

Picnic and Fishing Parties

Will find a splendid assortment here of "just the things" to take for dinner. Note the tempting list of canned goods. No danger of dirt or dust:

- Ripe Olives.....25c jar
- Stuffed Olives.....15c jar
- Green Olives.....25c jar
- Deviled Olives.....15c jar
- Potted Ham.....25c can
- Chicken Loaf.....25c can
- Meat Treats.....25c can
- Limberger Cheese.....25c can
- Roqueford Cheese.....25c can
- Tru-Blu Cookies.....35c lb.

Fine assort't of sweet and sour Pickles in bottles.

LYONS & JONES
First National Bank Building

The Mortgage Lifter

An electric motor can lift anything. Let us tell you how

G-E Electric Motors

are lifting mortgages off hundreds of farms throughout the country.

Let us help lift your mortgage. We will furnish the motors and also the power to run them.

OREGON POWER COMPANY
Phone 71 Coquille, Oregon

HELP END THE WAR
Make YOUR subscription to the Liberty Loan through this Company or your bank.
DO IT NOW

Powers-Myrtle Point Auto Stage

C. W. GARDNER, Manager

LEAVE	LEAVE
Culver's Confect'ry	Guerin Hotel
POWERS	MYRTLE POINT
7:00 A. M.	7:00 A. M.
10:00 A. M.	10:00 A. M.
1:00 P. M.	1:00 P. M.
4:00 P. M.	4:00 P. M.

Charter Trips Anywhere, Any Time

We are here to accomodate You; command Us

Phone Calls

MYRTLE POINT, 1161 COQUILLE, 463
POWERS, Culver's Confectionery,
Telephone Booth

Does Your Subscription Date Need Changing?

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS

A letter from the Chas. Broadbent family tells of an automobile trip towards the mountains 80 miles from their home in Kings county. They went up till they came to the snow line, found beautiful wild flowers and killed a "rattler" with 17 rattles.

We are pleased to tell you to put another subscriber on your list. He wants the news as told in the Sentinel.

Chas. Fensler of the Powers "Hub" was here last week.

Joe Laird and family, who have been with us for the last 12 years, have returned to their ranch near Bridge. Joe made the best mail stage time on record between this place and Roseburg.

S. N. Albee, while moving Pratt's piano, got under it and since has been on the bed and on crutches and now after several weeks is just beginning to get "sassy."

Tracy and Bryant today did fight. Just to know which one is right; But were pulled from each away, And "live to fight another day."

There are two weddings scheduled for the near future and though we'd like to, we can't tell before next week.

There were more than 1500 Rebecas at the Assembly in Eugene last week and delegates report that they had a good time without the Isaacs.

Lewis Furrows, principal of our Grammar school, has taken a position with the Smith-Powers logging people until he is called to the Colors. He is a member of the National Guard, and besides has other interests to guard.

Mrs. Pearl Goodman passed away last Friday and the funeral was held Sunday in the Latter Day Saints church, Rev. Mr. Baker officiating. The Woman's Relief Corps, of which she was a member, also attended. The interment was made in Catching creek cemetery where other relatives are buried.

Mrs. L. S. Roberts, of Middle Fork, was in town Saturday.

H. A. Todd, of Arago, was in Saturday and says if there is not more safety in crossing the river at Myrtle Point soon and better roads there will not be much trading here from his section.

Mrs. Mamie Sanders, who went to Portland with her two children, has returned and will be employed as housekeeper by the W. T. Dement family at their ranch on South Fork.

Ray Swan, son of G. G., has returned from Chular, Cal., where beans are raised by acreage—farms of 200 and 300 acres are common this year. He was there nine months. He went from here to Shasta county but could not see as much there as some others do and so moved on and is now pleased to be home and has a smile that "won't come off."

Milt Lee, who has been conducting the Spencer & Shelley store at Powers, came down last week to see his family and say farewell to wife and daughter, who will leave by the next steamer for Honolulu. The daughter is to meet her affianced and the mother will accompany her and return after a short stay. Mr. Lee also attended the High School commencement exercises Saturday evening when his daughter, Miss Hazel, received her diploma. Mr. Lee is chairman of our school board.

