Mrs. H. W. Young is going to start by tomorrow morning's train for San Jose, California, to visit her sister, Mrs. C. H. Whitman, who is quite ill.

The continuous showers this week have been fine for the dairy business, but have discouraged the weeds and discouraged the gardeners here in town.

The Breakwater was raided at Portland last week and four members of the crew were arrested and charged with unlawfully having liquor in their possession.

The Epworth League of the M. E. church held their regular business meeting last Monday and afterward enjoyed a social session. About 40 were present.

Sheriff Gage is expected home Saturday with the absconding contest managers who got away with Cameron's roll and were caught at Crescent City, California.

Postmaster Jno. Leneve went down to Leneve postoffice yesterday morning to administer the oath to the postmistress, Mrs. Endicott, and start the office officially.

Wednesday, Guy Kelley, son of N. C. Kelley, enlisted in the U. S. navy as either machinist or electrical engineer. He will go out on Monday to report at Portland.

Marshall Epperson has patched up the broken concrete paving on Second street this week. It gets worse cracked year by year where there is no asphalt covering.

A. M. Scott, of O. A. C., passed through here yesterday morning on his way to Langlois, where he will go to work as tester of the Curry county cow testing association.

H. O. Anderson went to Marshfield Saturday morning to attend the meeting of the teachers association and to do some advertising for the business college which opened yesterday.

J. R. Cunningham, of Oakland, left this morning for the north but expects to return next Tuesday on business connected with the new Pacific Shipbuilding company at Bandon.

The license of Geo. L. Coburn, of Bandon, agent of the Reserve Loan & Insurance Co., has been canceled by the State Insurance Commissioner for misconduct. Coburn recently left Bandon suddenly for parts unknown, leaving his wife behind.

C. McC. Johnson returned Wednesday evening from Bandon, where he spent several days assisting in the details of taking over the Bandon shipyard by the Pacific Shipbuilding Co.

Nels Cushman, of the clerk's office, left Sunday for Southern California where he will visit relatives and friends and gaze at the scenery for a period of two or three weeks.

J. L. Smith's farm census is to be taken tomorrow (Saturday) in every school district in Coos county. It is to be hoped every one will help make the figures as complete as possible.

E. A. Christensen, of the firm of Soden & Christensen, of San Francisco, was in town Tuesday. That firm owns the Prosper mill and are operators of a line of freight steamers.

Hon. A. K. Peck, Coos county's representative in the legislature has gone to San Francisco to the officers training school to fit himself for serving his country in the field most efficiently.

Our former councilman, E. L. Goodman, who left here about a year ago for Butte, Montana, after spending some months there and at Weiser, Idaho, is now located at Gaston in eastern Oregon.

Last Saturday evening Mrs. Frank Burkholder gave a senior party in honor of Miss Ada Downs, who won the prize cup in the Coos County Declamatory contest here recently. Refreshments were served.

The school Declamatory Contest will take place Thursday, May 24; the Baccalaureate sermon will be preached Sunday evening, May 27, and the commencement exercises will be held Tuesday evening, June 29.

The Coosonian May Day dance last Saturday was quite largely attended and the usual good time was enjoyed by all the participants. The band and the Coosonians split about $30 for their respective treasurers.

Walter Dungey, of Gold Hill, visited with his nephew, F. T. Dungey, on Sunday. He arrived in the county Friday and will be employed in the new shipyard at Marshfield to which place he went Sunday evening.

Judge Coka, who adjourned court here last Friday, will be over again next Monday to hold an equity term. In excusing the jury last week he told them he would probably recall them again next week to try one case.

Capt. Panter, for the protection of the Myrtle, has a buoy fastened to the piling on which the boat Chauncey Carpenter was running struck last Monday, but Mr. C. evidently thought it a small piece of driftwood.

Mrs. Emma Lyons, accompanied by Mrs. C. J. Fuhrman, went over to Marshfield yesterday morning to have her teeth removed. Dr. C. W. Endicott going over to do the work while Dr. Houseworth administered the anesthetic.

One of the members of the River-ton school board asks a correction of the item we published last week stating that the former teachers there had been re-engaged for the coming year. He says the positions are still open for any application.

A petition was filed in the probate court last Monday for the appointment of appraisers of the estate of May E. Walker. Harry Walker has been appointed administrator. The estate is estimated at $5,000 real property and $1,000 personal.

Mrs. A. H. Brantley and daughter Dolores, of Eureka, Cal., are visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Jacobsen. Mr. Brantley, who is engaged in the newspaper business in Eureka, expects to come up overland in his machine later and join his wife.

A. J. Sherwood is claiming a world's record for one of his barred Plymouth Rock hens which he gave 20 eggs for a setting along in April and which came off Tuesday with 20 chickens. Who else ever heard of a hen 100 per cent efficient in brooding as many eggs as that?

Jap Yoakam has gone into the live wild animal business as a side line to managing the Powers ranches. As a starter for the collection he caught two cub bears Sunday while on his way down from the Eckley ranch and now has them on exhibition at the local ranch on Cunningham.

