Heir to Millions and a Title.

Spokane, Wash., Feb. 28.—Alexander Kerr, of Spokane, says he is heir to the estate, and has documents to prove it, of Eglinton, in Kilwinning, Scotland. The estate, which Kerr says is worth $80,000, 000, has been in the chancery court of England and Scotland since 1449 A. D. He is also heir to the title of Lord Kerr. Notification of the inheritance came through Scottish papers containing advertisements asking the whereabouts of the heir.

The Eglinton estate has been the subject of incessant legal battles in Great Britain. The great Eglinton castle, one of the strongholds of the Scotch in their war with England, was controlled by the Kerrs for generations. In the middle of the 15th century, when the Kerrs were upholding the standard of England during the war with France, Captain Drummond, of the English army, married a daughter of the Kerrs and during the disastrous times so many of the family expired that Drummond claimed the estate, saying he was next in line. Bitter quarrels ensued between the Kerr and Drummond families.

The present Mr. Kerr says he remembers his grandfather discussing the famous cases and the large estate he hoped to leave his children if the English courts did him justice.
Mr. Kerr expects it will take a little time to establish his right to the title. Other heirs, but not so direct live in Canada and the East.

Kerr has lived in Northport, Stevens county, Washington, for 12 years. He is a member of the firm of Kerr, Stone & Graves, which controls the American Eagle and the John H. McBride mine. He will remain in Spokane with his wife and 9-year-old daughter until he receives information as to the whereabouts of John McDonald, whom he wishes to find for the purpose of testifying in his behalf in winding up the estate.

Mr. Kerr is a man of standing in the community and his allegations are readily given credence by his friends.

The Mr. Kerr above referred to is a cousin of our townsman, W. T.
Kerr, who bears the same relationship to the original Kerr family as does Alexander Kerr, and in case of a proper division of the estate will come in for a good share. His father sent an attorney to enquire into the matter several years ago who he thought proved false and dropped the matter for a little hush money which he appropriated to his own use. It is to be hoped that the estate may be properly and fairly distributed among the rightful persons.

tory. They were made that's you. For sale by W. T. KERR & CO.

There is no political lesson for the United States in the situation in Russia. But there is a moral lesson as strong as words of Holy Writ. The hatred of injustice is universal. It is planted in the human heart and nothing can obliterate it. It lives and asserts itself in every quarter of the globe. It is, at the present moment, as positive and dominant in republican America as in despotic Russia. There are in our own land monsters of greed and rapacity sheltered and protected by the laws, who refuse to recognize or pay heed to the storm which is gathering about them. But is impending, none the less.

"They have sown the wind and shall reap the whirlwind." You may search the Scriptures from Genesis to Revelation and you will not find within the lids of the Bible a declaration of justice which has been more unerringly verified in all ages of the world than this same text from Hosea.—Kansas City Star

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. B. W. Evans, Clearwater, Kan. writes, My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption.
We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal. 25c. and 50c. and $1.00. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

The Naval appropriation of $99, 914,359 looks as much like a hundred million dollars as a bargain sale of goods reduced from a dollar to ninety-eight cents.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son.
"My boy," he says, "cut a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye. Good for burns and ulcers too." Only 25c at R. S. Knowlton's drug store.

Farm for Rent.

160 acres 2 miles east of Norway, Coos county, Oregon, known as the J. H. Allen place. 2 small houses, hay barn, etc., small orchard, 12 to 15 acres plow land, 40 to 50 acres cleared for pasture, mostly fenced; dition road by place. Will lease for a term of years to reliable parties.

For further information address the owner,
E. A. BARSETT,
Riverside, Calif.

Gives Health, Vigor and Tone.

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. The languor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity results. Mrs. Belle H. Shrieel, Middlesborough, Ill., writes, I have been troubled with liver complaint, poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's life time." 50c. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

The Cosmopolitan Magazine occupies a po-short stories and one or more complete novels appear in its pages each year—it has a definite plan beyond. It may be likened to a great modern university, with a million and a half student-readers. A year's course embraces what is most important in the Scientific field, what is most interesting in Invention and Discovery, what is most entertaining in Travel and adventure, what is most valuable in the World of Business. A portion of each number is edited with reference to the Woman of the World, another to the Woman of the Home, and another to interest Youth, and still another for the Man of Affairs, covering equally the clerk just starting in life and the captain of industry.
