The Kilburn Arrives.

The steamer Kilburn arrived in the bay early this morning, being 16 hours from Astoria. The Kilburn carries about 500 tons of freight, mostly for San Francisco.

This is the Kilburn's first trip on this route and the owner, Mr. F. Russell, who is on board, reports the voyage a very satisfactory one and far beyond his expectations.

The Kilburn is a new boat of very neat and attractive appearance and as this trip proves, a very speedy vessel.

It is the intention of Mr. Russell to make regular trips in the future between Portland and San Francisco, stopping here each way. The passengers for Coos Bay report a splendid trip and speak highly of the Kilburn and her officers .- Mail.

Roseburg's New Hospital.

In deference to the often repeated desire of many prominent citizens of Roseburg, Archbishop Alexander Christie, D. D., has purchased a site for a hospital on the Mosher property in West Roseburg. When completed, the hospital will be one of the principal ones on the western coast and will amply respond to the wants of southern Oregon. Work metrical lines and scrolls. will commence as soon as possible. Details will be given as soon as they are made known by the Archbishop. -Roseburg Review.

FAIRYLAND.

Wonderful Sight That Greets Visitors' Eyes.

To be in the metropolis, the seat of a county government, standing majestically in the rich verdure field looking over the placid waters of the Coquille, is a pleasure to the wives and children of our rural agriculturists. But there is no time like now when every store in the city is in it gala attirement, gaily dressed and fully stocked with its holiday attractions. And, holiday shoppers should not fail while here to visit the store of J. S. Kanematz. Here you will see one of the most scriptions, from the old Nosh's ark to the most modern mechanical finger.
