(Marshfield Sun.)

A tribe of Red Men is to be organized in this city shortly.

J. W. Bennett, the banker, is home from a business trip to San Francisco.

MARRIED.—On North Coos River, Oct. 26, 1904, M. M. Pierson and Miss Flora Krick, Judge Hyde officiating.

O. V. Gerzabek, who has been looking up the oil interests in Coos county, returned to San Francisco on the Breakwater.

Mrs. C. P. Coleman, of Templeton, who has been in poor health for a number of weeks past, died Monday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Morgan, on Daniel's Creek. The funeral occurred this afternoon. Interment at Coos River cemetery.

J. C. Brusckhe has received several sacks of sample lime stone taken from a recent discovery he made on Coos River and it is his intention of having a scientific analysis of it. Lime stone has been found in different localities in the county for many years past, but the product has not been brought to light under the proper circumstances, however we have faith that Mr. Brusckhe will be able to bring it to a successful issue.

(Myrtle Point Enterprise.)

Mrs. Joe Devault returned Monday from a visit to her old home in Humboldt county, California.

Volney Huntley and Miss Jessie Neer were married at the residence of the bride's parents, at Bald Hill, Wednesday, Rev. Thos. Barklow officiating.

Capt W. E. Rackleff left last Saturday on a visit to his old home at Portland, Maine. It has been many years since Mr. Rackleff has seen the home of his boyhood days.

B. M. Greene has invented an ingenious combination for locking an umbrella so that no one except the owner can raise it. It consists of two revolving tumblers just above the handle that have to be brought in an alignment with the spring that holds the umbrella closed. The alignment is made by bringing certain figures or letters to a certain point. The combination is only known to the owner and can be changed any time, working on the same plan as any combination lock. The inventor has applied for a patent.

Frank Smith reports two million fish eggs at the hatchery and that they are using a quarter of a million per day.—Mail.

FOR SALE CHEAP.—A scow with house on it 15x30 feet. Inquire of Geo. W. Leggett, River-ton, Or.

FOR SALE.—I have a lot of fine thoroughbred O. I. C. pigs, male and female, large enough for service, which I offer at a bargain.

Geo. Belloni.

T. H. Mehl & Co. are agents for Arago brick. Anyone in need of good brick should get his order in soon.

(Bandon Recorder.)

Miss Claire Walker and Lester Clausen were the only passengers on the incoming Elizabeth from San Francisco last week.

A Masquerade Ball will be given in Kime's Opera Hall, Bandon, on Christmas Eve, for the benefit of the G. A. R. Post of this place. Posters will soon appear.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Peterson, of River-ton, moved to Bandon last Monday, and will remain during the winter.

The first story and the studding on the L of the woolen mill building is now up, and the rough floor on the second story of the main building is being laid.

The fishing season seems to be about over. The run has been very large. The cannery here put up over 7000 cases. Besides this the cannery at Prosper had all it could care for, and a large quantity has shipped to Empire, and there were some salted down on the river.

Telephone Line Going Up.

The Pacific States Telephone Co. have a large force of men at work putting up poles and wires in town. Fifty miles of wire will be used on the trunk line which includes North Bend and Empire.

As soon as the switchboard arrives a central office will be established at Mrs. Paterson's millinery store. It is expected that this office will be established and in operation in about four weeks.—North Bend Post.

Disastrous Wrecks

Carelessness is responsible for many a railway wreck and the same are making human wrecks of sufferers from Throat and Lung troubles. But since the advent of Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, even the worst case can be cured, and hopeless resignation is no longer necessary. Mrs. Lois Cragg of Dorchester, Mass., is one of many whose life was saved by Dr. King's New Discovery. This great remedy is guaranteed for all Throat and Lung diseases by R. S. Knowlton, Druggist. Price 50c, and $1.00 Trial bottle free.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

The Coquille City HERALD having bought out the Coquille City Bulletin and its business, and the two papers having been consolidated, all sums that were due and owing to the Bulletin on July 1, 1904, are now due and payable to the HERALD and should be settled at once to give us a chance to get our accounts balanced up. The HERALD will fulfill all obligations of the Bulletin in the matter of subscriptions.

Special Offers

From the office of the Cosmopolitan Magazine is published the "Twentieth Century Home," a new magazine for women on new lines, printed on coated paper (tone), profusely illustrated and contributed to by more noted writers than any other periodical. An English publisher has ordered in advance of publication 10,000 copies for the London market. We have made arrangements to buy a limited number of annual subscriptions to this new periodical, which we offer absolutely free to our subscribers, new or old. Here is the most generous offer ever made by an American newspaper.

WHAT THE COSMOPOLITAN MAGAZINE GIVES.

Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1.

The Cosmopolitan Magazine occupies a position distinctly its own. While giving great attention to fiction and entertainment—fifty short stories and one or more complete novels appear in its pages each year—it has a definite plan beyond. It may be likened to a great modern university, with a million and a half student-readers. A year's course embraces what is most important in the Scientific field, what is most interesting in Invention and Discovery, what is most entertaining in Travel and adventure, what is most valuable in the World of Business. A portion of each number is edited with reference to the Woman of the World, another to the Woman of the Home, and another to Interest Youth, and still another for the Man of Affairs, covering equally the clerk just starting in life and the captain of industry.

What the Twentieth Century Home Offers

Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1.

A magazine for Women, printed on fine coated paper (tone), beautifully illustrated.

It will contain what is newest, if best, what is most useful, if new, what is most entertaining, if helpful, what is most instructive, if interesting.
