What the Hand Symbolizes

Look where we will, we find the hand in time and history, working, building, inventing, bringing civilization out of barbarism. The hand symbolizes power and the excellence of work. The mechanic's hand, that minister of elemental forces, the hand that hews, saws, cuts, builds, is useful in the world equally with the delicate hand that puts a wild flower or moulds a Grecian urn, or the hand of a statesman that writes a law. The eye cannot see to the hand, "I have no need of thee." Blessed be the hand! Thrice blessed be the hands that work!—From Helen Keller's "A Chat About the Hand" in the Century.

News for Bald Headed Men.

Washington, D. C., March 15.—Invention has found a substitute for human hair. It was discovered incidentally in a long quest for some method of making artificial silk. After 150 years of failure, French and German chemists have solved the artificial silk problem. The department of commerce and labor has been informed that factories will soon be started in the United States for making silk colodion. The same factories will make hair for wigs.

In the matter of hair for the head, nature has not been able to keep up with art. The colodion-spun hair is lighter, softer, cheaper and altogether better than that cropped from the human head.

Inventors of the artificial silk process are Profs. Lehner of Augsburg and Count Hilairede Charcdnell of Paris. Two factories are running in Germany, two in Switzerland and one in France. One of the Germany factories sold the United States $135,315 product last year.

Cellulose is the basis of the artificial silk, and this is obtained generally from carded cotton, although also obtained from corn and other grains.

The Capital City has again resumed its normal level. Soldiers, regular and irregular, infantry, cavalry and artillery, correct cadets from West Point and Annapolis and incorrect cowboys from Heaven knows where, have folded their suit cases and bronchos and gone. The White House and Senate remain and are now having it out over the Dominican protocol. "The Senate expects to allow itself ten days cogitation before voting. The question is doubtless of very great importance as a precedent and is earnestly watched by Venezuela and the South American republics with intense interest. There was meaning in the President's Inaugural speech when he said, "Never before have men tried so vast and formidable an experiment as that of administering a continent under the forms of a democratic republic."

FOR RENT.—A good house and several nice garden lots. Apply at this office.

Mrs. Conde Hamlin, who is in charge of the municipal museum of Chicago, will collect material for a municipal exhibit from the prominent cities of the United States for exhibition at the Lewis and Clark exposition.

The Congress just ended appropriated $31,000,000 more than the Congress which provided for the war with Spain. War is costly but it may be even more expensive to preserve peace.

Gives Health, Vigor and Tone.

Herbine is a boon for sufferers from anemia. By its use the blood is quickly regenerated and the color becomes normal. The drooping strength is revived. The languor is diminished. Health, vigor and tone predominate. New life and happy activity result. Mrs. Belle H. Shrie, Middlesborough, Ill., writes, "I have been troubled with liver complaint, poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime." Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

Incredible Brutality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son, "My boy," he says, "out a fearful gash over his eye, so I applied Bucklen's Arnica Salve, which quickly healed it and saved his eye. Good for burns and ulcers too. Only 25c at R. S. Knowlton's drug store."
