

MINOR MENTION.

Telling About People and Events in the City and County.

H. G. Hoy came over from the Bay yesterday.

Mrs. R. A. Wernich went over to the Bay yesterday.

Fred Belloni went down to Bandon Monday afternoon.

Chas I. Reigard was over here from the Bay yesterday.

E. B. Lane, of Myrtle Point, was in the city Wednesday.

Walter Laird, of the Sitkum section, was in town Wednesday.

Lloyd Irvine was down from Powers Sunday visiting home folks.

W. T. Forbes was in from McKinley Tuesday evening on business.

Earl Nosler came home from Clackamas Saturday for a short visit.

City Attorney Jas. T. Brand, of Marshfield, was over here Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Machon were business visitors to Marshfield Friday.

C. L. Starr, attorney for the Boutin interests, was a Coquille visitor Wednesday.

Mrs. Owen H. Knowlton went up to Powers Wednesday for a visit with her mother.

The county court and Roadmaster went over to the Bay this morning on road business.

Fred Hollister and W. U. Douglas were over from the Bay Monday on legal business.

L. J. Simpson was over from Neeth Bend yesterday attending to matters at the court house.

C. McC. Johnson went out to Roseburg Tuesday morning for a week's trip to San Francisco.

John Jusa, formerly of the Sentinel office, now has a position in the Oregonian office at Portland.

John Motley was over from the Bay yesterday to look after Mr. Conway's interests at the creamery.

Aasen Brothers are cutting four million feet of lumber a month now at their camp down the river.

C. R. Peck, of Marshfield, left for San Francisco yesterday to enter the officers training school at the Presidio.

Irvin D. Custer is expected home from Eugene today for a short vacation. He is secretary of the Y. M. C. A. there.

There will be a business meeting of the W. C. T. U. at 2:30 tomorrow (Saturday) afternoon at Mrs. S. V. Epperson's.

Miss Ethel Tollock, of Eugene, has taken Miss Cecelia Hoffman's place as stenographer in Roadmaster Murdock's office.

Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Endicott came down from Myrtle Point Sunday for a visit with their daughter, Mrs. C. McC Johnson.

J. C. Savage went down to Bandon a week ago on mining business and made a good lease of his Curry county gold producer.

G. S. Mathewson, of Dora, was over at Marshfield yesterday to secure cable for the logging camp at the former place.

Mrs. Helen Nye and Mrs. Fred Belloni have been down at Langlois for the past two weeks visiting their mother, Mrs. Cope.

Eleven cars of cattle were shipped from Myrtle Point to the Portland stockyards in four consecutive days during the past week.

Marshfield and North Bend are beginning to talk about house famines, and houses to rent are likewise getting scarce in Coquille.

Earl Lealie, who is in the hospital corps stationed at Vancouver was visiting home folks from Saturday evening until Monday morning.

W. E. Campbell, of Los Angeles, is up here to prospect for oil in Coos county. Henry Senstacken is aiding him in securing leases and options.

S. E. Aasen, of Arago, was a caller yesterday afternoon. He was taking a vacation, he said, and on his way to visit old friends down the river as far as Bandon.

Bert Folsom was in from McKinley Monday. He complains that deer are working havoc among his beans, coming to spend the night browsing on the tender plants.

Mrs. W. H. Lyons and Helen went out to Brewster last Sunday to join the Endicott and Hazard camping party. They expect to come home Sunday.

A new lot of pretty waists just in at the White House.

O. A. Webster returned Tuesday evening from his trip east to Omaha, Neb., where he was called by the serious illness of his mother. She was greatly improved when he left.

Mayor E. E. Johnson and family and Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Lawrence went down to Bandon Monday to enjoy life in a cottage on the beach during the warmest weather of the season.

Geo. B. Glenn, of McKinley, who has been down with a severe attack of stomach trouble, is improving rapidly now and spent a couple of days in town the fore part of the week.

The injunction "to use" a germicidal soap on display in a show window here in town would be especially applicable in some instances. It is recommended as sure death to parasites.

To meet the pressing demand for typewriter operators, Anderson's Business College will begin new classes Monday, August 27, both day and night sessions.

