Centennial Notes.

Work on the California Building at the Lewis and Clark Exposition is progressing rapidly, and the building will be completed by May 1st.

A model post office will be installed at the Lewis and Clark Exposition. It will prove interesting as an exhibit, and useful in handling the immense amount of mail matter received and distributed by the Exposition.

An interesting display of the Lewis and Clark Exposition from the Navajo Indian Reservation will show Indian handicrafts making the rugs that have made the Navajos famous.

Fruit raisers of Pierce County, Washington, will give away apples and strawberries at the Lewis and Clark Exposition in order to convince easterners that Pierce County is an unsurpassed locality for raising these products.

A $150,000 exhibit of the products of the Philippine Islands will be an interesting feature of the United States Government's magnificent participation in the Lewis and Clark Exposition.

The staff work on the beautiful Bridges of Nations at the Lewis and Clark Exposition is now completed. The Bridge is almost half a mile long, and is built of wood and steel, in imitation of solid masonry. The Bridge crosses Guild's Lake, the largest body of water ever enclosed within an exposition fence, and connects the mainland with the Government peninsula.

Mrs. Eva Emery Dye, author of "The Conquest," who has been busy for several months tracing descendants of the Lewis and Clark party other than the leaders of that famous expedition, has located at Fowler, California, a son of the "Boy Shannon" frequently mentioned in the journals of the explorers. He is Judge J. B. Shannon, an aged and respected resident of Fowler for many years. Judge Shannon has accepted an invitation to be the guest of the Lewis and Clark Exposition which is to be held in celebration of the centennial of the Lewis and Clark Expedition, on June 1, the opening day.

Bridgeport, Conn., March 29.—Fanny J. Crosby, the famous blind poet, author of more than 8000 hymns, celebrated her 83th birthday at her home in this city yesterday. Scores of churches all over the country honored her by setting apart her birthday as "Fanny Crosby day." There is scarcely a church edifice in any part of the world that has not echoed her sacred hymns.

Remember the Ladies' Band entertainment which takes place April 1st.

Shrieff, Middleborough, Ill. writes, I have been troubled with liver complaint, poor blood, and have found nothing to benefit me like Herbine. I hope never to be without it. I have wished that I had known of it in my husband's lifetime. $50c. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.

Incredible Bruntality.

It would have been incredible brutality if Chas. F. Lemberger, of Syracuse, N. Y., had not done the best he could for his suffering son.
