John Preuss Weds.

A very pretty wedding occurred last evening at the home of the bride's uncle, A. Gibbs, in West Marshfield, when John Preuss and Miss Rosa Gibbs were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony by the Rev. Murray, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city.

The Gibbs home was very elaborately decorated for the occasion.
The color scheme was green and white, Oregon grape, chrysanthemums being profusely used.

Under a dainty wedding bell in the parlor the contracting parties stood, while the ring ceremony, according to the rites of the Presbyterian church were pronounced by the officiating clergyman. They were witnessed by a few friends and immediate relatives of the bridal party.

The bride was very becomingly attired in a pretty gown of crepe de chine.

After receiving the hearty congratulations of those present, a wedding supper was partaken of.
Many costly and handsome presents were received.

The groom is one of Marshfield's prosperous and well-to-do drug merchants and has been a resident of this city for many years.

The bride-elect is formerly from Falls City, Mich., but has been enrolled among the successful and accomplished teachers in our county for the past three years. The best wishes of a legion of friends are theirs.—Sun.

(Bandon Recorder.)

Dr. Perkins was made happy Tuesday evening by the arrival of his wife and children who came from Shaniko, having taken the steamer at Portland and come by way of Coos Bay.

The pulp mill proposition is beginning to raise a stir in the East.
Mr. Morganger, who has been looking after the matter, has done some advertising in the New York Paper Mill Journal, a paper that goes to men interested in paper and pulp mills, and already one man is investigating who will be able to raise means for an 18 ton mill, providing the resources are good as they purport to be.

Jon. A. McCord received a severe injury last Thursday, which laid him up for a few days and put him on crutches as a means of locomotion. He was working in the woolen mills and was helping move machinery. In pursuance of his labor he set his foot upon something that had a nail protruding, and taking a heavy lift the nail was forced through his shoe and pierced the foot back of the toes, the nail being forced nearly through the foot. The wound is healing very nicely.

An agreeable movement of the bowels without any unpleasant effect is produced by Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

(Marshfield Sun.)

E. Heuckendorff, the shipbuilder, is home from a business trip to San Francisco.

Captain A. M. Simpson arrived on the Breakwater from San Francisco.

Mrs. George Stemmerman, who was accidentally shot with a 22 caliber by her little son, is convalescing at the home of her brother-in-law, Thomas Lawhorn, in this city.

Eighteen tons of dried milk will be shipped on the Alliance for the East via Portland. The milk was prepared for shipment by the Coos Bay Creamery Company and is to be used for manufacturing purposes.

Impaired Digestion.

Means less nutrition and in consequence less vitality. When the liver fails to secrete bile, the blood becomes loaded with bilious properties, the digestion becomes impaired and the bowels constipated.
Herbine will rectify this; it gives tone to the stomach, liver and kidneys, strengthens the appetite, clears and improves the complexion, infuses new life and vigor to the whole system. 50 cents a bottle.
Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

Sawmill Wanted.

Special inducements will be made by J. D. Myres of Matt Rink creek, to anyone wishing a site for a portable sawmill. Everything necessary right at hand for a business of this kind.

Notice.

All persons knowing themselves to be indebted to the undersigned, are hereby notified that settlement must be made at once or the accounts will be placed in the hands of a collector and interest added.

for stomach troubles and constipation I have ever sold," says J. R.

Mich. They are easy to take and always give satisfaction. I tell my satisfactory to come back and get

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horebound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Cannon, Chicago, writes March 4, 1903. "Having been troubled with Lumbago, at different times and tried one physician after another, then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Bullard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of sufferers." Sold by
R. S. Knowlton.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec 25, 1902:
"With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Bullard's Hore-bound's Syrup. I have used it my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and best remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy ces, is sometimes more disastrous than the disease from which they are suffering. Every mother should Remedy is perfectly safe for children to take. It contains nothing harmful and for coughs, colds and croup is unsurpassed. For sale by

R. S. Knowlton.

The Cosmopolitan Magazine occupies a pos-attention to fiction and entertainment—fifty short stories and one or more complete novels appear in its pages each year—it has a definite place beyond. It may be likened to a great modern university, with a million and a half student-readers. A year's course embraces what is most important in the Scientific field, what is most interesting in Invention and Discovery, what is most entertaining in Travel and adventure, what is most valuable in the World of Business. A portion of each number is edited with reference to the Woman of the World, another to the Woman of the Home, and another to interest Youth, and still another for the Man of Affairs, covering equally the clerk just starting in life and the captain of industry.
