

CALIFORNIA

is Famous the World Over

For its splendid hostilities, its varied attractions, its fine beaches, hot springs and pleasure resorts—all these can be reached with ease by the Southern Pacific

"Road of a Thousand Wonders"
Route of Shasta Limited
Excursion Tickets $55 Portland to Costing $55 and Return Los Angeles

On sale daily, good six months with stop-overs going or returning. Corresponding low fares from other Oregon points. Call on our Agents for

Handsomely Illustrated Literature Describing San Francisco, Oakland, Mt. San Jose, Lick Observatory, Santa Cruz, Del Monte, Paso Robles Hot Springs, Sausalito, Berkeley, Stanford University, Santa Barbara, Los Angeles, Pasadena, Long Beach, Venice, Riverside, Redlands, San Diego, The Old Spanish Missions, Yosemite National Park and Big Trees and many other places of interest in the Golden State, or write to
WM. McMURRAY, Gen'l Passenger Agent :: PORTLAND, OREGON

Do You Need a Bed?

We have 45 different patterns and colors to choose from. They are the "leaders" selected from the leading manufacturers of the country. We especially invite your inspection of the

Famous Lock Rail Beds

The prices are the lowest consistent with quality. We have cheap ones as well as good ones and carry an unusually large line at $5.00

KINTER BROS.

Phone 6 HOUSE FURNISHERS Nuf-Ced

SEE US ABOUT FARM LOANS

BANK OF COTTAGE GROVE

"A GOOD BANK IN A GOOD TOWN"

CAPITAL $25,000.00

INTEREST PAID ON TIME DEPOSITS

If it's a particular job of printing, take it to the Sentinel's Art Printery.

Read this Partial List of Oregon Lands

A Big Snap

A Snap—95 acres 1 1/2 miles from town, 35 acres in cultivation. Balance pasture and timber; farm house, good barn, family orchard in bearing, team, 4 cows, all farming implements, hay, grain, crop with place. $6000. Terms.

70 acres all under water ditch with a perpetual water right with deed, all bottom land, 3 1/4 miles from town on good road, near school. 1/4 mile from railroad station. Will subdivide to suit, $150.00 per acre. Terms on part.

HEMENWAY & LOCKWOOD

REAL ESTATE :: INSURANCE :: COTTAGE GROVE

O.A.C. SHORT COURSES

BEGIN JAN. 3, CONTINUE FOUR WEEKS

YOU ARE INVITED

Every citizen of Oregon is cordially invited to attend the short courses of the Oregon Agricultural College, beginning January 3. Eleven distinctive courses will be offered in Agriculture, Mechanic Arts, Domestic Science and Art, Commerce, Forestry and Music. Every course is designed to HELP the student in his daily work. Make this a pleasant and profitable winter outing. No tuition. Reasonable accommodations. For beautiful illustrated bulletin, address
H. M. TENNANT, Registrar Corvallis, Oregon
FARMER'S BUSINESS COURSE BY CORRESPONDENCE

SUBSCRIBE FOR THE SENTINEL

SMALL WRECK ON O. & S. E.

SPREADING RAILS CAUSE CARS TO LEAVE TRACK.

Damage Is Slight. Traffic Being Held Up for Couple Days Only.

Traffic on the O. & S. E. was held up a couple days last week by the derailing of a few freight cars near Disston.

Whether the rails spread of their own accord or whether a truck on one of the cars was running a little sideways, thus spreading the rails, is a question. Five or six cars were put on the rails, but as only two of them were heavily loaded the work of replacing them on the tracks was not hard.

The road was in running shape again Saturday.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to thank the members of Cottage Grove and Coast Fork granges for the kindness shown us in our late bereavement.

MRS. SARAH NOWELL,
MRS. ELECTA THORNDENBERG,
MRS. M. H. BRASHER,
W. E. NOWELL,
H. W. NOWELL,
F. C. NOWELL.

