General Sherman a Benefactor.

My uncle, General Sherman, was very fond of attending the theatre. He also objected strongly, along with the rest of us lesser mortals who dare not express our real thoughts, to having bibulous, selfish men stumble and push over his knees to get out between the acts. One evening a young man with the clothes and voice of a gentleman began to crowd his way to the aisle from the end of a row in which General Sherman was sitting.

"I beg a thousand pardons, General," he said as he reached my uncle, "but may I get by you?"

"Yes," said my uncle as he straightened his knees behind the young man, "if you don't come back."

The General enjoyed the rest of the play in peace, and received the heartfelt if unspoken thanks of everyone in the row.—Helen Sherman Griffith, in December Lippincott's.

Forty-Five Are Hurt

Holden, Mo., Dec. 3.—Missouri Pacific passenger train No. 1, west-bound from St. Louis to Kansas City, due here at 4 o'clock this afternoon, was wrecked at the water-works bridge, two miles east of here, resulting in the injury of about 45 passengers, ten seriously. The accident was caused by a broken rail, which projected from the track, catching the first coach behind the mail car, throwing it from the track down a 20-foot embankment, and causing two other coaches, a Pullman and a diner, to follow it. The broken rail was on the bridge, and the rear Pullman rolled off the bridge into the creek below, and the passengers inside were all seriously injured.

Two old ladies imprisoned in this car were taken out at the top after holes had been made with axes. The engine, two baggage cars and the mail car passed the bridge in safety and remained on the track, but all the remainder of the train was derailed.

There were 30 members of the Warrensburg Lodge, Knights of Pythias, on the wrecked train, and few of them escaped injury.

The wreck occurred 14 miles west of Dead Man's Curve where the worst wreck in the history of the Missouri Pacific Railway happened in October when 30 persons lost their lives.

Supposition has it that orders were given the train crew at Center View today to slow up at the water-works bridge on account of a broken rail there. It seems that the train was behind the schedule time, and this order was not heeded.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S

Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy. Respectfully yours, E. A. Langfeldt, M. A. Rector of St. Luke's Church, Toronto Chamberlain Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by R. S. Knowlton.

A year's course embraces what is most important in the Scientific field, what is most interesting in Invention and Discovery, what is most entertaining in Travel and adventure, what is most valuable in the World of Business. A portion of each number is edited with reference to the Woman of the World, another to the Woman of the Home, and another to interest Youth, and still another for the Man of Affairs, covering equally the clerk just starting in life and the captain of industry.

What the Twentieth Century Home Offers Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1. A magazine for Women, printed on fine coated paper (toned), beautifully illustrated. It will contain what is newest, if best, what is most useful, if new; what is most entertaining, if helpful, what is most instructive, if interesting.
