Mrs. Collier is Hostess at a Washington's Birthday Party Monday Evening.

The J. A. Collier home on Front street was the scene of a merry Washington's birthday party last Monday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Collier entertained with a three-course dinner at 7 o'clock, followed by a short session of 600.

Favors of carnation and cherry blossoms were handed to the ladies by little Miss Alice, the daughter of the hosts, while red, white and blue high-peaked caps were presented to the gentlemen. There was no prescribed style of wearing the caps and as the jolly throng of over 80 moved out to the dining room, the male guests presented a motley arrangement of head dress altogether picturesque.

Tiny flags served as place cards and these with the caps gave a patriotic appearance to the occasion. The decorations were likewise patriotic. The guests were seated at two long tables, which completely filled the spacious dining room.

When the inner man had been satisfied with the feast of good things, the tables were spread in the living rooms around which the ladies and gentlemen strove to pile up a record score at "500." When the evening's play was completed, Mrs. J. E. Norton was found to have the high score for ladies and was presented with a handsome serving tray. N. N. Neiman received a beautiful deck of cards for making high score among the gentlemen. Mrs. F. B. Phillips and H. A. Young received small George Washington hatchets as consolation for their low scores.

Mrs. T. B. Currie assisted Mrs. Collier in serving.

Those present were as follows:

Messrs. and Mesdames C. E. Evland, H. W. Young, J. A. Collier, J. E. Norton, T. B. Currie, A. J. Sherwood, W. J. Longton, N. N. Neiman, F. B. Phillips, H. A. Young, G. E. Low, Z. C. Strang, P. L. Sterling, and Mrs. Birden Gambell, Mrs. L. H. Hazard, Mrs. Thurston, Messrs. Niblet Hodgman and Bynning and Miss Alice Collier.

Mrs. Howard Entertains.

Mrs. C. A. Howard was charming hostess to the J. G. W. club Monday evening of this week, serving a delicious seven o'clock three course dinner. The rooms were gaily attired in spring blossoms in abundance, daffodils predominating, with violets for favors. Mrs. T. H. Mehl and Mrs. Edward Lorenz each sang several very beautiful solos during the evening. Mrs. W. H. Lyons, Mrs. Hal Pierce, Mrs. C. Slagle, Mrs. J. A. Lamb and Mrs. E. E. Johnson assisted at the serving tables. The evening was delightfully spent in sewing, while some enjoyed cards.

Those seated around the daintily appointed dining tables were: Mesdames A. N. Gould, C. T. Skeels, M. J. Harrison, H. N. Lorenz, J. G. Slagle, Hal Pierce, F. E. McKenna, C. McC. Johnson, J. A. Lamb, W. H. Lyons, E. N. Lorenz, Geo. Lorenz, C. J. Fuhrman, F. S. Slagle, H. N. Butler, E. E. Johnson, T. H. Mehl, O. C. Sanford, Aaron Wilson and Misses. Clare Sherwood and Mary Davenport.

Entertains Past Matrons.

Mrs. William Rose entertained the Past Matrons' Club Friday afternoon of last week and it was a very charming affair. At 5 o'clock the guests were invited to the dining room, where a most delicious chicken dinner was served. The table was very artistic in floral adornment and appointment, a large bowl of pale pink carnations forming the main decoration. The ladies enjoying Mrs. Rose's hospitality were Mesdames Sherwood, Lawrence, Evland, Barrow, Maury, Laird, H. Lorenz, C. Slagle, Lyons, F. Slagle, Lamb, Collier and Pierce.

Mrs. Sanford's Party.

Mrs. O. C. Sanford entertained with two tables of Bridge last Friday evening. Potted hyacinths and hanging baskets of greens and English ivy adorned the rooms, while the dining table was gracefully decked with hyacinths and candlesticks in harmonizing colors. Honors fell to Miss Clare Sherwood. At the close a dainty luncheon was served to Mesdames Howard, Lamb, Sherwood, Fuhrman, F. Slagle, Leneve, E. Lorenz, C. Slagle, Johnson and Miss Sherwood.

In Honor of Mrs. Lafaw.

Mrs. W. J. Longton entertained a number of ladies yesterday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Geo. Lafaw, of Marshfield. There were two tables at Auster bridge and refreshments were served. Those present were: Mesdames Lafaw, Howard, Gould, Neiman, Young, Sanford and Leaton and Miss Marion Young.

Judge Watson Officiating.

At high noon last Monday it was the privilege of the Sentinel scribe to act as an official witness at the marriage of John B. Cochran and Eva Matters, of Lodi, California, the short and effective ceremony being performed by Judge Watson at the court house. After the man had answered "yes" and the woman "I do" to the "do you take" etc. query propounded, standing with their right hands clasped, as they repeated themselves the groom bethought himself of his manifold duty and high privilege, and leaning over to the wife in the chair beside him imprinted a kiss on her lips to seal the covenant which they had taken upon themselves. They will make their home at the Buhner camp at Allegany, where Mr. Cochran is employed as hook tender.

Musical Club Meets.

