Dr. Cook, of Empire, Dead

At his home in Empire, Nov. 11, 1904, Dr. J. G. Cook.

Dr. Cook had resided in Empire for the past 30 years, where he had been very successful in the practice of his profession. In the death of Dr. Cook Coos county loses one of her best and most highly respected citizens. Deceased leaves, besides the mourning wife, two sons and a daughter. Arrangements are not yet made for interment.—Post.

The funeral of William Haskell was held yesterday, and conducted by Rev. Horsfall of the Episcopal church. Several of the deceased's friends were present and the last ceremony over the dead at the grave was impressive in the extreme. The deceased has lived in Marshfield for many years and has always been an honored and respected citizen. He was a sufferer for long time and his death was not in the least unexpected. He leaves no relatives nearer than in the extreme East.—Post.

In Memory of E. W. Stillwell.

Elias W. Stillwell, who died at Bandon, Oregon, November 2, 1904, was 82 years, 4 months and 12 days old at the time of his death, being born in Logan county, Ohio, in 1822.

In 1844 he was a pioneer to Oregon, crossing the plains by team, which, in those days was exceedingly tedious and dangerous work. He first settled in the Willamette where he resided until 1860, when he with his family moved to Coos county, where at different parts, he resided till his death. He leaves a wife, 8 children, 34 grandchildren and 20 great-grand children to mourn the loss of a loved one.

Not a Sick Day Since.

"I was taken severely sick with kidney trouble. I tried all sorts of medicines, none of which relieved me. One day I saw an ad. of your Electric Bitters and determined to try that. After taking a few doses, I felt relieved, and soon thereafter was entirely cured, and have not seen a sick day since. Neighbors of mine have been cured of Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Liver and Kidney troubles, and General Debility." This is what B. F. Bass, of Fremont, N. C. writes. Only 50c, by R. S. Knowlton, druggist.
