Kay-Cademartori.

The following we take from the Redding, Cal., Searchlight: Clarence B. Kay of Coquille, Or., and Miss Alafaire Cademartori of Weaverville were married Thursday morning in Redding by Judge Chas. M. Head, the interesting ceremony taking place in the chambers of the Superior Court. The couple came in from Weaverville on the stage Wednesday evening and left Redding Thursday evening, going to San Francisco, whence they will take a steamer to Coquille, Or., where they will make their permanent home.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cademartori of Weaverville. She is a pleasant-looking young lady of accomplished manners and has been a social favorite in her home town.

Mr. Kay is a stationary engineer and machinist, who has been employed at various times for three years past in Trinity County, but he recently located in Coos county determining to make that region his permanent home. He is an industrious young man of good habits and good character and is abundantly able to make a comfortable home for himself and his newly-wedded wife.

Captain and Crew.

San Pedro, Mar. 30.—The captain and crew of the schooner C. A. Klose, abandoned at sea in a water-logged condition, were picked up by the schooner Poalris, which arrived here yesterday. All hands are reported well.

Awful Depravity.

Paduch, Ky., March 28.—Mrs. Mary Brockwell, whose three children, aged 3, 4 and 5 years, died of poisoning under suspicious circumstances Saturday, today broke down and confessed that she killed them by giving them morphine and coal oil. She stated that George Alberton promised to marry her if she got rid of her children. Alberton was arrested as an accessory.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by R. S. Knowlton.
