Brugger-Ellis Wedding.

An attractive wedding was celebrated at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alta King when Miss Nellie M. Ellis was married to Edward L. Brugger, of Rosalia, Wash., Saturday evening, November 4, 1911.

Promptly at 8 o'clock the bridal party entered to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march, played by Prof. J. U. Waterhouse.

Little Jennings King, dressed in pale blue, preceded the bride, bearing the ring in a white rosebud.

The bride, charmingly gowned in pale blue taffeta with an exquisite lace drape and carrying a shower bouquet of white chrysanthemums and ferns, entered attended by her bridesmaid, Miss Audra Rhinehart, who appeared in white crepe de chine. The groom wore the usual conventional black and was attended by Luther A. King of O. A. C.

Justice of the Peace Alta King officiated at the ceremony, during which the guests remained standing and joined in singing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds."

Green and white color scheme was used throughout the living room. The piano and bookcases were banked high with asparagus ferns and white cosmos, gracefully interwoven with white wax berries. The doors and windows were arched in ferns and berries.

The rooms were lighted with soft yellow shades. A rare old stand of California red wood in circular design was spread in one corner of the room with an exceedingly handsome white lace lunch cloth. This held the wedding cake which was designed and decorated by an intimate friend of the bride. Ferns and wax berries were arranged around the bottoms of the table to give the appearance of an altar at which place the groom and his attendant arrived during the first measures of the wedding march to await the coming of the bride.

After congratulations, the bride started the knife in her cake which was served with bon bons.

Prof. Waterhouse furnished instrumental music during the evening and Mrs. Waterhouse sang very touchingly "My Wish" to the bride.

The bride, who was the valedictorian of the 1910 graduating class of Cottage Grove high school, was a very popular young lady and the groom is a highly respected and prosperous merchant of Rosalia, Wash., in which place Mr. and Mrs. Brugger will be at home after Nov. 15.

Following is a list of the invited guests:

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar King, Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse, Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Kinter, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. King, Mr. and Mrs. Chamberlin, Misses Lulu Currin, Lauretta Atkinson, Leah Perkins, Jean DeLong, Jennie Smith, Audra Rhinehart, Messrs. Hugh Currin, Benj. C. King, Chas. Beals, and Luther King, Cottage Grove; Mr. and Mrs. Brugger, Spokane, Wash., and Miss Harriet Bennett, of Bohemia.

Some of the presents received by the bride were: Silver olive fork, Mrs. Edgar King; set of silver teaspoons, Mrs. Harrison; silver berry spoon, Mr. and Mrs. Waterhouse; silver sugar tongs, Mr. and Mrs. Kinter; antique brass book rack, Mr. and Mrs. G. F. King; hand made dower chest, Mr. Chamberlin; silver salad fork and berry spoon, Misses Currin, Perkins and Mr. Currin; solid silver sugar shell engraved, Misses DeLong and Smith; set of silver salad forks, Miss Atkinson and Mr. Beals; cut glass salt and pepper shakers, Benj. C. King; large hand-painting, Miss Bennet; solid silver bread tray, engraved with the bride's monogram, the gift of the groomsmen and bridesmaid; solid silver souvenir spoon of Cottage Grove, Mrs. Job; solid silver cold meat fork engraved, Mr. and Mrs. Alta King.

The Woman's Club met at the Commercial club rooms Saturday afternoon, Nov. 4, and opened its first meeting of the season with a large attendance. After answering to roll call by discussion of current events, the members took up the study of Shakespeare's "The Merchant of Venice" and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in an interesting study of the leading characters in this historical play. The ladies were much encouraged over the interest manifested at the first meeting of the club. Officers present were:

Mrs. J. C. Johnson, president; Mrs. D. Hemenway, vice-president; Mrs. Geo. M. Hall, secretary, and Mrs. H. A. Miller, corresponding secretary. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Geo. M. Hall.

Tuesday afternoon, November 7, Mesdames, A. W. Kime, A. S. Powell, A. A. Richmond, C. D. Brown, Emma Miller and D. T. Awbrey gave a delightful "At Home" at the Christian church to the ladies and friends of the church. This affair was given in anticipation of an elaborate bazaar to be given later, and the leading affair of the afternoon was a needle threading contest that caused much merriment.