High water mark was reached in prayer meeting attendance at the Methodist church on Thursday evening. One hundred and forty enjoyed the delightful service. Sometimes several people were up on their feet ready to take part.

A SWORD OF HONOR.

It Was the Means of Betraying Marshal Ney to Death.

A saber of honor brought Marshal Ney to dishonor and death. When Napoleon entered Cairo on July 22, 1798, he was presented with three swords of honor richly inlaid with precious stones. He brought them back to Europe, and in 1802 he gave one to Ney and another to Murat, keeping the third for himself.

Ney received his at an imperial reception. The sword passed from one to another of those present, among whom was a young subaltern of the Auvergne regiment. When Napoleon escaped from Elbe Ney left the king and took sides with his former chief. After the allies entered Paris Ney made preparations to get out of the country, but his wife and a friend persuaded him that there was really no danger, and he decided to remain in France. Then came the order for his arrest. He fled to a castle in the possession of some friends and succeeded in reaching it without his presence being known.

One day, feeling tired, he threw himself on a couch, first taking off his ornate sword, which he always wore out of affection for the emperor. Hearing voices, he sprang up and hurriedly left the room, forgetting his sword. A minute later a party of women and men entered the room, one of them being the young subaltern of the Auvergne regiment, now a colonel. He at once recognized the sword and, calling in some gendarmes, proceeded to search the premises.

Finding that he was discovered, Ney gave himself up quietly. On Dec. 7, 1815, the marshal, whose sash was the Bravest of the Brave, the hero of a hundred battles, was shot. Scarcely two months after the owner of the second sword, Murat, had met his fate in the same way.

Changed His Mind.

Nagsby—I thought you were never going to work for those people again. Wagsby—I did say so, but since that time they have decided that I might come back.—Baltimore American

His Secret Societies.

The attorney demanded to know how many secret societies the witness belonged to, whereupon the witness objected and appealed to the court. "The court sees no harm in the question," answered the judge. "You may answer."
"Well, I belong to three."
"What are they?"
"The Knights of Pythias, the Odd Fellows and the gas company."—Arizonian.

Who are your friends?

ARE they intelligent, refined people, anxious to be considered well-bred and broad-minded. If so, nothing would be more appropriate for you to give them as a

Christmas Gift

than one of the late books by a standard author. We have all copyright works at $1.20 up and those on which copyright has expired at 75c. It will at least interest you to look over our line and learn what the late books are.

Benson's Pharmacy

FALSE EYEBROWS.

The Process of Stitching the Hairs Into the Skin.

At a certain factory a number of young women were working at small tables, each table covered with little instruments and odd things which only those who knew the business could possibly understand. At one table two girls were threading needles with fine silky hairs and sewing them in little squares on a thin transparent gauze.

"Those girls" said the overseer, "are making some of those beautiful arched eyebrows you may sometimes see on the stage. They are frequently worn by both actors and actresses. These sewed on the net are the less expensive kind and are only used on special occasions. The real brow is very expensive and can only be made by a person of great skill."

"The patient sits here in his chair, which very much resembles a dentist's operating throne. In this cushion to my left are stuck a score or so of those needles you saw being threaded. Each stitch leaving only two strands of hair, to facilitate the operation a number of needles must be at hand. As each thread of hair is drawn through the skin over the eye it is cut, so that when the first stage of the operation is over it leaves the hairs bristling out an inch or so, presenting a ragged, porcupine appearance. Now comes the artistic work. The brow must be arched and cut down with the utmost delicacy, and a number of hours is required to do it."

"Small as the eyebrows are, they are very important in the makeup of the face. You have no idea how odd one looks when utterly devoid of hair over the eyes. The process I have described is painful, but it makes good eyebrows and adds 100 per cent to the looks of the person who was without them. It is too much better than the blackening and cosmetics so many people use, especially people who have mere pretense of brows, comprising only a few hairs."—London Tit-Bits.

HOLLAND'S "LONG JOHN."

A Church Tower Capped With a Chime of Forty-one Bells.

