Cured His Mother of Rheumatism

"My mother has been a sufferer for many years from rheumatism," says W. H. Howard of Husband, Pennsylvania. "At times she was unable to move at all, while at all times walking was painful. I presented her with a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm and after a few applications she decided it was the most wonderful pain reliever she had ever tried, in fact, she is never without it now and is at all times able to walk. An occasional application of Pain Balm keeps away the pain that she was formerly troubled with." For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Ballard's Horehound Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. Death of George Lindsey.

George Lindsey, who has made his home with the family of R. J. Dean for the past 10 years, passed away at 3 a. m. Tuesday, January 17th, and was buried on Wednesday.

The deceased was born in County Derry, Ireland, Sept. 8, 1817, came to America and located at Alleghany City, Penn., in 1842, where he was married to Miss Elizabeth Hamilton. In 1870 they moved to Missouri where his wife died. In 1880 he went to Illinois with a married son where he remained until 1895, when he came to Coos county with his daughter, Mrs. R. J. Dean, with whom he has since made his home till her death which occurred Nov. 30 last.

Grandpa, as he was commonly called, was a man of sterling qualities and his friends were numbered as his acquaintances. He had been a consistent member of the Presbyterian church since he was five years of age.

The funeral was preached by Rev. Adolph Haberly at the Presbyterian church, while the interment was in the Masonic cemetery and was conducted by the Masonic fraternity, he being a time-honored member of that noble order.

Coquille, Oregon, Dec. 24, 1904.

Sperry Flour Company.

Sirs:—My mother always buys Sperry's flour because it is the best in the market.

She has used it steady for five years.

She likes it because it makes finer grained and whiter bread.

It raises more quickly and it makes about six more loaves to the sack than any other brand of flour.

My mother likes Sperry's best because she can depend on it. With other brands of flour you will once in a while get a poor sack, but with Sperry's you never get a poor sack and that is really the best reason mamma has for using Sperry's flour.

Yours truly, EARL SIMMONS.
