East Fork Items.

Dr. Stemmler is being kept quite busy waiting on the sick.

D. C. Krantz's twin baby boy is very low with bronchial pneumonia.

Pleasant Hill school meeting held on the 25th, resulted in J. C. Slagle being chosen director to fill the vacancy caused by J. A. Devault selling out and moving to Kansas. The contract was signed for Miss Anna Weekly to teach the school of 1905.

The East Fork boys are now on a log drive. G. G. and Gary Swan run a raft of lumber down to the ranch from the East Fork mills.

We hear this evening that Wm. Abernethy, Sr., is still very much under the weather, as he had a paralytic stroke some time ago.

W. H. Bunch, Chas. Heller and Jos. Laird are extending the telephone line from Dora four miles north-west of W. H. Bunch's place on Cherry creek. We understand Mrs. Abernethy and R. Easton want a phone, and soon two more wires will have to be run from Dora to Myrtle Point. The phone comes very handy and people having phones would not like to part with them for many times the cost.

L. S. Minard sent R. L. Weekly a fine skiff which he built at the East Fork mills.

Fred Minard is now proprietor of the East Fork mills, and he had a little breakdown as his gear wheel gave way on the log hauling pulley spool but is now replaced with a friction wheel.

The wind storm of last night, the 24th, caused some timber to obstruct the county road.

The Minard and Folsom logging team have completed the hauling of L. R. F. Heller's logs on the F. Harnish place. X. Y. Z.

The Tomb.

Mrs. Cassa A. Endicott, beloved wife of J. J. Endicott, passed from this earth at her home in this city, Thursday, Jan. 26, 1905, after a short illness. She was born February 17, 1832, and was therefore 72 years, 11 months and 9 days of age at the time of death. She was born in Kentucky, and when a child moved with her parents to Indiana where she passed her childhood and earlier life and where she was united in marriage to J. J. Endicott on March 15, 1847. They moved to Illinois in 1855, and from there they moved to Missouri and in 1889 they came to Myrtle Point and have since resided in this section.

The deceased was the mother of fourteen children, all of whom are living except two, a daughter and a son. Thus a husband, twelve children, and other relatives are left to mourn their loss. She was a member of the Christian church, and led a consistent, Christ-like life. She was a loving mother and wife, a kind-hearted and good neighbor and much esteemed by all.

Funeral services were conducted from the Christian church today by the pastor, Rev. M. Brownrigg, and the remains laid to rest in the Myrtle Point cemetery.—Enterprise.

The Cosmopolitan Magazine occupies a position distinctly its own. While giving great attention to fiction and entertainment—fifty short stories and one or more complete novels appear in its pages each year—it has a definite plan beyond. A year's course embraces what is most important in the Scientific field, what is most interesting in invention and discovery, what is most entertaining in Travel and adventure, what is most valuable in the World of Business. A portion of each number is edited with reference to the Woman of the World, another to the Woman of the Home, and another to Interest Youth, and still another for the Man of Affairs, covering equally the clerk just starting in life and the captain of industry.

What the Twentieth Century Home Offers
Single copies 10c. Annual subscription $1.
