

REDUCED EXCURSION FARES

WEEK END FARES on sale Saturdays and Sundays between all stations Cushman to Powers and Bandon inclusive. Return limit following Monday.

SPECIAL SUNDAY FARES. Round Trip Tickets, at very low fares, will be sold on Sundays only, between all stations Marshfield to Powers inclusive, limited to date of sale.

Ask your local agent for tickets and further information.

JOHN M. SCOTT, General Passenger Agent, Portland.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC LINES

The T. S. Townsend Creamery Co.

are not STRANGERS or NEWCOMERS in the state of Oregon, far from it. Mr. T. S. Townsend was one of the first men to operate a cheese factory in COOS COUNTY, and has done as much for the dairy interest in your state in the last thirty years as any one man, or company, now in the business. We are paying large sums of money to the dairymen in Coast counties daily, and in order to be able to handle your cream satisfactorily we have established a permanent branch at Coquille and are paying SPOT CASH for butter fat at the very top prices F. O. B. Coquille, NOT PORTLAND. NO CHARGES WHATSOEVER AFTER THE CREAM LEAVES OUR PLACE. Give us a trial shipment and be convinced.

T. S. TOWNSEND CREAMERY CO.
Phone 161 Coquille, Oregon.

Mr. DAIRYMAN

We wish to announce that we are operating your own HOME CREAMERY and have spent much time, effort and money getting it equipped with the best of everything that we might best serve your interests. We are giving the same honest weights and tests we always did and prompt cash payments. We have the same competent buttermaker as ever and IF DESIRED Henry Belloni will receive your cream and Pay Spot Cash for EVERY Delivery at the very highest price for butterfat.

We Pay Portland Prices

at our plant AT COQUILLE. YOU PAY NO EXPRESS TO PORTLAND ON BUTTERMILK. You get your buttermilk back from us free. Do business with your home creamery whose money is invested in your home country.

COQUILLE VALLEY CREAMERY

Coquille, Oregon.

Items From Arago.

J. H. Schroeder will begin their new bungalow next Monday.

Ralph Schroeder and family leave Wednesday morning for an outing at Port Orford.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Britten and family and Floyd Reed will take a trip to Portland Sunday in Mr. Reed's car.

Clarence Schroeder and family and Florence Robison will start the first of the week for St. Martin's Spring to be gone about three weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Schroeder, Mrs. Annie DeLong, Mrs. Emily Schroeder and Leslie Schroeder returned Sunday night from a week's trip to Shasta valley, California, stopping one night with J. S. Root and family. They went as far as Eureka, and were delighted with the trip and pleased with the country they passed through.

Salmon Carnival at Gold Beach.

The Fisherman's Union at Gold Beach, Curry county, have decided to hold a Salmon Carnival on August 30-31 and Sept. 1. There will be a big feed and a big program of sports. The dates are so near that it may enable people going in from the outside to "make" the Port Orford "Agate Carnival" and the Gold Beach "Salmon Carnival" on the same trip.

Calling cards 100 for $1.00.

Call on us for Stationery.

MYRTLE POINT ITEMS.

Miss Ruth Sauer, of Powers, is the latest girl on the telephone force. We have not yet learned her voice.

The Latter Day Saints will hold their Annual Reunion as usual this season beginning August 24, in Myrtle Point.

Its wonderful how many and from how far the farmers come into Myrtle Point in the evening, bringing a neighbor, to do their shopping and enjoy the ride, resting after the day in the field.

W. H. Dancer received a queen bee last week from Dr. Miller, the big bee man in Mississippi. You should see the bees walk all over Mr. Dancer. He likes the little brutes.

Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Neidigh, their two sons, and Mrs. Sigby left in their own machine last week for California and Nevada, taking in Shasta Valley on the way.

Big timbers are being hauled from here to the Gravel Ford bridge—40 feet in length and 7x14.

A lawsuit which lasted all day occurred here last Wednesday. E. F. Wyatt sued Willis Oddy for account before Judge Dodge, the attorneys being Schibrede and Stanley respectively. The jurors were Tom Guerin, J. D. Barklow, Henry Schroeder, Frank Henderson, E. Snyder and Sam Bruer. A verdict was found for the plaintiff for $20.58.

Mrs. E. F. Sly has returned from her visit in California.

No pavement contracts were let at the last council meeting for the reason that the bids were much higher than former work was done for. They will again ask for bids as certain blocks need it very badly.

Ben Alston and family have driven all the way from Baker City, having to make a long detour to the south as they started in May and there was snow in the mountains. This country looks beautiful to them and they will stay if we can locate them.