The 280 foot tower of the Nieuwe Kerk in Middleburg, "Long John," or "Lang Jan" if the sobriquet be translated into Dutch, is practically the Washington monument of Walcheren. It is capped with a climax of forty-one bells that chime a quaint fragment of some familiar popular melody every seven and one-half minutes. On the hour "Long John" literally vibrates from foundation to weather vane in a frenzied endeavor to pour forth in toto the accumulation of more or less music administered in small doses during the previous sixty minutes.

From "Long John" one can see plainly the towns on the north and west coasts of Walcheren, and often even the spires of Antwerp are visible, while directly below a mass of red roofs, punctured here and there with patches of trees, stretches Middleburg. To the left is the market place, bounded on the north by the handsome town hall, begun in the sixteenth century, the embellishment of whose facade by twenty-five ancient statues of the counts and countesses of Holland, helps it to hold its place as one of the finest and most interesting late Gothic edifices in the Netherlands.

The tower of the town hall has a chime, too, and each time after "Long John" so insistently proclaims the hour of the day or night—for "Long John" takes the credit of giving standard time to Middleburg—it must get a bit on his nerves to have "Foolish Betsy" ("Gekke Betje"), up in the town hall tower, rattle off her cacophonous contradiction a minute or two earlier or later, as the case may be.—Travel Magazine.

Queer Bread.

Along the Columbia river bread is made from a kind of moss that grows on a species of fir trees. After being dried it is sprinkled with water, allowed to ferment, rolled into balls as big as a man's head and baked in pits with the help of hot stones. Travelers who have tasted it say that it is by no means unpalatable. The Californian Indians collect the pollen of cattails in large quantities by beating it off the plants and catching it on blankets. They make bread of it. But as a delicacy they prefer bread of grasshopper flour.

Ready For Work.

"Now," said the warden to the forger who had just arrived at the prison, "we'll set you to work. What can you do best?"
"Well, if you'll give me a week's practice on your signature I'll sign your official papers for you."—London Tit-Bits.

Merely Suspected.

The Stranger—Is there a good criminal lawyer in your town? The Native—Waal, everybody thinks we've got one, but they ain't been able to prove it on him.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Sympathetic.

Sufferer (to dentist's servant)—Not in today? Dear, dear, I wanted to consult him badly. Servant—Well, let's hope you'll still have toothache tomorrow.—Fliegende Blätter.

Woman's Way.

She—Time will heal the wound I've made in your heart. He—Yes; but you'll be mad at me if it does.—Exchange.

Melancholy is the pleasure of being sad.—Hugo.

SOCIETY

A pleasant affair of the week was the social entertainment of the Eastern Star Friday evening at the close of regular chapter meeting, after two candidates had received the degrees. The entertainment committee served a Thanksgiving luncheon, consisting of pumpkin pie, doughnuts and coffee in a cafeteria style. The guests marched through the banquet room with Mrs. Abrams presiding at the piano. Renewed interest in the chapter is manifested this season and prospects are encouraging for many pleasant social evenings.

Married in Eugene, November 25, 1911, at 3:30 p. m., Harry Percy Kime and Miss Gladys May McGee, both of Cottage Grove, Judge R. S. Bryson officiating. The groom is a son of A. W. Kime, and the bride a daughter of Chas. W. McGee.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Eakin entertained Monday evening in honor of their 25th wedding anniversary. A four-course dinner was served at 6 o'clock. The dining room was prettily and tastily decorated in yellow and green. The guests were amused with music and conversation. Those present were: Rev. and Mrs. A. S. Mason, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert H. Tyson, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Scoville, Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Benson and daughter Ellen.

The marriage of Miss Iva Johnson and Jay Davies Sunday turned out to be more of an informal affair than expected, owing to the intervention of friends. The wedding was to have occurred at the Davies home, but friends carried them almost by force to the Comer home, where a surprise party was on, and the couple were hastily married before the guests, Rev. J. Mark Comer officiating.

