WHERE THE CAMPERS GO.

Out where the skies are a little bluer Where comradeship is a little truer, There's where the campers go.
Out where the sun shines a little brighter, Where the cares of life are a great deal lighter, Where the bonds of truth are a wee bit tighter,
There's where the campers go.
Out where heart-throbs are a little stronger, Where the sands of life run a little longer,
There's where the campers go.
Out where character is in the making, Where there's more of giving and less of taking,
Where there are more hearts joyful and fewer hearts aching,
There's where the campers go.

Out where the breeze is softly blowing,
Where the murmuring stream is gently flowing,
There's where the campers go.
Out where life is much less trying, Where there's more of laughing and less of crying, Where there's more of living and less of dying,
There's where the campers go.

Dollar-McLeod.

The marriage of James A. Dollar, of Vancouver, B. C., and Miss Flora McLeod, of Bandon, took place in Portland last Wednesday evening; and following a short stay in the Rose City and at Seattle the newlyweds will repair to Vancouver to make their future home.

Mrs. Dollar is the daughter of Mrs.
Mary McLeod, of this city, and for the past two years had been chief operator at the local telephone exchange. She was popular among the younger set and has hosts of friends here who wish her a long and happy married life.

Mr. Dollar is nephew of Robert Dollar, of the Dollar steamship, lumber and allied interests. He was formerly stationed at Bandon in charge of the Dollar company interests on the Coquille—Bandon World.

Mr. Dollar is a brother of Mrs. F.
S. Shimian, recently of this city.

They Cleared $140.

The Honor Guard girls wish the Sentinel to acknowledge for them their obligation and express their sincere thanks to all who aided them in making their Red Cross Benefit dance last Saturday night the big success it was. The members of the Coquille Orchestra donated their services, the merchants would take no pay for anything the girls needed, Mr. Nosler gave the use of the hall, the punch was furnished without charge, thanks to E. A. Folsom and Mrs. Fay Jones.
C. W. Gardner furnished the cars and the printer did his bit without compensation. For all of which the girls are very grateful. They cleared something over $140, which goes to make up their $250 contribution to the Red Cross fund.

Bunch-Brown.

At the home of Walter Moore, Union Avenue, North Bend, on the evening of July 2nd, James W. Bunch and Susan Brown, both of Beaver Hill, were united in matrimony by Rev. H.
F. White, of the United Brethren church.

The bridegroom is well known in this section, having worked for many years in Coos county, while the bride also has many friends, who will wish the couple every success in their new life.

After a short honeymoon, the couple will make their home at Beaver Hill for several months and will later proceed to their ranch on the upper Siuslaw.—Coos Bay Times.

Marshfield Waking Up.

Marshfield is beginning to sit up and take notice of the numerous infractions of the prohibition law there, as appears from the following report of a meeting there last Sunday night, which we found in the Times:

Severe criticism of present methods in curtailing bootlegging offenses for their failure to get results was made by Senator I. S. Smith at the union meeting at the Marshfield Battist Church Sunday night in the discussion of bootlegging in which District Attorney J. F. Hall, City Attorney Jaa. T. Brand, and Sheriff Gage also took part.

Senator Smith's accusation of inefficiency in prevailing methods of dealing with violations of the liquor law was most direct. Taking of liquor from boats without making arrests, was assailed by him. No action when it is known that booze is taken from boats in the lower bay, and the refusal of the grand jury to indict those convicted of offenses in the municipal courts on the ground that they had been sufficiently punished in the municipal courts, came in for rounds of criticism.

The arrest without warrant of the captain of a ship upon which liquor was found was advocated by Senator Smith, as a means of reducing the importation of the goods via steamship.

That the officers of the law were doing the best they could under existing conditions, that better results were hoped for, that hearty co-operation and support from all citizens was desired and expected were the gist of the remarks by District Attorney Hall and Sheriff Gage who spoke at the opening of the meeting.

City Attorney Brand followed with an explanation of what had been accomplished in Marshfield, that more than $1700 had been taken in, in fines since the first of the year through in-fractures of the bone-dry law. He also recounted that among sundry arrests in the city, 13 boot-leggers had been taken, 12 of whom were convicted and one acquitted.

Teachers Get Certificates.

Superintendent Baker announced yesterday that Coos county schools had so far exceeded all previous records in eighth grade graduates and that there would be still further augmenting of the number in September. With the June list, which comprises fifty-six names, there have been 290 graduated this year. Of this number 100 were graduated in January, 124 in May and 56 in June. The June list are those who were conditioned in the May examinations. Following is the list of names of the June graduates, the papers for which Notes About the Schools.

Twenty-two teachers took the examinations at the court house last week and their papers have been sent to the board of examiners at Salem for grading. Of this number there were 14 applicants for one-year certificates, two for five-year certificates and one for five-year primary certificates. The other five were taken for exemptions only.

The following teachers have been reappointed for the coming school year: Miss Esther L. Byerly, Alle-gany; Misses Nettie and Lena Belloni, Prosper; Mrs. Ethel Miller, principal, Lakeside; Miss Elma M. Roberts, Fairview; Miss May Lund, Norway; Miss Wanda Harry, McKinley; Mrs.
Grace Delmore, Sumner; Miss Anna Sollie, District 30; and Miss Katherine Schmitt, Buell. The following teachers have been engaged for the coming year: Miss Ruby Goodnight, Lampa; Miss Clara Heller, Cunningham; Miss Louise Clausen, lower Lloyd, principal Prosper. Miss Hazel Radabaugh recently began a term of school at the Bald Hill school on the North Fork and Mrs. Laurence V.

Root, Pleasant View.

The new school houses at Eden No 70 and at Upper Two mile are nearing completion and will be occupied soon by summer schools which are now being conducted in those districts. One of the directors of the latter district claims they have the finest one-room building in the county.