The sheriff's office reports the capture at Crescent City, California, of Racey and Weidner, the Agitator contest men who decamped with the funds a week or two ago. Sheriff Gage left Sunday for that place to bring the men back. It is understood they will waive extradition.

M. W. A. Basket Social May 19. All members of M. W. A. and R. N. A. are invited to come and bring three friends. Three prizes of $2.50 boxes of choice candy given away to the ladies. Watch the window cards for details.

Dr. V. L. Hamilton, who has been doing hospital work in Portland for the past six weeks, came in last evening to resume his practice here. While his plans are not settled, he intends to have a completely equipped hospital in operation in Coquille in a few weeks. Mrs. Hamilton will join him here next week.

County Agent Smith has received word that his new assistant, Theo. W. Coleman, will be here in a few days to help in getting the military agricultural campaign under way. Mr. Coleman is one of the most highly regarded students at O. A. C., and Mr. Smith considers himself fortunate in the appointment.

Mr. Downs received a letter this morning from his son, James, who is with the Canadian troops under General Haig in northern France. He had just been allowed a ten days vacation, which he is spending in Paris, as the transports are too busy to be spared to carry soldiers back to England for short leaves.

E. N. Smith, realty operator and investor, of Riverside, California, spent several days looking over his large property interests in this community last week, says the Bandon World. Mr. Smith has just signed up an agreement to build and lease a large warehouse to a southern California firm, which will bring him a rental of $300 a month for a period of ten years.

One of the big Smith mills on the bay is shut down and the other is running with but a partial crew as a result of a strike for higher pay on the part of sixty men working in the sorting sheds of both mills. The men demand $3.00 a day, which the management refuses to pay. The men have been getting $2.50 a day with the promise of a six per cent bonus on November 1.

Keith Leslie, from U. of O., and Hugh Harlocker, from O. A. C., came in Wednesday evening and expect to join the ranks of those who are producing foodstuffs. All young men at the two colleges who would agree to go to farming have been excused. They expect to raise potatoes and beans. They say that men are now a very scarce article around the college campus.

W. S. and Harry Neal came down from Myrtle Point today on business. The latter named gentleman was a Coquille resident several years ago, being connected with the Johnson meat market in this city, and is now in this section looking for a suitable location for a big stock ranch in which his brother and Ed. Lyman will be interested with him. They have not yet found just what they want but have not given up hopes.

Nonda Anderson, formerly of this place, and who has been engaged in the logging business down the river for several years, brought up two cows of equipment from the Bear Creek logging road Saturday and shipped it over to the bay. The material was consigned to the North Bend Lumber Company and will be used at their Davis Slough camp. Practically all the Bear Creek road is now torn up and on the dock ready for shipment, but only a small part will be shipped to the bay at this time.

Big Damage Suit Possible.
It is suggested that a suit for heavy damages may be brought against the Commission of the Port of Coquille River on account of the drowning of three members of the Carpenter family last Monday. The sawed off piling along the river bank which is submerged at this season forms a death trap which is made more dangerous by the swift current caused by confining the river in that way. In this connection attention is called to the fact that this port was formed to protect the timber owners of the upper forks from having to pay taxes in a real Port, and that this fatality was due to that sort of parsimony. Two ports on this river are an anomaly.

Honor Guard Dance Saturday.
The girls of the Honor Guard have been meeting with fine success in selling tickets for the dance tomorrow (Saturday) evening. The cause is a worthy one. The Honor Guard is doing a patriotic duty in preparing for whatever call may be made on them, and there are necessary expenses which must be met. The proceeds from the dance will go to their treasury to meet these expenses. And more than that they offer an opportunity for an evening's enjoyment. Gage's orchestra will furnish the music and all the preparations indicate a most pleasant affair.

The cannery at Wedderburn this week shipped over 700 half cases and over 400 full cases of salmon, put up since the salmon season opened. A steady and fair run of fish continues, and the cannery is in operation daily. —Gold Beach Reporter.

Another Pioneer Passes On.

As news last Friday, May 4, Henry William Holverstott, of Fairview, breathed his last, after an illness of several weeks. He was 82 years, 10 months and 16 days old, having been born in Marietta county, Ohio, June 18, 1835.

The funeral services were held Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Fairview cemetery, being conducted by Rev. Thomas Barlow, of Myrtle Point. There was a large attendance at the funeral, a couple of autos going from here with friends and brother-in-laws.

In 1852 Mr. Holverstott removed to the Pacific coast, locating in California, where he remained for nearly twenty years. He then came to Oregon and resided in the Willamette valley for two years. It was there that he was married to Miss Teresa Hawley, of Yamhill county.

May 25th, 1875, they came to Coos county and took a homestead out at Burton Prairie, or Fairview as it is now known, where they have ever since resided.

Nine children were born to this union, three dying in infancy. Besides his wife, he leaves six sons, all of whom live near Coquille or at Fairview. They are John J., Homer V., Robert J., Charles A., Elmer and Harry H. He also leaves two sisters, one living in Lane county, Oregon, and another in San Francisco.