A pleasant surprise party was given Sunday evening on Rev. and Mrs. J. Mark Comer at the residence of Mr.

Conditions for elaborate bazaars to be given toward the approach of the holidays. The ladies of the Christian church met in the Endeavor room of the church on Tuesday afternoon preparing for their bazaar.

The Ladies' Aid society of the Presbyterian church is divided into different sections and are vying with each other to see who can do the most. One section met Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Geo. Kerr and another met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Clarence DuBraille. To all appearances these bazaars will be novel affairs.

The members of the Social Twelve society will entertain their husbands at the home of Mrs. Geo. Hall this Friday evening.

Class Rates Reduced. Class freight rates from Tacoma, Seattle and Portland to points in Oregon, Washington, Idaho and Montana were declared unreasonable last week by the interstate commerce commission. The reductions, averaging about twenty per cent, were ordered into effect by January 2, 1912. The decision of the commission affects all railways operating in the Pacific northwest.

The proceedings are popularly known as the "back haul rate cases," in which the railroads charge for a theoretic back haul from the Pacific coast terminal to intermediate points, although the freight is unloaded and delivered on the westbound haul. The carrier maintained they could not stand the taxation of twenty per cent, but examination of their revenues convinced the commission that the losses would aggregate only about one per cent. of the operating revenues of the lines interested.

Bohemia Notes. The late snow caused the suspension of operations at the Musick mine, as it interfered with the electric road that brings the ore to the Champion mill. The mill is running and reports it will keep going up to Christmas.

Klopfenstein and Coffman have sent out provisions to the Grizzly camp for winter's operations to finish the cross cut that will be the deepest basic ore tunnel in camp and demonstrate what kind of ore exists 2000 feet deep in this camp.

Dan Beck has sent out provisions for road work from the Riverside to connect it with the Oregon and Colorado, also the Vesuvius mill.

320-Acre Homestead Areas Opened. During October six areas were designated by the secretary of the interior as suitable for entry under the enlarged-homestead act. These include 32,119 acres of land in Idaho and Oregon and make a total of 190,426,967 acres which has been designated by the secretary of the interior as enterable in 320-acre homestead units.

Before the great drought of 1901, the Hicks Almanac gave timely warning. For over two years prior to 1911, the Hicks Almanac again sounded a warning of drought danger. And so for forty years this same friend of all the people has steadily refused the offers of speculators and continued to warn the public of the coming dangers of storm and weather. As they should have done, the people have nobly stood by Professor Hicks, their faithful public servant, who has grown old in their service. Send only one dollar to Word and Works Publishing Company, 3401 Franklin Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri, and get his Magazine and Almanac both for one year. The Almanac alone, a fine book of 150 pages, is $1.35 cents by mail. Let everybody respond and receive the warnings of our National Seer for the coming year.

An enjoyable social affair was given Saturday evening by the Epworth League in the basement of the Methodist church. Games were played and the event of the evening was a unique menu from which the guests selected a dainty luncheon that was served by members of the society.

This is a busy time among the Ladies' Aid societies of the different churches, which are making prepara-

The best business interest... good advice... in bank... this fact... on any fin... tion depos...

First

"Dian... SEED OATS... EARLY MATURING... HEAVY YIELDING... For Fall Planting... "Shadel... Challen... Best White... Gray Wint... Swedish Re... The Cor... Black Rus... Extra Ear...

For Spring... "Shadel... Earliest, 5... Hand... ing 100 bush... To know... "Shadel... and Portland... cannot afford... Write for... Ask for Catal... PORT... CA... Spri...

Located at... the Cala... feet ab... miles

Cuisine... excellent... recommend... rheumatism... kidney tro... grounds... court, croc... ments. S... hand, Auto... tage Grov... Write for... etc. Add...

Calapoo... Cott...

C. L. Churc...

FEED... I've...

BOHE... Church... Makes r... postoffice... and Friday... Feed and Li...

CATALOG... SEEDS... 1912