Myrtle Point Items.

On Thursday, the 15th inst., several of the ladies met at the Guerin hotel and organized themselves into a Ladies' Improvement Club to raise funds to improve the city park or plaza, or whatever it is called, which was donated to the city by Mr. Lehnerr twenty-two years ago. As it stands it is far from ornamental, a state of things which we hope soon to remedy.

Mrs. Jas. Brown, (nee Lehnerr) was elected president; Mrs. Geo. Guerin, vice-president; and Mrs. Guerin treasurer and secretary combined.

On Wednesday, the 14th inst., at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Garratt, near this city, Miss Neva, the second daughter, was married to Mr. Waterman C. Guerin, by Rev. D. H. Hare, of the Presbyterian church. Only the immediate relatives of the contracting parties were present. The bride's gown was of champagne crepe de Paris, which set off the brunette beauty to good advantage. The bride comes here from Humboldt county, California, where they resided for many years. The groom is a well-known and popular young merchant of this place. Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Guerin, father and mother of the groom, entertained the bridal party at the hotel on Thursday at supper.

On Thursday evening, at eight o'clock, Dec. 15, at the home of her mother, Mrs. S. S. Barklow, Miss Laura was joined in marriage to Mr. Chas. E. Broadbent, by Rev. Thos. Barklow. The bride looked charming in white corded silk with a veil held in place by natural orange blossoms. The flowers were sent her by a friend from Los Angeles. A few relatives and friends witnessed the ceremony. The happy couple were the recipients of a number of nice wedding presents.

As a result of Dan Cupid's work there will be another wedding this week, so 'tis said.