Mrs. Allison Roberts has disposed of her bread store to her father-in-law, J. H. Roberts.

On the evening of the 24th as the through train was passing Johnson's, called Gilman's sink hole, a man threw a rock through the car window, bits of glass striking a passenger in the face. The section boss examined the place and found where the party stood waiting for the train. The print of shoes was about No. 9 men's.

Ray Stevens returns this week to his old job as fireman on one of the Smith-Powers logging locomotives in the mountains.

Prof. Jones, of Broadbent, was here for the commencement exercises and the Sunday Memorial service.

A man in town from the North Fork Sunday talked much on the street and said he had more respect for the Kaiser than for our President Wilson and there are others "tainted." Victor Stevens has also gone to the place where there is plenty of good work, pay and grub—Powers' logging camps.

A man from Norway says, "We are doing nothing now but planting beans and spuds."

Henry Knight who has been promoted to driving the auto truck, continues to say "go on," "Whoa," etc., and it goes—when he touches it properly.

Fin Mast is with Spencer & Shelley store while the senior Shelley is at their store in Powers.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Huntley passed away Monday morning. The cause is said to be rheumatism. Rev. Thos. Barklow conducted the funeral services.

Lee Wagner, the eldest son of the late John Wagner, will move with his

NOW IS THE TIME TO Eat Oranges

Other fruits are scarce now, but those sweet Naval Oranges are at their best. Not expensive.

Per dozen, 25c
Two dozen, 45c
Three doz., 60c

Feed them to the kiddies
Eat them yourself

The season for the sweet ripe fruit is nearly over. Don't miss the opportunity to enjoy this wholesome fruit.

Our Prices on Canned Goods still remain at the low mark of last year

- | | |
|---|-----------------------------------|
| Standard Tomatoes.....10c | Good Calif. Peaches.....15c |
| Solid pack Tomatoes,
2½ lb. tins.....2 for 25c | Matches, per box.....5c |
| Solid pack Tomatoes,
3 lb. tins.....15c | Carnation Milk, 2 cans.....25c |
| Iowa Corn.....10c | Laundry Soap, per bar.....5c |
| New York Corn.....2 for 25c | Fancy Calif. Rice, per lb., 6½c |
| Fancy Maine Corn.....15c | Post Toasties, per pkg.....10c |
| | Salt Pork, in brine, per lb., 25c |

Busy Corner Grocery

Front and C Streets Coquille, Oregon
Phones 691 and 541

family down from Powers and manage the farm for his mother, three-quarters of a mile south of town.

The Roman Catholic Chapel, Car is here on the track and the priest with a helper is making a house to house canvass. If there were more Catholics here we would have a more regular supply of fish on Friday.

The several trips to Portland by E. A. Dodge have been made in his capacity as U. S. Commissioner—taking dispositions.

Robert Muir, of North Fork, has received a telegram from Nebraska of the extreme illness of his sister.

The last proposition the Myrtle Point Commercial Club has attacked is the cemetery, taking time by the forelock as it were.

W. E. Lewellen renews his subscription to the Coquille Valley Sentinel. He says he wants the Myrtle Point news as told in this paper.

The Agricultural Preparedness committee is very busy this week picking up stray lots and dropping in to them sundry kinds of good seeds.

G. S. Floyd, who has been here for several years and served as house-mover, carpenter, cement worker, wood dealer, etc. is this week moving with his family to Gaylord on South Fork.

Bransen Bros., of Big creek, took out a new Mitchell wagon Tuesday. The senior Bransen is with us this week for Memorial services.

R. A. Annin went to Coquille Tuesday to attend the convention of Coos county bankers there.

The Pacific Drug Company has gone somewhat into the stock business—thorough-bred poultry and milk goats. The latter while they may not be registered are all the same some "Butters."

Dr. Pemberton reports a boy of 7 lbs. weight at the home of Joe and Mrs. Evernden, of Rock Creek. This occurred last Saturday.

Harry Mullen, son of George, while working with his father getting out ship knees near Gravel Ford, cut his leg severely with an axe—severing an artery and nicking the bone. Those present had much trouble staunching the blood until the arrival of the Doctor—Pemberton.

