E. N. Smith, of Myrtle Point, returned Wednesday from Riverside, California, where he and his wife have been on a visit, Mrs. Smith remaining. He will return soon.
P. E. Drane has just received a fine lot of green peppers for pickling purposes.
J. M. Perkins, of Bandon, returned Saturday from an extended trip in the valley. He took in the capitol and state institutions, as well as the metropolises and fair grounds.
For fine carpet and rug weaving apply to Mrs. K. Holverson, of the McAdams place.
Mr. Todd, the Round Hill strawberry grower, informs us that he has set out two new beds of eleven more varieties from plants raised in his nursery. They are leaders in the eastern and southern markets and will be new ones in this section.
J. S. Jays has fine Oat Hay for sale. Delivered in town, on the cars or on the boat at $12 per ton.
Assessor T. J. Thrift returned from his visit with his parents at San Jose, Calif., by yesterday's train, having come up on the steamer. He reports having had a very nice time, but says the low-ears' county looks good to him. He says his father would also like to be in Coos again.
Bert Seal, the strawberry man, has a fine lot of Magoon plants for sale. Call early and get choice plants.
The steamer Alliance goes no further south now than Eureka, her run now being between that place and Portland. This gives her a shorter line and she will be able to make quicker trips from Portland, thus giving us a better service from our metropolis, a thing that will be much appreciated by the people.
The Coquille Valley Packing Company wholesales and retails Bacon, Hams and Lard and guarantees the quality.
Orvil Dodge returned Wednesday from San Francisco whither he had gone with a large quantity of samples of quartz from the Salmon Mountain mines upon which he obtained a thorough assay. He is highly pleased with the test the ore stands and there will be extensive development in those mines in the near future.

When you want a pleasant purgative try Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. They are easy to take and produce no nausea, griping or other disagreeable effect. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.
To TRADE—Fifteen head of cows and several head of young cattle for good sheep.
A special term of county court was held yesterday to consider the injunction which was served on them at the time, restraining the order closing the saloons January 1st, as contemplated by the law voted upon at the late election.
T. H. Mehl & Co's hardware store is headquarters for the Amethyst Enamelled ware.
Mrs. Edward Boyd returned Wednesday from her extended visit east, accompanied by her mother, Mrs. Conger, who came out to live with her, and likes the looks of our county very much. Mrs. Boyd is highly pleased to be back again and tells us Mr. Boyd is well.
A fine line of the latest in dress goods is being received at Mrs. Payne's store on Front street.
Morton Tyrrell, of near Arago, was in to see us yesterday. He informs us that he has leased his farm, the Kronenburg place on Hall's creek for six years to Silvia Danenueghini, late of Loleta, California, and that he will return to Eureka in a short time. We are exceedingly sorry to lose Mr. Tyrrell and family from among us, as they were among our best citizens.
Geo. M. Hite is building boats for sale. If you want anything in that line, write him at Bandon.
George Martin and Joe Hudson arrived in town from the Sixes country yesterday, and relate a remarkable experience they had on their way down. In fording the South Fork they found the water much deeper than they expected, it being deep enough to swim their horses for some distance, and as the crossing lay slightly up stream they were coming, it was with great difficulty, in fact miraculous that the team and huck were saved. Joe says this proves to his complete satisfaction that a person born to be hanged will never be drowned.
Dr. J. Curtis Snook, dentist, is in Gardiner on his regular professional visit, and will remain until further notice.
The injunction granted by Judge Hamilton restrains our county court from making an order closing saloons in Coos county January 1st, was served on the court in called session yesterday. The grounds upon which the injunction is granted is that the prohibitory law as voted by the people at the late election does not repeal the law enacted by the legislature at the granting of city charters by which said cities are given the privilege of regulating the liquor traffic within their borders.
S. W. P. Paints, Varnishes and Chisel, in all colors, especially adapted for chairs, floors and linoleum at T. H. Mehl & Co's.
A Costly Mistake.
Bunders are sometimes very expensive. Occasionally life itself is the price of a mistake, but you'll never be wrong if you take Dr. King's New Life Pills for Dyspepsia, Dizziness, Headache, Liver or bowel troubles. They are gentle, yet thorough. 25c, at Knowlton's drug store.

Obituary.
Mrs. Margaret Dean, nee Lindsey, was born in Alleghany City, Penn., April 9th, 1856, and died in Coquille City, Oregon, Nov. 30, 1904, aged forty-eight years, seven months, and twenty-one days. She moved to Rolla, Mo., in 1870. She was united in marriage to Robert Dean in February, 1874, and to this union were born seven children, two of whom preceded her into the world beyond.
In their travels they moved to Texas in 1880, and from there they moved to Coos county, Oregon, in 1884. Sister Dean was converted and united with the M. E. church, South, August 23, 1885, in which she remained a faithful member until the angel Death came and bore her to that everlasting home above. She suffered a great deal during her life but bore it all patiently. She was a loving mother and faithful companion and will be greatly missed by all who know her. She leaves a father, a husband, one son, four daughters, a sister and two brothers to mourn her loss, but they mourn not as those who have no hope, for there is a blessed place where all may meet and never part.
THERE IS REST.
In Heaven no strife can arise,
All is peace and contentment above,
The home the Father prepared in the skies,
Is a refuge for all in His love.
Your burden come east on the Lord,
He sorrowed and went to the end,
This promise He gives in His word:
"The sinner in me has a friend."
"Come unto me ye that are weary,
"Your burden of care I'll assume."
The way is dark and passage so dreary
Yet all must gain rest through the tomb.
REV. H. M. BRANHAM.

NOTICE FOR PUBLICATION.
United States Land Office.
Roseburg, Ore., Oct. 29, 1904.
Notice is hereby given that in compliance with the provision of the act of Congress of June 3, 1878, entitled "An act for the sale of timber lands in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington Territory," as extended to all Public Land States by act of August 4, 1902, Charles B. Bradbury, of Marshfield, county of Coos, state of Oregon, has this day filed in this office his sworn statement No. 2931 for the purchase of Lot 2, SW 1/4 NE 1/4 W 1/2 SE 1/4 of Section 4 in township No. 27 S., Range No. 12 W., and will offer proof to show that the land sought is more valuable for its timber or stone than for agricultural purposes, and to establish his claim to said land before James Watson, County Clerk at his office in Coquille City, Oregon on Saturday, the 14th day of January 1905.
He names as witnesses: Hiram King, Harry C. Noble, Cora Noble and Lyman M. Noble, each and all of Marshfield, Oregon.
Any and all persons claiming adversely the above described lands are requested to file their claims in this office on or before said 14th day of January, 1905.
