Paul De Laney has spent five years in traveling in Eastern Oregon, Washington, Idaho and California, and has seen every phase of life in this vast region. His first novel was "The Lord of the Desert," which was inspired in his travels through this country. His second novel, and more popular than the first was the "Toilers of the Columbia," but now he has written a better story still—a story that will live. It is a new feature in fiction. It deals with the great range wars, the timberland frauds, and the irrigation projects in a romantic spirit. See this paper about getting the story.

At the meeting of the Mothers' and Teachers' Association, held March 17, it was decided to change the name of that organization to the Coquille Public School Improvement League. Articles of amendment to the constitution were proposed and adopted and other business transacted. Those in attendance had the pleasure of listening to a most excellent program in keeping with St. Patrick's day. Several new stars appeared in the firmament of readers. Mrs. Hersey, Mrs. Steve Gallier and Mrs. Figg each winning laurels in that accomplishment. Their readings with a paper on Ireland by Gretchen Sherwood, vocal music by members of the school and a pleasing solo by Prof. Jory furnished a program which we feel none should have missed hearing.

Summons.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, FOR THE COUNTY OF COOS.

Thomas Wilson, Plaintiff, vs. Angus McDonald, Mary McDonald and John McDonald, Defendants.

To John McDonald, one of the above named defendants:

In the name of the State of Oregon, you are hereby notified that you are required to appear and answer the complaint filed against Angus McDonald, Mary McDonald, and yourself in the above entitled suit within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit:

Within six weeks from Friday, the 10th day of March, 1905, the same being the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to so appear and answer on or before Saturday, the 22nd day of April, 1905, the same being the last day of the time prescribed in the order for the publication of this summons, for the last publication thereof, judgment and decree will be taken against the defendants in said suit for the relief demanded in the complaint in which is as follows:

That there be adjudged to be due and owing to the plaintiff from the defendants Angus McDonald and Mary McDonald the sum of $800, together with interest on $500 thereof at the rate of 8 per cent per annum, payable annually, from the 21st day of November, 1903; and together with interest on $300 thereof, at the rate of 10 per cent per annum, payable annually, from the 22nd day of May, 1903; for such attorney fees in said suit as the Court may adjudge reasonable, and for his costs and disbursements in this suit.

That the two mortgages set out in the complaint herein, and which were executed by the defendants, Angus McDonald and Mary McDonald, to the plaintiff, to secure the payment, respectively, of the two promissory notes which are also set out in the complaint herein, be foreclosed, and the premises described in said mortgages, to-wit: The E 1/4 of the SW 1/4, and the W 1/2 of the SE 1/4 of section 9 in township 29 south of range 12 west of Willamette meridian in Coos county, Oregon, excepting 66 acres, more or less from the above described premises, which has heretofore been sold and conveyed to parties other than the plaintiff, as shown by the records of deeds of Coos county, Oregon, be sold in the manner provided by law, and that the proceeds thereof be applied to the payment of the costs of said sale and of this suit, and the sums found to be due on said two promissory notes as secured by said mortgages, and that the defendants, Angus McDonald and Mary McDonald, and all persons claiming under them subsequent to the execution of said mortgages be barred, and foreclosed of all right, claim or equity of redemption in or to such premises.

That the over-plus if any there be, be paid into this Court to await its further order, and for such other and further relief as to the Court may seem equitable.

This summons is published by the order of the Hon. L. Harlocker, County Judge of Coos county, State of Oregon, made and entered on the 9th day of March, 1905, and which order specifies that the same shall be published for six consecutive weeks on the same day of each of said weeks, in the SEMI-WEEKLY HERALD, a semi-weekly newspaper printed and published in the above named county, at the City of Coquille.

SUMMONS.

IN THE CIRCUIT COURT OF THE STATE OF OREGON, IN AND FOR THE COUNTY OF COOS.

Henry M. Campe as the Executor, and Eliza Campe as the Executrix of the Estate of Henry Campe, deceased, and Lena Harms as the Executrix of the Estate of George Harms, deceased, and all as Co-partners under the firm name and style of Henry Campe and Company, Plaintiffs, vs. C. O. Gilkey, Defendant.

To C. O. Gilkey, the above-entitled defendant:

In the name of the state of Oregon you are hereby required to appear and answer the complaint filed against you in the above entitled action in which Harry M. Campe as the Executor, and Eliza Campe as the Executrix of the Estate of Henry Campe, deceased, and Lena Harms as the Executrix of the Estate of George Harms, deceased, and all as co-partners under the firm name and style of Henry Campe and Company are plaintiffs, and you, C. O. Gilkey, are defendant, within six weeks from the date of the first publication of this summons, to-wit: within six weeks from the 21st day of February, 1905, the same being the date of the first publication of this summons, and if you fail to appear and answer on or before the 4th day of April, 1905, the same being the last day of the time prescribed in the order for publication, plaintiff will take judgment against you for the sum of $345.92, for their costs and disbursements in this action and an order for the sale of the property which has been attached in said action, which is described as follows, to-wit: Lot four in block two of the Original town of Coquille City, in the County of Coos, and State of Oregon. Also commencing 100 feet east 100 feet, thence east 11 degrees south 25 feet, thence south 11 degrees west 100 feet, thence along Front Street to the place of beginning, in Coos County, Oregon.

Service of this summons is made by publication in pursuance of an order made by L. Harlocker, County Judge for Coos County, Oregon, dated the 14th day of February, 1905, and directing the publication of the same in the "Semi-Weekly HERALD," a newspaper published at the City of Coquille, Coos County, Oregon, once each week for a period of six weeks.
