

Ivanhoe
Roasted Coffee
 Steel Cut
 30 cents pound

SALVO
Steel Cut Coffee
 25c pound

LYONS & JONES
 First National Bank Building

This store is one of those which will observe the 6 o'clock closing hour every evening except Saturday

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS.

Some of our boys are lining up for Uncle Sam's "Front."

W. C. Worley has enlisted for the service and as he is a high grade mechanic, may go to the Navy yards at Mare Island or some other point where scientific men are required.

Lee Ray made a trip to Portland and returns. His niece, Norma Ray, came over with him from Marshfield for a visit with the Ray family.

Percy Peel Tuesday morning threw open his Chop House restaurant doors in his new place in the R. E. Shine block.

Mr. Pruitt, of Bandon, is here with April to "tickle" the soil of his fine ranch next to town. He is a bachelor and his address now is Gen. Del., Myrtle Point.

Ray Garrett made his usual shipment of mixed stock to Marshfield this week and our other stockman, Mr. Carter, planted 9 acres of potatoes.

Since the receiving of the telegram by the Gun and Rifle Club, it has begun to drill. George Toney is drill-master.

One of the telephone young ladies is liable to soon allow herself to be promoted.

Fraser Hoffman, son of Ed Hoffman, driving piles got a splinter in his hand. He came to Dr. Leep and had it removed.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Neil, of Broadbent, had a baby last week. It is a boy, Dr. Pemberton reports.

W. W. Whittington's son had a severe attack of pneumonia. Dr. Pemberton was called. He is reported to be better.

The Federal Farm Loan Association met in J. O. Stemmler's office Wednesday the 11th.

"McKnight," a deaf mute is in town and wants to chop wood. No one seems to know from whence he came.

For Sale or Trade by G. W. Rouse, a registered Shire stallion, 6 years old and 1800 pounds weight. Address Myrtle Point.

Misses Hazel Neal and Helen Whitaker are here from the University for the Easter vacation with their parents.

George Mullen, of North Fork, is troubled with a bunion on his foot. Blood poisoning appeared, the effects extending to the knee. He came in Tuesday to Dr. Clarke, who lanced and otherwise treated it. He is feeling better and has gone home, three miles up on the north slope of Sugarloaf.

Archie Taylor responded to a telephone call from North Bend that his mother was seriously ill the first of the week. He has not yet returned.

The Lester Harrison family will not return to the Siskiyou county, California, as they have bought a fine ranch on the South Fork and with their strong boys and teams will proceed to do some up-to-date farming.

Otto Prey has returned from Southern California, where he has been with his family for better climate. He is pleased to return to our Coquille valley for the season now beginning.

Grover C. Brown is often heard from in the oil district in Kern county, California, and is so pleased with business and country that he will send for Mrs. Brown.

G. W. Rouse, auctioneer. Address him at Myrtle Point. 134

James G. Houser, of Bridge, is down this week on business and gives us many little items of interest on roads, stores, war talk etc.

J. W. Bell, of South Fork, brought in six veals, getting 11 1/2 cents a pound.

Ed Weekley, of Middle Fork, is in this week talking county affairs, roads in particular.

Clarence Kendall, son of Mrs. Coles, has also gone to the "colors," in the navy.

Dr. O. H. Clarke reports the birth of a girl in the family of Frank Strong at Gravel Ford.

"Charlie," the "stock" pussy of the Farmers store has 5 beautiful black and grey kittens, eyes not yet opened. Dr. Gus Dietz has the case.

The last "sold" automobile is the one now in the possession of Wilbur Barklow. As he returns to his farm he takes his Henry Ford machine with him.

Fred Kelley, the Cheff Bros. of San Francisco man, was here this week offering goods and prices that sell goods.

A. D. Beckley, an old acquaintance of N. D. Pratt, the furniture man, was in this week and as he is in the business he sold a lot of chairs.

Leslie Tichenor, (Hans) the useful man in the Guerin Hotel had the extreme pleasure of meeting his wife at the through train from Portland Monday night. They will have their home here.

C. E. Huling is the buyer of another new car, a Buick, J. D., salesman.

One of our best informed "ones" says that the farmers get more from under the ground than above—for instance roots, tubers, etc., as against grain, fruit etc.

Mrs. Lena Beasie is here this week from her home on the Bay side for a short visit with her mother, Mrs. Peter Coles.

Dr. Lester Harrison has returned to that delectable country, Shasta valley, Siskiyou county, California, and says it has the "best climate" in the world. He does not expect to return.

Our Coquille river bridge is in very bad condition. Many people say they are afraid to cross. It has been condemned for a long time and it will soon make a difference in the patronage of our town. People are asking when the new one will be built or what?

Wm. Candlin was in town yesterday, having walked down from Broadbent, as he did not have to wait for the cars. He now sells for the J. W. P. McFall Paper Warehouse, Portland.

Dr. O. H. Clarke's family arrived on Thursday evening's train from Portland, Mrs. Clarke and two small children. They will live in the Hermann residence, corner of 5th and Willow streets.

The day after war was announced the salesman for the Coos and Curry Counties Dairymen's Association, Mr. Giles, made a large sale of cheese to the government.

United States Commissioner E. A. Dodge has received instructions from W. H. Cannon, register, and R. R. Turner, receiver of the U. S. Land office at Roseburg that homesteaders will be protected from contest or cancellation of his entry for failure to make proof during the time they may be in their country's service.