Thirty years ago he united with the Christian church and he has also been a member of the Masonia order for years.

At various times in his life Mr. Holverstott has entered into mining stampedes but always without becoming permanently engaged in that pursuit. He was one among the first Alaska miners, venturing to that bleak country after he was sixty years of age. He also visited the Santiam river country during one of the rushes there and has done considerable prospecting in the Curry county mountains. Several years ago he had a desire to visit Mexico with the idea of locating there but was dissuaded by his family and friends.

Mr. Holverstott always took an active interest in Coos county affairs and until prevented by advancing years was one of the most prominent farmers of this section.

In his passing Coos county loses one of her most highly esteemed citizens. The family have the heartfelt sympathy of a large circle of friends and acquaintances in this bereavement.

Card of Thanks.

For the assistance and sympathy tendered us in such full measure by our neighbors and friends during the illness and after the death of our husband and father we desire to express our sincere thanks. Mrs. Teresa Holverstott, John J. Holverstott, Homer V. Holverstott, Robert J. Holverstott, Charles A. Holverstott, Elmer Holverstott, Harry H. Holverstott.

Cracks Knee Cap on Bicycle.

Miss Ada Newell, of the High School faculty, suffered a painful injury last Friday morning when her bicycle got out from under control and threw her off, breaking her knee cap. She and Miss Pauline Chase had been out on the Myrtle Point road for an early morning spin and returning about six o'clock, were coming down the hill toward the Collier bridge when she lost control and the wheel headed for the rail. Fortunately Miss Newell's skirts caught on a post or she would have gone to the bottom of the ravine. But when the wheel stopped in some way the handle struck her knee in such a way as to break it. She attended to her duties at school that day and it was not until Saturday that it was learned she had fractured it. Since then she has been wheeled to the high school in a chair.

Preachers Drag River.

Rev. T. H. Downs and Rev. H. M. Law went up the river yesterday morning in the latter's boat and spent the day searching for the body of Mrs. Carpenter, dragging the river for nearly a quarter of a mile. Fifteen or twenty other boats were there engaged in the same work and volunteer divers took turn in using the diver's suit that had been procured—but all without result. Among others from Coquille who were up there were Z. C. Strang, O. A. Mintony and Mr. Mockler.

Do "Your Bit"

If there are reasons which prevent you from taking the most active part in the support of our country in the crisis we are now facing, you can still do "your bit" in some valuable capacity.

The enlistment of thousands of men in the fighting corps will and has necessarily created a tremendous demand for clerical help of every kind. The Civil Service is calling for help. Examinations are being made daily and will continue for months to come. The Government is urgently in need of both MEN and WOMEN in clerical capacities. Business men throughout the Nation are inconvenienced for lack of trained help.

A few months in this school will qualify you for these duties and will prove a most valuable asset during your entire life.

Think it over. Enroll today.

Mine for Sinaloa Here.

Frank Johnston, who has been spending the winter in the Sixes river mining district in Curry county, was a caller Wednesday. He talks very optimistically of the future of that section and thinks all that it needs to bring it to the front as one of the best producers in the country is plenty of capital and first class mining engineers.

He says that Mr. Thomas is making a success of the former Divalbiss mine; that the Inmans are coming in with a $25,000 equipment and that Alexander Waldschmidt and others from Douglas county have opened a fine vein of quartz on the north side of the South Fork, containing gold running as high as $100 a ton.

Mr. Johnson has considerable mining and timber interests in Mexico on the western slopes of the Sierra Madre in the state of Sinaloa, from which he was driven about a year ago by the Villistas, and to which he expects to return when conditions become settled in that section.

He is familiar with the mineral wealth along the Yaqui river and considers it one of the richest undeveloped sections to be found anywhere. The trouble there is that the Yaqui Indians have possession and won't allow anyone to go to work and develop it under any conditions. They know the gold is there and they don't intend to let it get away from them.

Flour Up to $14 a Barrel.

Flour went up $1.50 per barrel in Portland yesterday and the corresponding price here would be over $14 a barrel and about $3.75 a sack. Yet the Busy Corner continues to fight the high cost of living by selling it at $10 a barrel or $2.50 a sack, when it might have made from $2 to $4 a barrel by sitting tight. Such care for the customers' interests on the part of the Coquille Mercantile company ought to be remembered and appreciated.

Corral the Chickens.

City Attorney Stanley asks the Sentinel to call attention to a little matter many people seem to have forgotten. With gardens just beginning to come up in fine shape it becomes necessary to enforce the ordinance against chickens running at large. Neither the mayor nor the city attorney want to cause anybody any inconvenience or subject them to fines and penalties; but somebody is pretty sure to get into trouble if the chickens are allowed the recreation of scratching in neighbors' gardens. Shut them up by all means.

Beginning May 1, the charge for car storage at the Gardner & Larsen Garage will be $3 per month, 25 cents for a single night.
