

LOCAL NEWS.

The river is showing the effects of our late rains. E. L. Robbins was down from the Point Wednesday. Henry Quick was up from the Junction Wednesday. Bert Folsom, the North Fork logger, went to the bay Wednesday. Joel Root, of the upper river, had business in the county seat Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Goodman are spending the winter at Lakeport, California. Mrs. R. J. Dean still remains very low, with little, if any, signs of improvement. BONS—At Bandon, November 15, 1904, to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Anderson, a son. Holl Anderson will start back to the sound country Monday, after a week or ten days' visit here. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Lundy, of Myrtle Point, visited in town Wednesday, returning yesterday. There will be a Mothers' and Teachers' meeting on Friday. All interested are urged to be present. S. B. Cathcart, the surveyor, came over from Marshfield Wednesday, and proceeded up the river, where he went to do some surveying. John Jenkins, the logger, was up to town Wednesday. He informs us that his son William, who is at San Francisco for medical treatment, is improving. Mrs. C. M. Wickham and daughter, Miss Esma, went to Marshfield Wednesday to take the steamer for Portland, where they will visit for a time. Who is making an effort to assist in getting up an exhibit for the Lewis and Clark Fair? The citizens of Coos county should not be neglectful in this matter. J. W. Hall, of this city, starts for Whittier, California, in a day or so, where he goes to join the other members of his family who moved down several weeks ago. Mark Morris and mother, Mrs. Wm. Morris, of Riverton, returned from the bay Wednesday, having been over to attend the funeral of Dr. J. G. Cook, of English Bay. Call on P. E. Drane for green peppers and sweet potatoes. Attorney Roberts and Lewis Strong were down from Myrtle Point yesterday on business connected with the final settlement of the estate of the late W. H. Erdice. P. E. Drane has just received a fine lot of green peppers for pickling purposes. John Yoakam, of near town, passed through town early last week with a band of fine Angora goats which he had brought in from the valley, and which he was taking to a Curry county range. I have got them. What? Sweet potatoes and green peppers. Drane, the butcher. Several street lights have been put in place by Mr. Morse, the electric light man lately, one at the dock, which will be a great convenience at the arrival of steamers when they are late, and one at the foot of First street. Anna Logan, at W. A. Goodman's, dressmaking. Will go out and sew today or will take sewing at home. Rev. B. B. Paul, a former resident of Coos county, but who has with his family, lived in other parts of this state and in Washington, recently moved in from Ashland, made our office a very pleasant call on Tuesday, renewing old acquaintance with the HERALD. FOR SALE—A fine property consisting of splendid garden lots, good house and barn. For particulars call at this office. Some very substantial new side-walks are being put down by several of our townspeople, one being from the bank to the Masonic Hall which will prove a great comfort to those attending gatherings at that place this winter, as well as to the patrons of Mrs. Wickham's boarding house.