Judge Wallace McCammant, of the State Supreme court, was here with Hon. A. K. Peck Tuesday morning. He is spending his vacation in Coos county and went to Bandon the same day.

John Aasen drove from Roseburg to Coquille last Friday morning in five hours. If the road through the Middle Fork canyon hadn't necessitated any bumps he would have done much better.

No matter who repaired your watch or how many times repaired or its condition, bring it to me and I will make it run and keep time. V. R. Wilson, The Watchmaker. Coquille, Oregon. 3116

Smokes has been very dense here the past two days and many forest fires are reported in various sections of the county. Except at Allegany, however, standing timber is not seriously threatened.

Carl Taylor, the S. P. travelling agent, was a caller at this office the other day. His week's visit in this section leads to rumors of a possible change in passenger train schedules on our line.

Someone advertised a lost auto robe in the Sentinel a couple of weeks ago. We have the blanket but have mislaid the name of its owner. You will note, however, that Sentinel want ads bring results.

Last Sunday night was the warmest we have yet seen in Coquille. The morning gave us a 70 degree temperature in rooms with open windows. Still we had no inclination to kick off the last blanket.

Edward Lorenz and son started by Monday morning's train for Medford, summoned there on account of the critical illness of Mrs. Lorenz's father. Mrs. L. has been there with her mother for several weeks.

The deer hunting season was closed last week by Governor Withycombe until Sept. 1, owing to the great danger from forest fires. Unless rain comes meanwhile the bars will probably be kept up awhile longer.

Word has been received from Paul Wilson, who is stationed at San Pedro, Cal., by his father, V. R. Wilson, that he has been advanced to the position of first petty officer in the naval unit with which he is stationed.

Coming at the Scenic-Greater Vitagraph Photo Plays. Watch for the posters.

Lieut. Earl Willey came in the latter part of last week and left again Wednesday. He is to report at the American Lake training camp next week to assist in drilling those conscripted for the new National army.

Fall Millinery is now out at the White House.

A. M. Woodford, Mrs. J. A. Lamb and son, Irving, and Mrs. Jennie Williams and son, Morris, went over to the Bay Wednesday morning, intending to spend a week on the Nicholson place between the Bay and Ten Mile.

K. E. Hodgman, who has been an assistant in the roadmaster's office for the past year, sailed on the Adeline Smith from Marshfield Wednesday morning. He goes to the Presidio to cater the second officers' training camp.

Roadmaster Murdock says he has been compelled to postpone that eastern trip until after the October meeting of the county court. When he goes it will be to return from his old home in northern New York with a bride.

Railroad Raiders, a fine serial coming Friday, August 31st. Don't forget all those coming next Tuesday afternoon at matinee of "Her Condoned Sin," and Thursday evening get a free ticket to Railroad Raiders Friday.

Abundant as has been the supply of mill wood here this summer, the demand is more than keeping pace with it. Last winter's experience with a fuel famine affecting both coal and wood has made our people more forward.

Ray Lewis, who had been working down at Aasen's camp for a week got hit on the side of the head Tuesday with a block of wood when a line broke. It rendered him unconscious and Dr. Richmond was called to fix him up.

To accommodate the crowd at the Scenic next Monday there will be a matinee of "Her Condoned Sin" at 2:30 sharp with orchestra music. There will be no repetition so be sure to be on time. Matinee prices 10 and 25 cents.

Miss Claire Sherwood came over from Marshfield Saturday and packed several trunks for the Sherwood party and forwarded them to Portland for us while they sojourn in that city. They expect to return to Coquille in a week or two.

Dr. G. Earl Low went up to Portland Wednesday in his car, accompanied by Dr. S. J. Mann, of Bandon. They expect to go on over to Vancouver on business connected with a call to the medical service in the army which they expect soon.

The Coquille Laundry & Ice Co. is handling a lot of fish this year, Mr. Morrison receiving shipments by truck from as far away as Rogue river. Every morning he ships large consignments by rail, that of Tuesday morning amounting to 3,000 pounds.

