New Criminal Laws and Amendments.

Salem, April 10.—Twenty-five criminal laws, passed by the last Legislature, will become effective May 18. Some of these are merely modifications of existing laws, while others define new crimes and provide for their punishment. Some relate only to such offenses as the violation of game laws, acts which involve no great moral wrong, while others are designed to prevent acts which are greatly injurious to public morals or which endanger property.

KEEP GIRLS OUT OF BOXES.
One of these laws, which, if rigidly enforced, will bring about a marked reform in the larger cities, is that which makes a crime for the owner, proprietor or employe of any place where intoxicating liquor is sold or served to permit any female under 21 years of age to remain in such a place. The act also makes it a crime to sell or give intoxicating liquor to a female under 21 years of age, in any saloon or place where intoxicating liquor is kept for sale. The punishment provided is a fine of $100 to $1000 or imprisonment in the county jail three months to one year.

The penalties in this act are heavy enough so that saloon-keepers are not likely to run any risks. Under the decision of the courts, the fact that the saloon-keeper was mistaken or deceived in the person's age is no offense. The act does not apply to any female accompanied by her husband or parent or to any open and public restaurant or dining-room. The act prohibits the serving of liquor to minor females in restaurant boxes.

NO SUBJECTS IN WINDOWS.
Another act that carries a penalty heavy enough to insure effectiveness is that which prohibits the public exhibition of hypnotized persons. The penalty is a fine of $100 to $1000 or imprisonment 50 to 500 days.

NEW LAW FOR WIFE-BEATERS.
The wife-beating law was enacted in the form of an amendment to the law for the punishment of assault and battery. The amendment provides that any person who shall be convicted of assault and battery upon his wife shall, in the discretion of the court, be sentenced to be whipped not exceeding 20 lashes, the punishment to be inflicted by the sheriff, constable or marshal.

REGULATIONS FOR ROBBERIES.
The law forbidding the keeping of houses of ill-fame has been made much broader in its terms. As it now exists it merely makes it a crime to keep a house of ill-fame. The amendment makes it a crime also to permit a house of ill-fame to be kept in any place which the person accused may own or hold under a lease.

LONG TERM FOR TRAIN ROBBERIES.
Heretofore robbing of railway trains has been punished under the general laws regarding robbery, but the Legislature of 1905 passed an act which applies particularly to railway trains and fixes the penalty at imprisonment from two to 40 years.

BE CAREFUL OF BRUSH FIRES.
A new forest fire law establishes a closed season from June 1 to October 1, during which time it is made unlawful to set fire to slashing or fallen timber, or no timber land, or in the vicinity of grainfields, without first securing a permit from the County Clerk. No fee is required for a permit, which must be granted on request, the purpose being to restrict the setting of fires and keep a record of those starting fires. Violation of the law is punishable by a fine of $100 to $1000 or imprisonment from one month to one year, and half the fine goes to the informant.

HUNTERS MUST SOON PAY.
The hunters license law will go into effect May 18, after which time it will be unlawful for any person to hunt on grounds not his own unless he has secured a license and paid a fee of $1. Violation of the law is punishable by a fine of $25 to $100 or imprisonment from five to 30 days.

FINE BILL-JUMPFERS.