We are sorry to lose Mr. Vernon, the Presbyterian minister here, but Mrs. Vernon's health requires a higher altitude, so Mr. Vernon has accepted a pastorate at Minturn, Colo. He will be succeeded by Rev. L. M. Anderson, of Merrill, Ore. This change will occur about Sept. 1.

W. D. Lavina, of Cottage Grove, is the new man in the Myrtle Point Enterprise work with Mr. C. Milton Schulz. He and family live in the Perkins house on Fourth street.

Clarence Fish and wife are here from Portland in their own car. They are accompanied by their mother, Mrs. Tom Wilson, who is met by many friends. Mr. Fish is an auto expert machinist when at work.

Albert Schroeder, of Norway, is also an importer of new Jersey stock—two cows.

O. Helwig, of Ashland, is another man here to look at our country. What he found out is that the farmers want to keep the land. There is a reason. The farmers pay their grocery bills with checks.

In Myrtle Point the mail matter put in the postoffice after 7 p. m. does not get out on the next train—6 a. m. next morning—because the boys have no time to cancel the stamp. "That was why."

Mr. and Mrs. O. D. Flentge, of Parkfield, Cal., are here with their two children visiting a sister, Mrs. N. G. W. Perkins. They came in their own car and got tired and dusty.

Ben Winqvist this week welcomed his mother and sister from St. Paul, Minn. They next day went to Powers by first train where Mr. Winqvist has business.

George Stuart and family like others have gone by automobile to California for recreation and expansion.

F. L. Collins has just returned from a trip in his good "Dodge" after visiting every important place in Wash., and his machine looks fine. And now he says, "Send me the news—the Coquille Sentinel."

Miss Fairy Davis commences her school on Catching Creek Sept. 3.

Henry Schroeder, of Berry & Schroeder, exhibits the finest cut flowers, "dahlia's." He calls them cactus, decorative and show dahlia's. See them in the store.

We saw Ben Tracy putting up a Farm truck in Pearce's garage. It is represented to do everything that horses and truck can do except eat hay.

Mr. Schoenstin and friends from Akron, Ohio, have returned after having taken in by auto all the interesting adjacent points on the coast of Coos and Curry counties. Rheumatism up and down the back, caused them to hurry to get back.

Loren Knight now carries a certificate which authorizes him to be a good doctor, chauffeur, mahout or driver of any automobile to which he is properly attached.

E. L. Ellis and family, of Nebraska, passed through here this week, coming by way of Roseburg and going to the coast.

Miss Margaret Metlin, of North Platte, Nebraska, is here during her vacation enjoying a visit with the Neidigh family. She fills a clerical position at home.

Metars. Wagner and Gant, young men of the South Fork, are off to Josephine county to hunt deer. They are also otherwise interested over there. Stirling Wagner says her name is Miss Rose. Jake Gant is not so confiding.

L. F. Neidigh is in this week before U. S. Commissioner E. A. Dodge to make the necessary affidavits for partial reimbursement for a cow the effect of condemned as unhealthy.

Gus Bender, the Broadbelt merchant, is in this week. Business is good and crops look well.

Antone Jacobson is here from Powers and is painting the roof of the Rexall store building. Mr. Jacobson has been with the S. P. Logging Co., building railroad toward Eden.

F. E. Martinez and family, of Fresno, are touring the coast in their automobile. He says we look nice in summer.

Rev. Mr. Drake, minister of the M. E. church, has been granted a two weeks' vacation and so with his family has gone to Bandon-by-the-Sea.

A. D. Hall and family, of Idaho, are occupying the Tom Wilson house on Maple street.

George Fairchild, of Powers, has this week returned from Shasta Valley, Cal. He bought a 40 acre tract and the country he said looked good in summer with great crops of alfalfa cut and growing. He got improved land and will continue in the lumber camp until it is all paid for.

Meedames Lane and Ingalls, whose homes are on C and Fairview streets left for California Tuesday, going by way of Roseburg. Mrs. Ingalls to visit her son in Santa Clara and Mrs. Lane her relatives in San Francisco and San Jose. Messrs. Ingalls and Lane will remain and care for the cats and plants—Oh! three or four weeks.

Mrs. Sam Johnson, of Bandon, wheeled up from Bandon Wednesday with her two children, Ila and Leo. Mrs. Alfa McNair and son and Mrs. Larry Guerin also came in the car. Mr. Johnson is one of the furniture dealers in Bandon.

Lloyd Jarvis, one of Jerry Haines' grandsons, left to join the colors. Lloyd is liable to be creditably heard from wherever he goes.