The people who say last Sunday night was the warmest of the season are sustained by the thermometer. It has been quite warm in the sunshine, too, most of the week—but still very fair summer resort weather as weather goes in most of the United States.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Swanson and five children, who come from Barnett, Ill., where they have been farming, and Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Swanson and three children from Middletown, Ohio, a factory town, came to Coquille Tuesday, expecting to make their home here.

There was a meeting of the Coos Bay Presbytery at the Baxter House here on Wednesday, at which the principal business transacted was the dissolution of the pastoral relations existing between Rev. J. F. Vernon and the Presbyterian church at Myrtle Point.

Mrs. Nels Osmundson returned from a visit of several months at San Bernardino, California, Saturday. She was accompanied by Mrs. Eugene Wickham who will visit here for a time. Nels says he does not know whether his wife will stay or if it is only a visit.

The Coos Bay Times reports that five young women from Bunker Hill recently donned overalls and went to work in the Eastside mill of C. A. Smith. They get $2 a day at the start and are credited with doing better work than the men and boys before employed.

M. J. Hartson returned last Thursday from a hunting trip up near Rainrock, on the Willamette Pacific this side of Eugene. He was out with Jim Collier and Ed Lorenz and got a nice fat buck which it took him about five hours to get out of the canyon into camp.

One thing which appears to be drouth proof in this country is the Evergreen blackberry crop which is just beginning to ripen and promises to be as abundant as ever. Somehow the Evergreens always appear to be able to pick locations where the moisture never falls.

Mrs. Alex Sandon and her three children spent Monday and Tuesday here with her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Boldon, going on to Powers Wednesday afternoon. Mr. Sandon is a trusted employe of the Smith mill at Marshfield where he has been for the past eight years.

If any Sentinel reader wants to earn a $1,000 reward, all he need do is to secure the arrest and conviction of the two parties who robbed the First National Bank, of Medical Lake, Washington, on Tuesday, July 31. Further information about them can be secured at this office.

R. H. Poole, one of the Port Orford volunteers, spent last Saturday night here with his uncle, A. T. Boldon, and went on to Portland Sunday morning to answer a summons to the colors. He has been assigned to the Surgical division, where his work will be the inspection of surgical instruments.

Former Councilman C. I. Kime went out Saturday to Portland with a shipment of 36 infected tubercular cattle from points in this valley which are being sent to the stockyards there. Those not seriously infected will be slaughtered for beef. Mr. Kime went as the agent of the various owners.

Bird Nosler met with a painful accident while working out on the Oregon Power company's new line yesterday morning. He was slashing small brush when he hit his left thumb just below the joint. He was immediately brought into town and Dr. Hamilton sewed the partially dismembered digit together again.

M. O. Hawkins and Rev. H. M. Law returned Tuesday from their hunt in the mountains back of Bridge. The party consisting of the two mentioned and Claude and Lyle Nesler secured three fine bucks. Mr. Hawkins says everything is so dry that a hunter makes too much noise in the woods to get within gunshot even.

J. A. Ward, who collected and installed Coos County exhibit and was in charge of it in the Oregon building all through the Panama exposition, is now in charge of the Y. M. C. A. work at the officers' training camp at the Presidio. He has also started classes in French and other subjects the soldiers need to know about.

Dr. Floyd M. White, of Klamath Falls, reached the city on Saturday evening and may decide to come here and assume the practice of Dr. E. E. Straw while the latter goes to war. Dr. White has been here several times and was at one time a resident of Coquille country. He is an accomplished and efficient physician and surgeon.—Record.

Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Graham, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Dungey and daughter, Jean, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Savage and son, J. C. Jr., Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Graham and daughter, Rena, Mrs. Fred McClellan and two children, Mrs. Jones and two children went down to Bandon this morning to camp on the beach about two miles south of town for several days.

Miss Naomi Knowlton started for Berkeley by rail last Sunday morning so as to arrive at the State University in time to enroll for the classes that were being organized the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Knowlton went down on the Elizabeth Monday, the latter to remain at Berkeley during the school year. Mr. K. will return in about a week.