Mrs. Ethel Dodge is in Mercy Hospital this week submitting to a major operation. Report is that the operation was successful.

Al Newman is the street sweeper and scraper in the absence of our "Jim," the marshal, who has been excused for a few days. No booze fighting makes the police service very light.

Miss Dorris, who has taught several schools successfully, has returned to San Jose to complete her course at the California State Normal.

Mrs. W. C. Worley left this week to join her husband at Albany, who has tendered his service to his country.

Among the many who come to Myrtle Point to visit and recuperate, is Mrs. Jess Hatcher, of Powers.

Prof. Jones has returned to his school at Broadbent, though far from well. His sister has returned from her visit to her sister in Oregon City.

Miss Elsie Tiltman will return next week and will occupy the Wilbur Barklow house, taking care of the boarders. Mr. Barklow and family will return to the farm.

Mrs. Drake, wife of the M. E. minister here, with the Misses Mabel Agnes Lundy, Hilda and Gladys Carter, are delegates to the Epworth League convention in Marshfield next Saturday.

The Coquille Hardware Co. has just turned out a twelve hundred gallon tank for the McCloskey Creamery at Norway to be used in getting the last bit of butter from the whey.

Leslie Tichenor, whose wife arrived Tuesday evening, will make his home in one of Mr. Guerin's houses, south of town, and will conduct a chicken business.

Our automobile salesmen could do business if they could deliver the cars. Shortage of railroad cars lengthens the delivery of auto cars.

New Cases in Circuit Court.

April 6—A. B. Daly & Co. vs. Riverton Fuel Co.

April 7—Henry Sengstacken Co. vs. Gustav Warthan. Suit for injunction.

April 10—George A. Robinson vs. Albert W. H. Folsom and Susie Folsom. Suit to foreclose mortgage.

April 10—Bertha A. Helfferstine vs. Grover C. Helfferstine. Suit for divorce.

April 10—C. T. Skeels vs. J. W. Rutledge in person and also as administrator of the estate of Clara E. Rutledge, deceased. Suit in equity to foreclose mortgage.

April 12—Christian Peterson vs. Coos Bay Grocery Co. and Horace T. Byler.

Mother Named as Guardian

The petition for the appointment of a guardian for Marjorie Marian Yoakam and her sisters, Lydia Roberta and Margaret Miriam, in the probate court here came about in this way. On the death of Maria Eliza Lukens, of Metropolis, Illinois, the great grandmother of these children, they inherited small legacies from her. Being minor children of J. A. Yoakam Jr., of Fresno, California, it was necessary to appoint a guardian for them, and as they were here in Coquille with their mother, Mrs. Emma E. Yoakam, to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Lukens, the appointment of their mother as their guardian in the matter of this legacy was necessarily made here.

Golden Wedding Celebrated

With 47 members of their family present, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Clinton celebrated their golden wedding at the Clinton farm near Norway, Sunday. All immediate relatives of the couple were present with the exception of nine grand- and great grandchildren. Mr. Clinton is 69 years of age and Mrs. Clinton is three years younger.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinton were married in Missouri, April 8, 1867, and came to Coos county in the early seventies. At that time they settled on a farm near the Fox bridge above Gravel Ford and here they raised a family of nine boys and three girls, one of the girls dying after she was grown.

The boys, all but one of whom are residents of Coos county, are: Jim, Jesse, Marion, George, Alva, Edward, Samuel, Clarence, and Ray; the girls: Mrs. Dora Schroeder and Mrs. Mary Schroeder.

At the dinner Sunday there were five great grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Clinton. George, the only son living outside of Coos county, came from Orville, California, Saturday especially to be present at the 50th wedding anniversary of his father and mother.—Herald.

Marriage Licenses.

April 7—Elmer Hufford and Ira Middleton.

April 7—Lester Donaldson and Amanda Anderson.

April 7—Arthur P. Rehfield and Kathryn Smith.

April 9—Wm. E. Lingo and Alma Dubuque.

April 9—John Windsor, and Daisy Pearl Shields.

April 10—W. J. Sipple and Mrs. Mary Clemens.

April 11—Thomas W. Freeman and Joanna Metton.

April 12—Hegbert Epperson Quilbaugh and Nannie McNeil.

April 12—Albert V. Johnson and Oriana Montgomery.

April 12—Walter John Wilson and Lyndall V. Gbler.

Who Does These Things In Your Shop?

Are you doing these things by hand or foot power—Why not save the time and energy of your men for more productive work?

G-E MOTORS

are economical aids to greater efficiency and higher production. They occupy little space, require practically no attention and cost nothing when the machines are idle. G-E motors are easily controlled and always ready for instant service.

A talk with our power man will disclose new possibilities in your shop

Phone 71

OREGON POWER CO.

Coquille, Oregon

GET READY for the sunshine and good weather.

Have your car overhauled.

Let us give it the once over and you will enjoy your rides without the fear of breakdowns caused by perhaps a rusty nut or a worn part.

Yours for economy and gook work.

Gardner & Larsen's

We carry Ford Parts

ABSTRACTS

For reliable Abstracts of Title and information about Coos County Real Estate see

TITLE GUARANTEE & ABSTRACT COMPANY

Marshfield and Coquille City, Ore.

Special attention paid to looking after assessments and payment of taxes. Phone Marshfield Office Phone Coquille Office

14J HENRY SENGSTACKEN, Manager 191