Centennial Notes.

"Hit the Trail" is to be the slogan of the Pacific Northwest in connection with the Lewis and Clark Centennial.

Douglas county, Oregon, has applied for exhibit space at the Lewis and Clark Centennial.

It is estimated that the attendance at the Lewis and Clark Fair will be between 1,250,000 and 1,500,000.

The American Inn at the Lewis and Clark Centennial, which will be located on the Exposition grounds, will contain over 600 guest rooms.

The new building for the Lewis and Clark Centennial, made necessary by the demands for exhibit space, will contain 90,000 feet of floor space.

A Cuban exhibit from St. Louis is on its way to Portland, where the contents will be exhibited at the Lewis and Clark Centennial. The car is called Cuba on Wheels.

It is probable that the Riverside, Cal. County Irrigation display at St. Louis will be transferred and supplemented for the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

A Commercial Club has been organized at Albany, Oregon, to exhibit at Albany and Linn county. The club will have charge of Linn county's exhibit at the Fair.

The Topeka Commercial Club, of Dighton, Kansas, recently adopted resolutions congratulating the people of Portland on the Lewis and Clark Centennial, and favoring participation on a large scale by the people of Kansas.

The Great Falls, Mont., Commercial Club is planning a fete to last several days, including the Fourth of July next, to celebrate the Centennial of the Lewis and Clark Expedition. The Lewis and Clark party spent the Fourth in 1805 near Great Falls.

The project of a camping ground to be located on the hills behind the Lewis and Clark Exposition is being agitated. Those favoring the project, argue that farmers and ranchers will want to drive to Portland during the Fair and camp out, and that Eastern people will enjoy the novelty of a few days of tent life.

Senator Platt and Representatives Crumacker and Morrill concede that there is no probability of the representation of the South being cut down during this Congress. The most that can be done is to appoint a joint committee to fully investigate and report concerning the alleged violation of law.

Geese whiz! Now they want to give the President $100,000 a year and elect him for eight years. It's about time for the populists to take the reins. If $50,000 annually isn't enough for Roosevelt or any other man, will all the side issues thrown in, let him come to Oregon and buy a country newspaper.—Gold Hill, (Ore.) News.

A Harrisburg merchant left the back door of his store open one evening, and after a while persons in the vicinity heard a noise inside. About 25 determined and armed men gathered about to capture the burglar, and while deliberating whether to venture into the building the burglar walked out in the shape of a town cow—and they were all cowed.—Portland Journal.

Senator Pottus of Alabama was writing with a noisy, spluttering pen. Laying the pen down he smiled and said: "Once I was spending the evening with a friend of mine in Selma. We sat in the dining room and from the kitchen came a dreadful scratching sound. "Martha" said my friend to the maid, "what is that scratching in the kitchen? It must be the dog trying to get in. "Hub" said Martha, "dat's de cook a writin' a love letter to her honey-suckle."—Boston Herald.

RECTOR OF ST. LUKE'S Ashburnham, Ontario, Testifies to the Good Qualities of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

Ashburnham, Ont., April 18, 1903.—I think it is only right that I should tell you what a wonderful effect Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has produced. The day before Easter I was so distressed with a cold and cough that I did not think to be able to take any duties the next day, as my voice was almost choked by the cough. The same day I received an order from you for a bottle of your Cough Remedy. I at once procured a sample bottle, and took about three doses of the medicine. To my great relief the cough and cold had completely disappeared and I was able to preach three times on Easter day. I know that this rapid and effective cure was due to your Cough Remedy. I make this testimonial without solicitation, being thankful to have found such a God-sent remedy. Respectfully yours, E. A. Langfeldt, M. A. Rector of St. Luke's Church, To Chamberlain Medicine Co. This remedy is for sale by R. S. Knowlton.