There will be Episcopal services in St. James church in this city, by Rev. Horsfall next Sunday morning and evening. For good meals, splendid rooms and bath, go to Mrs. Sugg's boarding house. Mart Sherrard and John Peart returned from a trip to Curry county the first of the week, and report having had a very nice time. TO TRADE—Fifteen head of cows and several head of young cattle for good sheep. L. Harrison, the veterinary surgeon of Myrtle Point, was in town on professional business. He performed an operation upon a horse at Mr. Little's stable. Bert Seal, the strawberry man, has a fine lot of Magoon plants for sale. Call early and get choice plants. Mrs. Dr. McCormac, of Marshfield, came over Wednesday and met with the Degree of Honor at this place, at which time several initiations were performed and a very pleasant evening enjoyed. A fire line of the latest in dress goods is being received at Mrs. Payne's store on Front street. Foster Poland, of the upper river, received a fall while handling some logs on the boom at this place yesterday. He struck his head, receiving an ugly wound which he had attended to by a physician. If you want your white shirt done up in fine shape, take it to the Coquille Steam Laundry. Hans Hansen and wife who have been out from the east, visiting with Mr. H's cousin, Capt. O. P. Ellingson, and an old time friend in the person of Capt. Aasen, of Arago started on their return yesterday, going by way of the bay. J. S. Jays has fine Oat Hay for sale. Delivered in town, on the cars or on the boat at $12 per ton. Mr. Allan McLeod, of North Bend has recently purchased through O. C. Sanford, the real estate dealer, the C. A. Sayre place near Peart's coal mine. Mr. McLeod will remain at North Bend until spring, when he will take charge of the place. The Coquille Valley Packing Company wholesales and retails Bacon, Hams and Lard and guarantees the quality. Our board of trade are arranging a convenient place in the city hall for exhibiting fine specimens of fruits, vegetables, grain, etc., as well as any other articles which may be shown off to advantage to prove the production of our section to the passers by. S. W. P. Paints, Varnishes and Chisnall, in all colors, especially adapted for chairs, floors and linoleum at T. H. Mehl & Co's. The HERALD will be in direct communication with a well-posted person in Portland who will send in this direction some good and desirable settlers who we will assist in finding proper locations. Anyone having a bargain to offer will do well to call on us as the tide of immigration starts this way during the coming year as the fair progresses at Portland. Dr. J. Curtis Snook, dentist, is in Gardiner on his regular professional visit, and will remain until further notice. The members of the I. O. O. F. of this city will entertain and treat the feminine side of the house to a turkey supper on next Wednesday evening. All Odd Fellows should make a note of this and show up to do his part, which they no doubt will, and all "Beekies" who miss this evening's banquet will surely be unfortunate. "The finest line" of Fancy China, the most tasty, nobly-up-to-date, catchy, beautiful ware in town at WILSON'S JEWELRY STORE. The manager of the Coquille Co-operative Packing Company is rustling among the ranchers buying up all the turkeys in the country. This is the packing company which is being organized in the interests of members of the Century Mercantile Company, of San Francisco, a co-operative merchandise company through which its members may purchase their supplies at wholesale and factory prices, and market their products at top market prices. They are reliable.

FAIRYLAND.

Wonderful Sight That Greeted Visitors' Eyes. To be in the metropolis, the seat of a county government, standing majestically in the rich verdure field looking over the placid waters of the Coquille, is a pleasure to the wives and children of our rural agriculturists. But there is no time like now when every store in the city is in it gala attirement, gaily dressed and fully stocked with its holiday attractions. And, holiday shoppers should not fail while here to visit the store of J. S. Kanematz. Here you will see one of the most complete and magnificent stocks of holiday goods ever assembled under one roof. You see toys of all descriptions, from the old Noah's ark to the most modern mechanical contrivances that human ingenuity can construct. Chinas of all makes, from the plain potteries to the most gorgeous wares—from the heavy old English and Dutch jardiniere to the thin egg-shell cups that make you wonder why they do not crumble under the touch of your finger. Some in a massive design of raised flowers and birds extravagantly ornamented in gold and silver, others in a quiet but more artistic design of sceneries rich in songs and poems, and still others in the most intricate design of geometrical lines and scrolls. Talk about dreamland of the wonderful empire told in the fairy tale. They are not in it. Visit the cozy corner occupied by dolls in this store. There are dolls and dolls and dolls! Dolls that stand one yard high and dolls that are tiny enough that make you hunt for a pair of spectacles. Dolls that can cry—dolls that can say "papa" and "mamma," and dolls that have not a word to say. Dolls of blonde type and dolls of brunette caste. Dolls that know when to shut their eyes and dolls that keep their eyes open day and night. Dolls dressed in the luxurious silks and satins, and dolls in the simple negligees waiting for the deft and skillful hand of those who select them. A visit to Kanematz's store is a treat to your children. It is like a trip in the fairy land that they may long remember, of the wonderful skill of human arts, of the bewitching scene of beauty and grandeur, and above all, of the moral and elevating effect upon their mind. There were three accidents happened on the Coquille bar lately, one of which will prove fatal to the small schooner Western Home. The Advance was the first. On attempting to sail in the wind failed her after it was too late to turn, and she drifted in striking the bottom near the lighthouse, which caused her to leak severely. A boiler and engine with large pump have been put on board of her and she will be taken to the city without a cargo. Later the Klose came in and had almost the same experience, except she was not so severely strained, and will be able to take a cargo this time. The last was the little two-masted schooner Western Home, which struck near the light house and ponded heavily, and was going to pieces at last accounts. These are the first accidents of any consequence for a considerable length of time.
