This senate amendment makes it necessary for such common carriers to have received the order for such liquor to be shipped within the five-day period of grace, before the five-day period began. In other words, before the act becomes effective.

As it carries an emergency clause, it will become effective as soon as the Governor signs it.

If a citizen of Coquille ordered his two quarts of a Califorina firm, and prior to the day the law went into affect there would still remain five days during which the liquor could lawfully be shipped into the state to fill the order.

Leneve assisted Mrs. Hazard in serving a delicious luncheon at the close of the afternoon. Mrs. H. N. Butler, of Prosper had high score and was awarded the priss.

Those present were: Mandames F. E. McKenna, J. A. Lamb, Chas. Harlocker, A. J. Sherwood, F. Slagle, C. Slagle, Ed. Lorenz, A. Folson, G. A. Howard, H. N. Butler, J. W. Leneve, O. C. Sanford and Miss Claire Sherwood.

Fished For the Watch.

A few weeks ago Mrs. Jas. Lair! in company with two other ladies made a visit at the home of J. L. Roy, who was very ill. On the trip back across the river Mrs. Laird dropped he: $25 Waltham watch in 14 feet of water. She never expected to see it again but. Chas. I. Kime said he would get it frr her and she pointed out the spot to ed to Mrs Laird that he had it and she met him at the ferry where he had the watch in alcohol. It had not been exposed to the air and after a cleaning by V. R. Wilson, ran as

Mr. Kime did not dive for it, but took a long pipe, soldered a Mason fruit jar to one end and with thiunique telescope searched the depths until he located the timepiece and with the aid of a rake brought it to the surface.
