Broad Piazza With Colonial Columns - A Unique Design Which Can Be Built For $5,660.
Designed by Albert E. Davis, the Bronx, New York.

PERSPECTIVE VIEW—FROM A PHOTOGRAPH.

The cottage shown in the photograph was erected on the crown of a hill, and a hipped roof seemed appropriate to the landscape. There is a broad piazza across the front, with colonial columns resting on brick piers. First story walls are clapboarded. The second story, attic and roof shingled. The front doors are of beveled plate glass. To the right of the stair landing is a hall seat and to the left a coat closet. The parlor projects out in the form of a bay, and there is a large bay window in the dining room. The vestibule, hall and dining room are finished in oak, parlor in whitewood, painted ivory white, kitchen and pantry in ash and the second story in sycamore. There is an open fireplace in the dining room and mantels in the parlor and second story bedroom. The dining room has a plate rack around the walls six and a half feet above floor. There are stained glass windows on the stairs. There is a fine large pantry between the kitchen and dining room. The total cost, including plumbing and hot water heating, $5,660. Size: 25 by 31 feet.