Mr. Henry Bryant and children went up to Bridge Thursday to visit his father and mother who are yet suffering from the result of their automobile experience. Farmer's bibles, otherwise Sears & Roebuck's catalogues, arrived last night by mail—3000 lbs.

Mrs. E. J. Schneider, of Powers is down this week visiting her relatives and friends.

L. A. Hafford, of Bridge, is now the owner of the J. A. Prewitt tract, a part of the once McDonald ranch, one-half mile out. He will at once proceed to improve it. E. C. Roberts effected the transfer.

L. H. Pearce, the harness and garage man, is in Portland this week for business.

The last heard from Chester Miller, son of A. A. and Mrs. Miller, is that he is on the way to the Philippine Islands. He is in the country's service.

Autos, pianos and ranches are moving. The farmers are buying. They "gotta da men."

Attorney Claud Giles, the Coos and Curry cheese salesman, sold a $17,000 shipment last week. And the price was a cent higher.

R. H. Cassidy, a Kansas man from Reno, but later of South California, is here for a location. We reminded each other of the way we used to do in Kansas a while and then he gave himself up to a "mild" real estate man.

Mike Wyland is the man who succeeds Rufus King on the Uncle Jerry Haines' ranch above town.

The 8-foot high sample of oats exhibited in Spencer and Shelly's window was grown by Wm. Hartly, who took a first prize at the World's Fair in San Francisco in 1915. His exhibits are always among the biggest and best, receiving many prizes.

An outing party in Rooster Alley near Sitkum consists of two Giles brothers, Willin and Clark, two Spires brothers and Misses Lila and Eunice Smith and Helen Whitaker with Mrs. Lois as chaperone.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mumford, of Hall's creek, although not so spry as they used to be, are in this week for the conference of the Brethren. Mr. M. has quite recovered from the result of the fall he had last winter.

Mrs. Lee Ray has returned from Idaho where she went to visit her sick son. He was suffering from typhoid fever and has so recovered that with his wife he returned with Mrs. Ray.

J. E. Hall and family, with father-in-law, has just returned from an auto trip outside—to Portland, Multnomah Falls, Columbia Highway and Forest Grove. They also visited a sister in Polk county and could not help having a good time.

During Mr. Dement's vacation the assistant cashier's desk will be occupied by Mrs. Riemenschneider.

Willard John Murray, of Wheaton, Ill., is enjoying a few weeks here as the guest of Professor Gary.

Among those who have visited California and returned many of them say that where irrigation is necessary the water is quite as important as the land.

It may have been a Myrtle Point man who spelled the names of our county wrong on the Coos and Curry Fair display cards for windows. He may also be loyal to our Flag—the U. S. Flag.

S. O. Bestul, wife and son, are in this week from their home on Catching creek. They are pleased to have the Sentinel come and to give us the news.

Special meetings are going on in the United Brethren church and quarterly meeting conducted by the Rev. H. B. Patmore from Salem.

Crops are looking fairly good and a few land buyers have appeared.

Frank Long who has been visiting here with Prof. Gary has left to take his place with the Coast Marines. His home is in Minnesota.

As the world moves some of us dress up a bit and then our cousins from the East, most of them strangers, are coming by autos—and going on to Bandon and the Bay.

To Bandon this week are Ben Winqvist, sister and mother; also Mrs. Abbott.

To Brewster Valley last week were Misses Evelyn Butler, Lesta Clinton, Alta Wilton and Mrs. Williams as chaperone; also boys, John Arnold, Dick Arnold, Ervin Barklow. They went into the river or creek and the water was cold enough. They had a raft in deep water and pushed each other in and like all play parties we've heard of this week had a great good time.

The Brethren in conducting their "breaking of bread" or the "evening meal" at this their regular meeting adopted the Cafeteria system in their dining hall at the rear of the church.

The first thorough-bred bovine we ever saw was a Shorthorn Durham in Ontario, Canada, fifty or more years ago, and the last one is the one received this week from Petaluma, Cal., a registered shorthorn heifer, by B. Hartlett, of Catching creek.

TOMORROW IS WATERMELON DAY

Just received a large shipment of Watermelons Canteloupes

All kinds of Fruits and Vegetables

Come in and make your selection for your Sunday dinner

No matter how often you come, you'll always find something new here when you come again.

Your patronage is very gratifying to us and has spurred our buyers on to greater efforts than ever.

Trying to do better elsewhere than here is like trying to find the North Pole.

Busy Corner Grocery

Front and C Streets Coquille, Oregon
Phones 691 and 541