The musical club consisting of the members of Mrs. M. O. Hawkins' class, met at her home at 4:15 in the afternoon, on Monday. The pupils all enjoyed an interesting discussion of Beethoven's life and composition. Robert Schumann was chosen as the next composer to be studied. Piano solos were rendered by the following members: Harriet Gould, Mary Esther Johnson, Nevia Landreth, Gladys Nosler, Adrienne Gardner, Mary Springer, Camilla Lorenz and Marval Skeels.

Womans' Study Club Meets.

The meeting of the Womans' Study Club last Friday afternoon was greatly enjoyed by all present. As Sentinel readers have already been informed the club is taking a course in home nursing. On this occasion the subjects handled were "bacteriology," "ventilation," "care of fixtures" and "the patient's bed." Readings were given by Mesdames H. W. Young, S. V. Epperson, W. L. Kistner and H. O. Anderson, and each topic was thoroughly discussed. The next meeting will be on March 2.

Here From Nation's Capitol

H. A. Chaplin, of the Bureau of Animal Industry of the Agricultural Department, Dairy Division, of the U. S., with County Agent Smith, has been visiting the dairymen of the Coquille valley the past week and expects to spend a couple of weeks more inspecting dairy and factory conditions and methods in the county. He is working for a standardization of the creamery and cheese factory output; not only a standardization of quality but also of style is one of his aims.

Mr. Chaplin says he can see wonderful possibilities for the dairy business in this section, which when the timber is gone will be our chief industry, but he also notices the great need of development and improvement along all lines to bring the business up to the highest point of usefulness and efficiency.

Cutting 90,000 Feet a Day.

The two mills here were cutting about 90,000 feet a day the first of the week. Now that the switch to the lower mill has been repaired regular shipments are being made from there every few days. The old mill is also shipping a great deal of lumber out by rail, a large part of it on Southern Pacific orders. As yet the logs have not been coming up the river rapidly enough to allow a capacity cut, but Mr. Johnson thinks that in another week they will receive logs as fast as they can use them. Some time next month Crane's camp will begin cutting for the mills here and when they get started there will be from 175 to 200 men employed at the two camps and the two mills here. The payroll for these four crews is going to mean a great deal for the commercial interests of Coquille.

Blaze at Baxter Annex.

About 12:15 Tuesday noon the fire alarm sounded for a blaze that had already been put out by the use of hand extinguishers and a garden hose in the Baxter Hotel annex. A defective fuse caused a blaze to start between the walls, but it was quickly discovered and quenched before doing any damage. The small patent extinguishers hanging in the annex had been there two or three years, but the fireboys found them as effective as if recently recharged.

Friday Night's Basketball.

The heated ball game at the Masonic Hall last Friday night, which was won by North Bend 20 to 14, was not one to be proud of. That Coquille lost was a minor consideration, but that there should be so much "roughing it" was a fact that brought condemnation from some of the game's most loyal supporters. Whoever one started it does not matter. Both teams were guilty, although all members of the teams were not.

North Bend took better advantage of their opportunities and were more successful in basket shooting, while the local five, who made more opportunities for themselves, were unaccountable in carrying them out.

Two Coquille men were laid out, Otto Davis with a sprained ankle and Fred Lorenz with a blow on the head, resulting from a fall, that left him dazed for several minutes.

As usual, the North Bend center this year is a boy head and shoulders over the average player, and this gives that five a tremendous advantage.

The game between the Freshmen and Junior girls of the C. H. S. resulted in a 13 to 2 victory for the Freshies, who completely outplayed their opponents. At that it was a very enjoyable game and afforded the large crowd lots of amusement. Those taking part were:

Freshmen: M. Cunningham, C. Lelia Avery, Barbara Treichler, F. Mildred Norton, Katie Price, F. Doris Tyrrell, Ruby McDonald, G. Katherine Hersey, June Willey, G. Maude Toates.

North Bend the Winner.

The county debate championship was won last Friday afternoon by North Bend when they defeated the Bandon team, getting a unanimous decision. The debate was held in the court house at 1:30 o'clock. The question was: Resolved, That Oregon should adopt a health insurance law embodying the essential features of the "Standard Bill" of the American Association for Labor Legislation. North Bend argued the negative side of the question.

The debaters for North Bend were Horace Byler and Miss Olive Phillips; those for Bandon were Miss Anderson and Miss Gallier. L. A. Liljeqvist and W. A. Reed, of Marshfield, and J. L. Smith, of Coquille, acted as judges. —Bulletin.

Patriotic Program Today.

The pupils of the eighth grade had a very interesting Washington's birthday program at the High School building this afternoon. There were lots of patriotic songs and music, including "America," "Columbia," "Star Spangled Banner," and "The Marseillaise." There was a prologue entitled "The Spirit of Patriotism," pictures and stories of the nation's earliest days and the revolutionary period; the reading of Lincoln's Gettysburg address; and other patriotic numbers concluding with the play "Stars and Stripes." We congratulate both the teachers and pupils on the presentation of a program so excellent and timely.

Several suits have been started in the Circuit court here as a result of the disagreement between O. E. Hill and Charles Murphy, who have been running a store at Bridge for several years under the firm name of Hill & Murphy. A dissolution of the partnership is asked for and the business will probably be placed in the hands of a receiver.
