

SIGNAL EVENTS

Big Party at the Sherwood Home - Guest Book Receipts of Week

Last Tuesday evening the Sherwood mansion was the scene of one of the largest and most delightful social events of the season, when the 500 club with their husbands and other invited guests, numbering altogether about forty, assembled at 7 o'clock to partake of a delightful dinner before entering upon the serious business of the evening. A portion of the guests were seated around the big dining room table and the rest were provided for at two unoccupied tables in the parlor. These, probably, who most needed washing were seated via a vis their better halves, while the more select were not subjected to such espionage. We would like to tell who won first prize at our table in the gastronomic contest—but let that pass.

Mrs. Sherwood was assisted in serving by Mrs. Bert Folsom, Mrs. T. H. Mehl, Mrs. O. C. Sanford, Mrs. Lucia Stratton and Miss Clara Sherwood. Moving the report forward from the end to the beginning of the evening was a change that met the hearty approval of every guest; and the Valentine place cards were another very happy feature.

It was with an at-peace-with-the-world feeling that the guests, after the report, found their places at the card tables and engaged in the battle of the passboards.

When the score had been computed Mr. Sherwood called up Mr. and Mrs. Longston—by following a suggestion—suggested by making it "the Longston Construction Company," the first prize of a jardiniere with a growing plant went to Mrs. L. and the second an art candlestick was carried away by Mr. Longston. Fred Single and Mrs. T. B. Currie were successful in winning the consolation prize, a baby's rattle and a clothes brush, both of undoubted utility.

And that the guests with calm deliberation, as if loathe to leave the scene of merriment and good cheer, bade their host and hostess good night with many expressions of appreciation of their enjoyment of the evening.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames Chas. Evland, Allan Collier, Walter Seidick, W. J. Longston, D. D. Pierce, T. B. Currie, N. N. Neiman, Paul Sterling, Chas. A. Howard, O. C. Sanford, P. B. Phillips, Fred Slagle, J. C. Slagle, T. H. Mehl, H. W. Young, J. W. Lenoze, J. A. Lamb, Mesdames L. H. Hazard, Bert Folsom, Lucia Stratton, Hal Pierce and Miss Hoffman.

Wednesday Club Meets.

Mrs. N. N. Neiman entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Card Club at her home on Maple street this week. The home was gaily with Valentine novelties and a profusion of greens and pussy willows. Miss Allie Phillips won first prize having received high honors. Mrs. Neiman was assisted by Mrs. Archie Walker. At the close of the playing a dainty two course luncheon was served in the dining room, where Mrs. Neiman's mother, Mrs. Longston, assisted.

Those present were Mrs. A. Walker, Mrs. T. B. Currie, Mrs. M. J. Hartson, Mrs. Hal Pierce, Mrs. Ray Jobb, Mrs. Earl Low, Mrs. Longston, Mrs. Thurston, Misses Clara Sherwood, Leta Mast, Maria Young and Allie Phillips.

Valentine Silver Tea.

The ladies of the Home Mission Society of the M. E. Church South gave a "Silver Tea" Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Frank Leslie on Spurgeon Hill. The rooms were aglow with Valentine decorations in red tones, which were effectively combined with winter greens and tall graceful spikes of pussy willow. The weather being bright and sunny, a large number attended and the ladies realized a neat little sum.

Mesdames Marvin Law, E. E. Johnson, M. O. Hawkins, E. M. Noeler and J. S. Lawrence assisted Mrs. Leslie in receiving and serving at the tea tables.

Girls' High School Club.

The C. K. E. Club, which is composed of six of the most popular young ladies in high school circles, was entertained by Miss Barbara Treibler at a 5 o'clock St. Valentine dinner, Wednesday, February 14, at the home of her mother, Mrs. J. B. Treibler. The house was prettily decorated for the occasion with hearts and arrows. The evening was spent in musical numbers and club conversation. The club members made a pledge to meet together on July 30, once during every four years. The members are: Misses Marvel Shoels, Lohas Strong, Edna Robinson, Owendayne Endicott, Ada Downs and Barbara Treibler.

School Notes.

Last Saturday was school day during the high school vacation. The vacation spent the day at the home of Mrs. Longston near Elsie, the decorations were arranged at the Gary home and the Freshman had a party at the W. O. W. hall. All reports are delightful ones.