John Mumford, of Hall's Creek, quite an old man, fell and injured his abdomen. Dr. Pemberton, who has just returned says he is somewhat better. He was badly hurt.

We have a letter from the Ellison-

White Chatanqua people announcing a stronger program than they have before offered. As there is a limited number of tickets for sale it will be well to get tickets early.

School is out and many of the pupils are scattered and some of the teachers. The superintendent, Mr. Morris, will return for next term. Mr. Smith and Miss Watkins have gone to their homes. Mr. Furrone will now get ready for the "greatest event in any man's life."

Letters from Mrs. Dr. Wetmore state that her son, who was known as a school boy here, has had a severe illness. His name is Arthur. He was injured in a football game. She sent him to California but the climate was not better for him. Dr. Byron E. Miller is his physician. A major surgical operation was performed, removing one of the kidneys which was four times larger than normal. He is in Portland and is slowly improving. Their present home is in Milwaukee, Ore. Mrs. Wetmore expects to be here about the first of June to look after business interests and see friends.

Thomas A. Brack, Edward J. Lemanski and Warren Bryant appeared before U. S. Commissioner E. A. Dodge making application for reduction in area of improvement on their homesteads.

The rain seems to be over but there will be a shower at Aunt Annie Barklow's this week to express the goodwill of the friends of Miss Lottie Reckman who will soon change her lot in life.

Jason Machado has made a big improvement on his property at the corner of 7th and Spruce streets. There are many other old fences in town that are neither ornamental nor defensible.

Tony Barklay, 11 years old, son of Mrs. Barklay of the Club Cafe, now that school is out, takes a position for the summer on the Smallwood ranch, milking cows, etc.

Mr. Christensen, the cheese man, is installing the paraphernalia with which to extract the last bit of butter from the whey. The 10,000 pound tank and other material cost about $500.00

Rev. James Vernon, of the Presbyterian church here, returns this week from Dallas, Texas, where he has been attending the General Assembly.

Jim Clinton and Pink List are among the very busy people of this vicinity—ironing out the wrinkles and lumps in the road and each section wants theirs first. P. W. came home in the rain wet to the skin but as usual was up and at it again, though he had to go to bed feeling disabled.

Coos and Curry County Fair will be Sept. 13-14-15 and will be bigger than ever. A new feature the secretary says will be added—a sales day. The forenoon of the last day of the Fair. No stock will be offered except that which is entered as contestants for prizes and has stood the tuberculin test.

The High School commencement exercises were as follows: Class Motto was, "Non Vespera sed mane." Class colors, Blue and White. Class flower, Carnation. Class roll, Mary Jane Smalley, Kay Armstrong Leep, Hattie Bell Wyland, Flentge Armston Perkins, Lottie Borraine Rickman, Harold Paul Drake, Fairy Elizabeth Davis, Thomas Verl Johnson, Florence Edna Hall, William Dewey Christensen, Hazel Marilla Lee, Chester I. Root, Ina Sumerlin, Ella May Hamlin, Ruby Irene Burr and Stella Evangeline Barklow. Class officers were: Thomas Very Johnson, President; Kay Armstrong Leep, Secretary; and Elva Lucyle Green, treasurer.

Barton Stemmler, about 10 years old, is organizing a (junior, of course) military company. He has already demonstrated his ability as an agriculturist.

Memorial day was appropriately observed here. The "old soldier" gentlemen who were present were, Hatcher, Graham, Billings, Mullen, King, Hermann, Huling, Brownson, Edicott, Arnold, and Buell. At 10 a. m. they did not walk as formerly but went to the cemetery by automobile where after the usual ritual exercises, the G. A. R. graves were decorated with flowers of which Myrtle Point always has a profuse supply in season. In the afternoon an unusually fine program was rendered. Mr. Geo. Tonney presided. A picked choir sang, children recited and then we had one of the finest addresses ever given by Honorable Binger Hermann, who for many years was our member of Congress. After expressing proper acknowledgement of those who served in the Civil war he spoke of the problems for us today and left no doubt in the minds of his audience of the correctness of our position in this war. That until Kaiserism, Prussianism, is down and out of their present estimation of themselves, we cannot put up our weapon of war.