With this issue of the HERALD we discontinue publication semi-weekly and again come out but once a week. We find that the publishing of our papers oftener than once a week is not appreciated sufficiently to justify the extra labor and expense at this time, but we hope to be able to take up the semi-weekly again in the not far distant future.

EDITOR HERALD: Please let your readers know through your paper that the well-known traveling repairer, Robt. Ahr, of Marshfield, is now at St. Louis, and will not be able to make his 9th annual tour of the Coquille river this year, and that he does not know just when he will be back. Also thank my many customers in Oregon for past patronage. Anyone wishing to write him will address Robt. Ahr, Arsenal station, St. Louis, Mo.

Easter Sunday was set apart by the Woodmen of the World for the commemorative service for the late F. A. Falkenburg, head consul of the order, and very pretty and interesting services were conducted at the South Methodist Church in this city by the Revs. Mulkey, Haberly and Branham. The church was decorated with beautiful flowers and the house was filled with interested listeners. The opening prayer was delivered by Rev. Haberly after which Rev. Mulkey delivered an address apropos to the occasion, and Rev. Branham concluded the services with an impressive sermon, while very nice music was furnished by the choir. The members of the camp and circle attended in a body from their hall.

O. C. SANFORD, Coquille, Oregon.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by R. S. Knowlton.

NOTICE.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy

The Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for la grippe," say Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be procured for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures quickly. Sold by R. S. Knowlton.