Plans for the "Lancers" are coming up in due season. The town has been pretty well saturated for advertisements and with excellent results. Some of the material has already been written up and a few of the cartoons have been turned in. The arrangements have been made for individual and class pictures to be made at an early date. Leslie Schroeder as editor-in-chief and Arthur Boston as business manager make a good team and are sure to make the 1917 "Lancers" a success.

Abraham Lincoln's birthday was duly observed throughout the school. The semi-circular plot in front of the school building has been leveled up, and sown to lawn grass. The janitor has several dozen rose cuttings rooting, which are to be put out as a border to the plot within the next week or two. The University has also been requested to send some choice slips for this purpose.

Preparations are already under way for commencement. Dean Strain, of the University, has been invited to deliver the address. Miss Ray and the Girls' Glee Club will furnish the music and about a dozen boys and girls will do their part by accepting diplomas. At an early date the Seniors will select a baccalaureate speaker.

Coquille Lost at the Bay.

The Marshfield High School team Friday night defeated the Coquille team by a score of 20 to 12. The game took place in the gymnasium here and a big crowd was out. On the Coquille floor a few weeks ago the Coquille team gave Marshfield the only defeat which it has met, leaving Coquille with a clean record for victory and last night was the reckoning time.

The first half left Marshfield behind with a score of 10 to 7. Lack of confidence on account of the former defeat may have been the cause. At any rate the second half, fast playing, left the final score in their favor.

The visiting players were: Chas. Oerding, Stanley, Lonsam, Davis, Croach, John Oerding and Eithor, the last two of whom played as substitutes. Marshfield men were: Frank Chapman, Watson, Brown and Vasey. A. Wilson was umpire and J. W. Noble, of Coquille, was referee.

The next game for Marshfield is set for two weeks from last night on the Bandon floor.

The Coquille 7th grade team was here to play the Marshfield 7th grade team in the preliminary game and was defeated by a score of 5 to 9. Coquille players were Briner, Kistner, Furl Woodruff, Varney, Sampson, Lamb and C. Woodruff, the last two of whom were substitutes. The Marshfield boys were: Allen, Patterson, Johnson, Kreitzer and McGinnis with Mirrasoul substituting for Kreitzer in the second half.

Other games with grade school teams are to be played when arrangements can be made.—Coos Bay Times.

Basket Ball Tonight.

The second game on their home floor will be played this evening by the local high school basket ball team with North Bend for their opponents. The loss of the last two games has not dampened their ardor in the least and the boys are determined to make North Bend suffer for their previous losses.

Next Friday evening the Myrtle Point team will meet Coquille on the Masonic Hall floor here.

W. R. C. Notes.

The president of the local W. R. C., Mrs. Georgie Richmond, entertained the officers of that organization at a Valentine Tea, Tuesday, February 12. Place cards were distributed in cups, and each of the eighteen ladies who were the guests found her seat at the table according to her office. To say the occasion was highly enjoyed by all present expresses it but feebly. W. R. C. Press correspondent.

The president of the Relief Corps appointed as a committee to visit the aged and shut-in members, Mesdames Pointer, Barrow, Richmond, Batten, Belleu, Woodruff and Tonier. Last Friday, the 9th, well stocked with refreshments they surprised Aunt Phoebe Drane and enjoyed a very pleasant afternoon. They were pleasantly surprised when Dr. Richmond drove up in his car at the going home hour and took the entire committee to their respective homes. Thanks, Dr.

Last Wednesday the W. R. C. "Good Cheer" committee visited Mrs. Mary Goodman. All present enjoyed a good time, with Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. V. R. Wilson as honorary guests. The afternoon was spent in needle work and a nice lunch was served, Mrs. Pointer and Mrs. Barrow acting as chefs.

Still on Bridge Committee.

Looking back over the Commercial Club records, it is noticed that Feb. 9, 1911, just six years ago, a bridge committee was appointed to agitate for the construction of a bridge here at Coquille. The committee consisted of J. A. Lamb, J. S. Lyons and W. C. Laird, and of the three, Mr. Lamb is the only one still on the bridge committee. He hopes his efforts will ultimately prove successful.

Our offer of four interesting magazines for a year for only 2-bits extra in connection with a Sentinel subscription still holds good.

We still have plenty of these Coquille booklets left. Send them out in your Eastern letters. They are made to fit an envelope.