Chas. Meyers, who is now a sergeant in the regular army stationed at Vancouver, visited his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Meyers, here between trains on Monday. He had come down here to get a deserter at the Smith mill and had to get back Tuesday to accompany his company to Palo Alto, California, Wednesday where they will be sent for training.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Anderson's Practical Business College on the third page of this issue. The faculty consists of the principal, H. O. Anderson, and Miss Mary E. Lucas, of Portland, who has had a long and successful experience in commercial schools. The opening of the fall term will be the best possible time to enroll in this institution.

Geo. A. Robinson and Geo. S. Davis and their wives returned Tuesday from a three weeks' camping trip. They went first to St. Martin's Springs for a week and then spent four or five days at Portland during Buyers' Week. From there they came down to Eugene and went 60 miles up the McKenzie to Foley's Springs where they spent a week. They had a lot of good fishing and enjoyed the outing immensely.

V. B. Wilson, Expert Watchmaker. Sure and quick work. No delays. Coquille, Ore.

Hereafter all automobile and repair work must be settled for before it leaves the garage. A. A. Paull.

WANTED—Half ton Oregon Grape root. Geo. T. Moulton.

OUTING DAYS ARE KODAK DAYS

Summer days and summer pleasures are here at last. Why not add to your pleasures a KODAK. Our stock is complete and we will be glad to show you how easy they are to use. A choice of prices from $1 to $55.

KNOWLTON'S DRUG STORE

If you want to realize the best prices for

Chittam Bark Oregon Grape Roots
Dandelion Roots Rose Leaves
Fox Glove Leaves
 and all other drug plants, write to

GEO. SCHUMACHER, Sumner, Ore.

The most independent man on earth

The electric motor has freed the modern farmer from the shackles of drudgery. For less than half the cost of keeping an extra "hand" you can have your cows milked, your cream separated and the real work of all your other chores done by a G-E electric motor. G-E motors will also drive irrigation or house pumps, threshing machines, feed cutters and all dairy machinery. G-E motors will pay for themselves many times over by saving time, labor and wages. Let us show you.

OREGON POWER CO.

Phone 71

Notice to Milk Customers.

Owing to high price of butterfat and all feed stuff and stringent dairy laws going into effect immediately we will be compelled to raise the price of milk to $3.00 per 30 qts. commencing Sept. 1, 1917.

A. Wilson.
Geo. Lorenz.

Come at 7:30 at night for the first show. There will be a stirring comedy and at least eight films. "Her Condoned Sin" will not be repeated, only the comedy.

—C. A. Pendleton.

The Oregon Agricultural College

Where trained specialists with modern laboratories and adequate equipment give instruction leading to collegiate degrees in the following schools:

AGRICULTURE, with 15 departments;
COMMERCE, with 4 departments;
ENGINEERING, with 6 departments, including Civil, Electrical, Highway, Industrial Arts, Irrigation, and Mechanical Engineering;
FORESTRY, including Logging Engineering;
HOME ECONOMICS, with 6 major departments, including training in the Practice Home;
MINES, with three departments, including Chemical Engineering;
PHARMACY;
THE SCHOOL OF MUSIC, offers instruction in the principal departments of vocal and instrumental music.
THE MILITARY DEPARTMENT, enrolled 1000 cadets in 1916-17, and was recommended for U. S. G. from the Western Department of the U. S. War Department as one of the fifteen "distinguished institutions" of higher learning. All cadets will be furnished complete uniforms by the U. S. Government and the leader and senior cadets, enrolled in the U. S. T. O. will be given commutation for subsistence, as well as all transportation and subsistence of the six weeks' summer camp. REGISTRATION BEGINS OCTOBER 5, 1917. Information on request. Address, Eugene, Oregon Agricultural College, Coquille, Oregon.

Scenic THEATER

ALL STAR CAST

Blanche Sweet, Mae Marsh, Robert Harron, Dorothy and Lillian Gish and Henry B. Walthall, in the six-act drama,

"Her Condoned Sin" with comedy

Produced by D. W. Griffith, the producer of "Intolerance" and "The Birth of a Nation."

MATINEE, with Orchestra, at 2:30 sharp as we don't repeat.

Matinee Prices - 10 and 25 cents

Monday, Aug. 27

Prices - 15 and 25 cents

Music by the Orchestra

V. E. WILSON, OPTOMETRIST

Eyes Examined. Glasses Fitted.

Coquille, Oregon