Mrs. Morion Veatch carrying off the honors.

Mrs. Hemenway in her pleasing manner briefly outlined bazaar work. The guests matched pieces of fancy work to draw partners for the dainty lunch which closed a pleasant social event. Fifty guests were present.

Miss Franklyn Dean and Clyde P. Stafford were married at Eugene yesterday. Miss Dean is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Dean, and has been employed as compositor on the Cottage Grove Leader. She has made many friends during her few months' residence here. Mr. Stafford is a bookkeeper at Halsey.

Mrs. N. E. Compton entertained the Ladies' Aid Society of the Methodist church at her home Wednesday afternoon. About thirty ladies were present and the afternoon was pleasantly spent in games and social chat. Later refreshments were served.

Invitations are out announcing the wedding of Miss Vernie Brown and Clarence Roy Boyd which will be celebrated at the Christian church on Wednesday evening, Nov. 15.

Mrs. Nelson Durham was hostess to the Young Married Ladies' Embroidery Club Wednesday afternoon at her home. A pleasant time was spent, embroidering and a dainty luncheon followed.

CHURCH NEWS

At the Presbyterian church, Sunday Nov. 12, there will be the usual services, as follows: Sunday school at 10 a. m. Sermon by the pastor, A. S. Mason, at 11 o'clock, subject, "The Mission of Suffering." Christian Endeavor society at 6:30, led by Mr. Ernest Wyatt. Evening sermon at 7:30, subject, "Do it Now, and Here." All will be cordially welcome.

Rev. Smith, of Eugene, filled the Presbyterian pulpit Sunday, Rev. C. E. Wooley, who had been announced, being unable to come. Rev. Smith proved an entertaining speaker.

Rev. A. S. Mason, of the Presbyterian church, preached at Eugene Sunday and reports successful services.

The Bible school of the Methodist church is increasing in attendance and interest. One hundred and fifty-five were present last Sabbath morning, against ninety-three on the same date a year ago. No less than twenty-six were present in the young peoples' class. One young man was baptised during the peoples' popular service in the evening.

On Tuesday evening the workers of the Methodist church held four cottage services at the homes of Messrs. Handy, Lewis, Wilkinson and Gardner. Delightful seasons of prayer and praise were enjoyed. Next week more meeting places will be added to this list. Due notice given from the pulpit at the Sabbath gatherings.

The workers of the Methodist church have in preparation a splendid program for next Sabbath. Public worship at 11 with sermon by pastor. Subject: "Hand-Picked Fruit." This should be of great interest to all orchardists. Peoples' popular service at 7:30, Robert Sutcliffe speaks on "The Question of a Frightened Jailor." There will be special music at both these gatherings. Bible school at 9:45. Classes for all ages. The Epworth League Devotional meeting at 6:30 conducted by Ansel Wood. A hearty welcome extended to all.

FAKE MAGAZINE AGENTS

SWINDLE PUBLIC OUT OF THEIR MONEY.

Remedy Lies in Placing Orders with Local Newsdealers of Known Responsibility.

The attention of the public is called to the numerous "agents" working throughout Oregon and the Pacific coast soliciting magazine orders and collecting money in advance. We beg to warn you against these fake canvassers, as a number of local people have been victimized, and suggest that to avoid any risk you place your orders with the Modern Pharmacy, a responsible business house of your home city, which makes it unnecessary to patronize strangers, who are usually frauds. We can supply you with any magazine in the world and give as low clubbing rates as anyone or will deliver magazines to you on the day they are received and you may pay for them as delivered. We want your patronage and ask you to favor us as against the strangers. Let us have your orders now for single copies or subscriptions. Always at your service,

COTTAGE GROVE, - - - OREGON

Portland. The death was attributed to acute bronchitis, but Dr. Smith, who is a member of the city health board, was not satisfied with the cause given on the death notice.

City Milk Chemist Calloway was asked to make an analysis of the creeper berry. The milk chemist fed a dozen of the berries to a guinea pig and the animal died 36 hours later, exhibiting all the symptoms that had been observed in the case of the infant. The vomit of the child was also analyzed and found to contain hundreds of the minute spicule of the deadly berry. Medical experts say that Chemist Calloway's experiment is the first they know of where a human death has been known to have resulted from eating the berries of the plant.
