Sunday last was the occasion of a pleasant affair at the Woodruff home when Grandpa Comer celebrated his 70th birthday and Grandma Comer her 66th birthday. An elegant dinner was served, atfer which the afternoon was spent in social conversation and the perusal of a chest of curios that were secured by Frank Woodruff during his services in the Spanish-American war in the Phillipines. Those present were:

Dr. and Mrs. Schleef, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Comer, Miss Minnie Comer, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Tucker and two children, Mrs. Nellie Drake and three daughters, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Woodruff and L. B. Woodruff.

NEW YEAR IS USHERED IN.

New Year Bells.

The New Year was properly ushered in by the young people of the cityand some not so young-who formed parties on Main street and waited for the bells and whistles to announce the arrival of 1912. The occasion was one of merriment and refined hilarity.
