. Stanley being the auctioneer. This tended to enliven the evening's enjoyment, and helped materially to swell the receipts, which amounted to upwards of $80, which will be the means of adding many new and valuable volumes to the library.

George Gilkey, of Oklahoma, who has been here for several weeks visiting his brother, Oliver, started last week for his home, however, he may remain in Myrtle Point for a while.

B. C. Shull, of South Fork, was in town yesterday to file his final account as administrator of the estate of John Mast, deceased. He was accompanied by Orvil Dodge, of Myrtle Point.

O. S. Coleman, of Gravel Ford, was down yesterday for windows and doors for the new dormitory at the Gravel Ford academy. This institution is doing a good business, there being a good attendance for this reason of the year.

W. C. Rose and Rus Johnson went to Langlois Saturday and enjoyed a little hunt. He succeeded in bagging 5 geese and fifteen ducks, and a fine large white swan. This is a beautiful bird, measuring about six feet. They want to get it mounted.
